In the past two months we have attempted to improve the typographical appearance of The Sentinel and that the public appreciates a blacker head letter type is proved by the number of comments we have received since inaugurating these improvements.

This week we are using for the first time a new masthead recently designed by the engravers. In this masthead we attempted to tie in some twenty to twenty-five communities served by The Sentinel to discover that we had omitted some communities that should have been included, but to include all would have been a physical impossibility. The first kick we had was from Manley Fuller of Bennett Creek, even before we had a chance to put the new masthead in print. Next comes A. W. Shofstall who objects to classing any part of

How to Use Meat to Make Breakfasts Hearty

Cold days call for hearty breakfasts, and one of the best ways I've found to make a breakfast substantial is to include some meat in the menu. Here are some favorite winter breakfasts that will also make a special hit for Sunday brunch.

COLD MORNING SPECIAL

Tomato Juice with Lemon Wedge
Hot Apple Pancakes Rolled Around Sausage Links
Warm Syrup Coffee or Cocoa

APPLE PANCAKES—To 2 cups of prepared pancake flour, add 2 eggs and 1 1/2 cups milk beaten together. Blend well. Stir in 1 cup finely chopped apples and 2 tablespoons melted shortening. Drop by tablespoonfuls onto greased griddle or frying pan. Bake until bubbles break; turn and bake until golden brown. Wrap each pancake around a well-cooked sausage link. Serve hot with warmed syrup. Serves 6.

START THE DAY RIGHT!

Baked Winter Pears
Broiled Lamb Chops and Hashed Brown Potatoes
Toasted English Muffin Coffee or Milk

HASHED BROWN POTATOES—Melt 3 tablespoons shortening in a heavy frying pan; add 3 cups chopped or finely cut cooked potatoes, heaping them toward the center and away from the edges of the pan; season to taste. Cover with a lid or heavy plate; press down so that cover is right on top of the potatoes. Place a box of salt or rock on top to give pressure. Cook slowly and without turning for 15 to 20 minutes, or until crusty brown. Turn out onto a warm plate. Cut into 4 or 6 pie-shaped wedges to serve.
