

HOW TO Avoid SPRING DELAYS

1. Use our Maintenance Service.
2. Order needed replacement parts NOW.
3. Make minor adjustments promptly.
4. Use good oil and grease regularly.

Floyd Githens Motors

City Briefs

The Presbyterian Aid will hold a rummage and cooked food sale at Hodger's Electric shop Saturday, February 23. Open 10 a. m. 28-1tp

Announcements have been received of the birth of a son on February 7, 1946, at the Emanuel hospital, Portland, to Major and Mrs. Kenneth Kugel of Tualatin. The baby weighed eight pounds and 12 ounces and has been named Kenneth Kaas Jr. Mrs. Kugel was formerly Miss Sarajane Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Omer Moore, former residents, now living at Tualatin.

J. L. Smith of Portland arrived last week to spend the summer with his daughter, Mrs. Lottie Kirkendall.

Mrs. Ellen L. White, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Wilma, both of Portland, visited friends here last week and attended to business matters. They are former residents.

Guard your health nature's way with Chiropractic. Also look out for that cold. Dr. Simkins, over Petersen's, Phone 5. 26-tfcx

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Woodson, C. R. Woodson and Pete Woodson left yesterday for a trip to Texas. They will visit relatives at Stamford and also at Pete's home, Lubbock, Texas.

The Hayhurst grange held a potluck dinner in the Hayhurst community hall Sunday in the interest of better roads for the Hayhurst community in Douglas county. Douglas county officials were the invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ray were pleasantly surprised when Mr. Ray's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Haden of Lenora, Kansas made them an unexpected visit. Accompanying them were their son, Albert Haden and his wife with their daughter and her family. After a short visit the Hadens went on to Independence, Oregon where they expect to make their home.

Ben Laughlin of Seattle, Washington, is a guest of Jimmy Adkins at the home of his uncle, Albert Adkins.

Miss Ina Monroe of Willamette university, Salem, spent Friday night and Saturday forenoon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Monroe, and also came to visit her brother, Cpl. Wayne Monroe, who is home on furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Williams of Sutherlin, former residents, were visiting friends here Monday.

Mrs. LeRoy Berrey of Disston was shopping and transacting business here Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. Alvin J. Kammann, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, attended the annual state pastor's conference and the annual meeting of the Oregon Council of Churches held in Portland last week. Dr. Adolph Keller, representing the World Council of Churches, with headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland, was one of the outstanding speakers at this great gathering. Other prominent speakers were mostly from the Pacific coast.

The Rev. and Mrs. Leonard Edwards, evangelists, visited this week with their daughter, Miss Arline Edwards, who is staying at the P. J. Bush home, and attending school here. They also visited with the Rev. Mrs. Rozella Douglas.

Those attending the State Baptist Young Peoples conference this week end in Salem are Clara Jean and Nina Hansen, Mary Bush and W. C. Martin Jr. The conference opens Friday afternoon and runs through Sunday.

Col. and Mrs. Clifton Irwin called at the LaSells and Faye Stewart homes on Friday on their way north from California. Col. Irwin was national guard commander of the coast artillery for many years and in charge when mobilized in September 1940. Later he was transferred to coast artillery in California. He is now discharged and plans to enter civilian life in Portland.

F. F. Parker is a patient in the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco, where he is receiving treatment.

Miss Belle Burkholder attended the Willamette Shrine No. 2, White Shrine of Jerusalem ceremonial at Salem February 18, together with some officers and other members of Bethlehem Shrine No. 4 of Eugene, of which she is a member. Other Cottage Grove members were unable to be present. Mrs. Nelle Griswold of Eugene, but a former resident of Cottage Grove, was initiated. Mrs. Emma S. Brown, worthy high priestess of Salem, presided. She is a sister of Ida Williams of Cottage Grove. Miss Burkholder was originally a member of the Salem White Shrine. Mrs. Johnnie Burkholder of Eugene is a hand maid of Bethlehem Shrine No. 4 and also attended.

Other girls attending the Older Girl's Conference at Corvallis this week end besides those mentioned in last week's paper are Sharon Hoyer, Joyce Land, Beverly Benton and Vada Crosby, representatives of the Presbyterian church, and Rosemary McCrigler, representing the Church of Christ. Dr. John Knight of Willamette university is the conference speaker and Martha Ferguson McKeown of Hood River is director and advisor. This conference is under the auspices of the Oregon Council of Religious Education.

The Douglas county basketball tournament will be held at Roseburg February 28 and March 1, 2 and 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Whitehead, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Whitehead and daughter Twila and Walter Whitehead, all of Bremerton, Washington, visited the past week with the Leon Godard family.

RUMMAGE AND FOOD SALE
The Presbyterian Aid will hold a rummage and cooked food sale at Hodger's Electric shop Saturday, February 23. Open 10:00 a. m. 28-1tp

Mrs. Charles Stallsmith of Seattle, Washington is visiting her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Pollock.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Baker of Salem returned to their home Wednesday after coming Monday evening to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Theodosia Cathcart. While here they visited with Mrs. Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McFarland. They were accompanied from Salem by Mrs. Dean Duvall, another niece of Mrs. Cathcart. Another niece here for the funeral was Mrs. G. P. McClanshan of Grants Pass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McFarland, who also returned to her home Wednesday.

Mrs. Loretta Wisely and son Steven of Oakland, California, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Glass. Mrs. Glass just returned from Oakland where she had spent the week with her daughter following the death of Mrs. Wisely's daughter Constance. Mrs. Wisely will return to her home early next week.

PUPILS PRESENTED IN VOICE RECITAL

Mrs. George E. Hardy presented six of her pupils in a voice recital Wednesday evening, February 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Bagley.

The program was as follows: "The Nightingale" (Kjreuf); "The Sun on the Ganges" (Scarlatti), Miss Delores Meyer, soprano.

"Thou'rt Like Unto a Flower" (Rubenstein), Miss Dorothy Hubbell, lyric soprano.

"The Blind Ploughman" (Clarke); "I Love a Little Cottage" (O'Hara); "The Thief" (Bernard Hambien), Daniel Andriessian, baritone.

"The Lotus Flower" (Schumann); "Lullaby" (Brahms); "Florian's Song" (Godard); "Into the Night" (Clara Edwards), Miss Betty Bagley, soprano.

"The Bells of the Sea" (Solman); "For Music" (Franz); "The Big Bass Viol" (Bahannon); "O Rest in the Lord" (aria from Elijah-Mendelssohn), W. C. Martin Jr., baritone.

"Who Is Sylvia" (Schubert); "My Johann" (E. Grieg); "Still as the Night" (Bohm); "Make Believe" (Kern), Miss Roberta Bagley, lyric soprano.

Mrs. Hardy accompanied all except Miss Roberta Bagley who was accompanied by her sister, Miss Betty Bagley. The group sang before parents and a few friends. At the close of the program refreshments were served by Mrs. Hardy, assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. E. Judy of Eugene.

Pupils who will sing at a future date are: Miss Shirley Hileman, Miss Carolyn Johns, Charles Clark, Miss Bonnie Gleason and Grant Edwards.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENCE ATTENDED

A group of members of the Christian Science Society drove to Portland Monday to hear an address given in First Church of Christ Science of Portland.

Mrs. Alice Dustin reports a most interesting meeting at the Valentine banquet held in Portland last week with several hundred in attendance including Oregon's governor, Harvey Scott, our state treasurer, Marshal Dana of the Journal, and entertained by KGW musicians.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to the logging crews and kind neighbors who so willingly helped us in saving household things we did when fire destroyed our home Tuesday morning. We would seek to thank those who so kindly helped with clothing and bedding; those who helped repair the building where we took refuge, and those who offered their home and beds. Thank you so much. Otis Chapman and family. 28-1tp

CRESWELL

Creswell Grange met Thursday evening with the usual average attendance of about 87. An interesting session followed with talks by Fred Harris and G. Baker of Hebron, regarding the danger of monopoly of logging lands, their ownership and disposal. Another guest, Mrs. Florence Seines of Hood River grange, gave a short talk praising the progress made finishing the Creswell grange hall. There were several new applications.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sheppard were admitted to membership.

Pomona meeting at Coburg was announced for February 23. The grange also voted to have their own annual fair at the Grange hall. Hebron grange is to be Creswell grange guests March 14. Hebron will bring a number of candidates for initiation at that time. A substantial offering was made for the polio fund also at the close of the session.

Following this the lecture hour led by Mrs. F. L. De Berry, lecturer, followed the Valentine trend, with group songs by the audience, violin solos by H. S. Joslin, accompanied by Mrs. Joslin. Little Nora Holleman pleased the audience by a song. The little brought out a round of applause as she ended her little song. The mother, Mrs. C. Holleman, also sang several selections. A Valentine game or stunt ended the program. Members were pleased to learn that the A. E. Ellendorfs have purchased a home in Creswell, and left Friday morning for Portland to pack their household goods, and will move down to Creswell quite soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Grousbeck are busy getting settled in their newly purchased home on Springfield Heights.

The Walker Neighborhood club has made a splendid record the past year in a report at their last meeting by their chairman of Red Cross work, Mrs. A. Meyers. Over 310 articles were made by their busy fingers, and they are again at work on a new list of articles sent them by the Red Cross.

Mrs. Minnie Henrickson enjoyed a short visit with her nephew, S/C Arthur Smith, who was on his way to Portland. He spent nearly two years in South Pacific waters.

C. I. Kent is a familiar figure around Creswell these days as he books water and light meter figures at each home.

February 18 was set for a special meeting at Masonic hall when "Entered Apprentice" degrees will be given to candidates. They also plan to remodel the hall and buy several new accessories needed.

Honor Rebekah lodge plans to take part in the Theta Rho district convention at Creswell, March 2 and 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stratton of Cottage Grove were Saturday visitors at the H. S. Joslin home.

Farmers are slowly starting field work along on high places and well drained fields. Some early gardens are in also. Mrs. Van Grousbeck reports having planted three pounds of peas last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Green of Green's hardware, and G. H. Mawson Jr. and Mrs. N. Green were Portland business callers several days last week.

Rex Gwyther, discharged marine, is home in Creswell again. The bulldozer leveling down and filling up rough places around the new city well one day last week was a source of interest to the town kids as well as many older people.

The meeting of the Creswell

Chas. Wetzell sold a three acre tract off his filbert orchard to Glen Erheart one day last week. The tract is one formerly known as the Davidson tract.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wetzell also visited Sunday with friends and relatives in Coburg.

Benefit Dance
At Walker
Sat., Feb. 23
Saginaw - Walker Community Club
28-1tp

Revere Ware
COPPER-LEAD
STAINLESS STEEL
ON DISPLAY

1 1/2 and 2 quart DOUBLE BOILERS
2 and 3 quart SAUCE PANS
10 inch FRENCH SKILLET
4 quart SAUCE POT
5 1/2 quart DUTCH OVEN

Just received... a display assortment of the Cooking Utensils you have been waiting for... famous Revere Ware.

These time-proven utensils are stainless steel for longer life and easier cleaning with heavy copper bottoms that heat quickly and evenly. They are ideal for "waterless" cooking. Stop in soon and see how truly superior these utensils are. We'll tell you how to get them.

JUST SEE THESE EXTRA FEATURES OF REVERE WARE

- INDESTRUCTIBLE * EASY TO HANDLE
You can't burn a hole through them. Cool, black Bakelite pistol-grip handles.
- ALL WELDED ... * SNUG-FIT COVERS
No rivets to loosen, leak or trap food particles. Retain moisture and heat. Shorten cooking time.

JUST RECEIVED
Shipment of Cast Aluminum Ware
Consisting of:
2, 3, and 4 Quart Saucepans; 9-inch Skillets; Dutch Ovens; 11-inch Chicken Fryers, all with covers.
This is exceptionally fine ware and will last indefinitely.

Green's Hardware and Supply
Phone 222 Creswell, Oregon

Vitamins for Health
Hurry! Hurry! Our supply of Vitamins at these new reduced prices can't last long. Buy now and profit by this sale.

Vita-Vim 9 Vitamins 120 caps 1.75	A and D	Vita Ferrum 6 Vitamins 60 caps 98c
Purity Multiple Vitamins With Liver & Iron 72 for $1.00	Cod Liver Oil	Vita More High Potency Vitamin B Complex 100's $1.89
Iron & Yeast TABLETS 100 for 49c 250 for 98c	250 for $1.98	Calcium Wafers 60's for 89c

Cottage Grove Pharmacy
PHONE 244 632 MAIN

Have MORE FUN Driving Your Car....with

ASSOCIATED CAR CARE

Driving a quiet, smooth-running, full-powered car is a real pleasure. Associated Car Care—a new service for the complete care of your car, including lubrication, makes it more fun to drive. See your nearby Friendly Associated Dealer today.

ASSOCIATED VALUE-OF-THE-MONTH
Veedol Safety-Check Lubrication

Skilled and thorough lubrication of every chassis wear-point with famous VEEDOL Lubricants—plus free inspection and written report on the seven danger-points where neglect can lead to accidents. A service "extra" at no extra cost.

FRIENDLY ASSOCIATED DEALERS

Listen to Associated Basketball Sportscasts

TIDE WATER ASSOCIATED OIL COMPANY

Don't Wait
Smooth Tires Need Recapping NOW!

Don't take a chance of ruining your good casings. If they are smooth, have them recapped the new, modern O. K. way. They will look like new and give longer service.

O.K. RUBBER WELDERS
O.K. Tire Shop
810 Main St.
Phone 204

Davenola Special
$69.50
Full Spring Construction
Hard Wood Frame
$20.00 Down
Balance Easy Terms

Just Received Shipment Hot-Plates (3 Speed)

BRESSLER'S
FOR FURNITURE
Your Hotpoint Dealer