SEMI-MONTHLY MEETING

Thursday evening the Methodist Wesleyan Service Guild met at the home of Mrs. Damon Scott for their semi-monthly meeting. During the business meeting, it was decided to sponsor the Methodist Men's father-son banquet which will be held in the church dining room March 18th. Mrs. Art Weinkauff and Mrs. Fred Vohs were appointed co-chairmen on that committee.

Ten dollars was voted toward the Polio fund. It was announced that the $50.00 voted toward the Crusade for Christ fund had been turned into the church treasury. Another bond for the new church organ will also be purchased. The food sale from the previous week netted $38.72.

Following the business meeting an impressive candle light installation service for the new officers was read by the Rev. Frank E. Brown. The president, Mrs. Damon Scott, was preselected a beautiful corsage. Other officers installed were: Vice president, Mrs. Art Weinkauff; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Hazel Tollen; spiritual life secretary, Mrs. Kenneth Hickok; secretary of Christian social relations and local church activities, Mrs. Minkler. Unable to attend were: Secretary of missionary education, Mrs. Norman Richards; secretary of social and recreational activities, Mrs. Joe McClarnan.

At the close of the evening, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Kenneth Mickey and Mrs. Wickendall.

GARDEN CLUB FRIDAY

Mrs. P. C. Christensen entertained the P. D. G. Garden club Friday afternoon at her home. Besides the members present, additional guests were Mrs. Alma Thomas and Mrs. Lorene Geer.

Mrs. C. W. Bragg was in charge of the program, using as her topic "The New Rose Introduction for 1946," which was followed by a general discussion on the planting and caring of roses. Mrs. Martin Foster presented the bird study on "The Jay."

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Christensen at the tea hour. Carnations and acacia centered the tea table and favors were packages of double nasturtium seeds.

The club presented Mrs. William Petersen with a gift. Mrs. Petersen is leaving soon for Ashland to make her home.

The March meeting will be with Mrs. Andrew Brund.

WESTMINSTER GUILD

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock with Mrs. Gaylord Davies, near So. 10th and Taylor. Co-hostess will be Mrs. Aldridge.

Grovers Initiated Bethlehem Shrine

Several people of Cottage Grove were initiated into the Bethlehem Shrine U. D., order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem Saturday evening, February 2, at 8:00 p.m. in the Eugene Masonic temple. A 6:00 o'clock dinner for a large delegation at the Eugene hotel preceded the ceremonies.

The elective officers were: Mrs. L. L. Brown, worthy high priestess; C. Knaffle Haynes, watchman of shepherds; Mrs. P. L. Herbig, noble prophetess; Louis J. Caldwell, associate watchman of shepherds.

Others joining the order from here were: Mrs. Joe Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Akerblade, Miss Belle Burkholder, Mrs. Frank Crause, Mrs. Horace Cochran, Mrs. Robert Bradford, Ernest L. Clark, Mrs. Chas. E. Dillman, Mrs. Pat Graham, Mrs. Roy Graham, Mrs. Nettie Gawley, Miss Olive Gawley, Mrs. S. L. Godard, Mrs. Lester Gates, Mrs. Chas. Hall, Mrs. C. Knaffle Haynes, Mrs. Chloa R. Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Horn, Mrs. Kenneth Hickok, Mrs. Lillian Hendricks, Mrs. L. J. McLaughlin, Mrs. Henrietta Olson, Mrs. Elwyn Rude, Mrs. Jim Rachnor, Mrs. Max Sears, Mrs. Grace Smith, Mrs. Kenneth Ward, Mrs. Frank White, Mrs. T. C. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Taylor, Mrs. William Thum, Mrs. Lloyd Barber and Mrs. Chas. Spley came from Tulelake, California.

The Barbers were former residents, being in the Motor Inn Service station and had a fox farm south of town. Mrs. Spears is a sister of Mr. Barber.

Marjorie Scolbert Wilson and her three-piece orchestra played during the dinner and Helen Judy Hardy sang.

The meetings will be held in Eugene the fourth Thursday of each month.

MEETING OF ALTAR SOCIETY

The Catholic Altar Society met Wednesday at the parish house. At this time plans were completed for the benefit valentine card party to be held Friday afternoon, February 15, at the Rainbow cafe. Dessert will be served at 1:30 followed by bridge and pinocle. High and low prizes will be given. Tickets are 35c and all ladies are cordially invited.

A silver offering was taken and donated to the March of Dimes.

Mrs. Albert Tonoli and Mrs. Glenn Roland, hostesses, served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Margaret Trembley and Mrs. J. A. Trembley will be hostesses for the next meeting at the parish house on March 6.

LA COMUS CLUB, GOLF COURSE

The LaComus club was entertained Tuesday by Mrs. G. B. Pitcher at a 1:00 o'clock dessert at the golf course club house.

Guests besides the regular members were Mrs. Della Richmond, Mrs. Schofield Stewart, Mrs. Clyde Roberts, Mrs. J. P. Graham, and Mrs. L. J. McLaughlin. At bridge Mrs. Ruth Woodson received high for members and Mrs. Roberts for guests.

Mrs. Maude Wheeler will entertain the club at the next meeting, February 19.

MR. MOONEY SPECIAL GUEST

William Mooney, newly appointed Townsend National Representative for the state of Washington, who has held that position in Kansas for the past three years, was a special guest of the club Monday night. Mr. Mooney has just recently made speaking tours in Nebraska, Illinois, and Ohio and visited the national office in Chicago. He is a very able speaker, one of the best to visit the local club. He was accompanied by Mrs. Mooney and while here were the guests of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Brochvogel. The business session and short program preceded Mr. Mooney's address and refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Among other things he assured the members of better social security legislation as a result of some of the many bills before congress at this time.

PLANS MADE FOR WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

The Baptist Missionary Circle met at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Hickok on Wednesday afternoon at which time plans were made for the observance of the World Day of Prayer on March 8 at the Baptist church.

Reports were read from the White Cross and Reading committees. Mrs. W. C. Martin reported on the recent board meeting in Portland.

Mrs. Truman Clark led the devotions and Mrs. H. H. Weeldreyer presented a very interesting program on Christian Friendliness, assisted by the following ladies: Mesdames McCall, Weeldreyer, Hardy, Richmond, Collins, and Pickens and Miss Lena Zenzon. A guest of the afternoon was Mrs. Troy Dirickson of McMinnville.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess at the tea hour.

N. OF W. ELECT OFFICERS

At the regular meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft Tuesday night Mary Duffy, guardian neighbor, presided. Officers were named for the ensuing year as follows: Mary Duffy, past guardian neighbor; Ila Keibelbeck, guardian neighbor; Jean Thiel, advisor; Margaret Lasater, banker; Helen Smith, magician; Julia Bartels, attendant; Adelia Hatch, captain of guards; Nellie Blackmore, musician; Martha Cooley, inner sentinel; Eva Hatch, outer sentinel; Pearl Bressler, Sylvia Clark and Mildred Teich, managers; Anna Graham, correspondent; Eleanor Wolfard, senior guardian; Mabel Sowles, flag bearer. Horace Hatch was recommended for clerk and Anna Graham was recommended for installing officer.

Announcement was made that the next meeting night will be advance night.

The quarterly reports were read and accepted and a contribution of $3.00 was voted for the March of Dimes.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Martha Cooley and Mary Duffy.

The next social meeting will be February 19, with Mrs. Fred Bressler on North 9th street at 7:30 p. m.

WORLD FRIENDSHIP BANQUET

About 60 ladies and girls enjoyed a mother-daughter banquet Tuesday evening in the dining room of the Methodist church, sponsored by the World Friendship Group, a missionary group of high school girls, with Mrs. Frank Brown and Miss Dorothy Akerblade sponsors. The banquet was prepared and served by the ladies of the Woman's Society of Christian Society with Mrs. Walter Sorensen and Mrs. Chas. Akerblade in charge of the kitchen and Mrs. C. N. Land chairman of the serving.

The theme of the program was "World Friendship Around the World." The table decorations were in keeping with the theme and were articles of interest from various foreign countries and lighted tapers.

Following the dinner a program was given by the girls with Mrs. Paul Means of Eugene, who was a missionary in Sumatra, as guest speaker. Miss Dorothy Akerblade gave an account of "The Meaning of World Friendship Organizations." Miss Jeanette Workman told of "A Hawaiian Wedding at the Susanna Wesley Home for Girls." Miss Pat Scott reported on "A Mission School in Mexico." Mrs. Jack Caton sang a solo, a love song of Italy, "Marianina." Miss Barbara Nelson reviewed "Christianity in India," and Miss Betty Dyksterhuis reported on "A Pagan or Christian Africa." The highlight of the evening was the talk by Mrs. Means which was very interesting and instructive. She took the group on "A Trip Through a Portion of Sumatra." Mrs. Brown acted as toastmaster. The program closed with the group forming a circle and singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."
