CRESWELL

Pomona Grange met Saturday at Coburg for a full day and evening session. There was a good attendance, close to 200. Grangers came from long distances to attend. The forenoon was given over to business and much of it reached over into the afternoon meeting. A number of resolutions were given O. K. and discussions on a long list of legislative subjects finished the afternoon meeting.

The evening was given over to lecture hour and a splendid program was appreciated by the audience, followed by drill exhibition work by visiting grangers. The given but short notice, Dorena grange also responded with a drill. They were short a number of drill members, but with last minute substitutions the lovely drill went through without a hitch and won a burst of applause from the audience that spoke well for their efficiency and ready response in the face of existing difficulties.

At the close of the session a vote of thanks was given Coburg grange for their hospitality and the splendid meals served in the gay hall, decorated with flags, hatchets, cherries and pictures relating to George Washington and his birthday.

Economic club met at Creswell Grange hall Tuesday afternoon. The Alice Marie Home project was discussed and with Mrs. C. I. Kent in charge, all members are asked to bring for the shower in April, namely, clothing, sheets, napkins, short table runners, holders, canned fruit, wash cloths and other articles. The dime bags made of gay prints were distributed. A practical means of saving stray dimes for the club to be turned in at the end of the year. Material for making quilt blocks is to be brought next meeting, as well as each one to bring needle, thread and thimble. Mrs. L. Quigley presented the club with an oil stove. This was needed badly as the old cook stove is inadequate with the rapidly growing membership, and so far no new stove could be bought. Mrs. Louisa Powell and Mrs. E. Combs were added to the club membership.

Creswell grange meets February 28. The birthday list is Mrs.

E. Reynolds, Mrs. E. Grousbek, Mrs. Scarbrough, Mrs. L. Powell, Mrs. E. Tevapaugh, Mrs. E. Malone, G. Sears, Alma Vick, Harold Parks, Mrs. M. Wicks, Mrs. E. Malone and Verne McCluskey. There will be an interesting debate that evening. "Resolved Rural People are Better Educated than City Folk."

With the Valentine party a huge success, the grange has announced a St. Patrick's party March 16, with games in club rooms, and cards, and dancing in the main hall.

At the Winnawalla Encampment in Eugene last Friday, Ted Mosted, V. Johnston, J. R. Miller and Fred Humbley attended, with one candidate from Creswell, Norman Skaggs.

Young friends gathered at the F. A. Everson home Friday evening, surprising Miss Janice, it being her birthday. The evening was gay and happy with music and games and ended with a dainty lunch late in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Doty and son Stephen were Sunday guests at the H. S. Joslin home.

A special meeting at Masonic lodge has been called for Monday night.

Mrs. Chas. Weitzel has been quite ill with flu the past week. The various churches are preparing for the World's Day of Prayer, March 8th.

Lucille Kent was at home several days last week, recovering from an extraction of several teeth. Miss Kent is an employee at Salem capital.

Miss E. Roberts of Portland, also spent several days the week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McDonah left last week for Arizona, going there because of Mr. McDonah's poor health here in hopes the high, dry climate there will benefit him.

The Cub Scouts at their last meeting gave a fine exhibition flag drill and special program. It was held in the large main auditorium of the grange hall. It was a pleasant surprise as well as a treat to watch those young lads put over a drill that was really quite intricate.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Joslin were Cottage Grove visitors Wednesday.

Clearing skies, rollicking robins' spring song, puffing tractors on fields, mother out inspecting the garden patch, dad trimming the shrubs, the old hens, busy laying eggs, the old red rooster crowing his fool head off, three great white new goose eggs—spring surely has rounded the corner now!

THOUGHTLETS

By Carl B. Balch

"Righteousness exalteth a nation," but not self-righteousness. Ideas that are not translated into deeds accomplish nothing.

Can you always tell the difference between anger and righteous indignation?

Harboring hatred hampers human happiness.

Controlled imagination is one of man's greatest assets. Persons with no imagination are mentally handicapped.

Some intellectual giants are spiritual dwarfs.

Intelligence does not necessarily depend on book knowledge. I know a woman of real intelligence who can scarcely read or write.

Mrs. Brooks White of Longview, Washington, visited recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis McLaughlin. Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin and Don Wilson spent two days the first of the week in Portland.

We are now in position to accept more watch repairs. We hope to be able to give more efficient service now that materials are available.

Lillie F. Dudley Rites Are Today

Rites for Mrs. Lillie Frances Dudley, 65, will be held from the Mills Mortuary this afternoon at 2:30 p. m. with interment in the Masonic-IOOF cemetery. Mrs. Dudley, a former resident, died at her home in LaGrande February 24. She was a former resident and had lived here for fourteen years prior to the removal of the family to LaGrande four months ago. She formerly assisted her husband in the operation of the Dorena store and service station.

She was born December 10, 1880, at Warrenburg, Mo., and was married there on October 2, 1902 to S. V. Dudley, who survives in addition to two daughters, Mrs. Marzella Smith of Walla, Oregon, and Mrs. Margaret Warrington of Berkeley, Calif. Also by four grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our many friends for the beautiful flowers, the cards and letters of sympathy sent during our recent bereavement. Especially do we want to thank those who were so thoughtful and helpful when our dear sister was stricken at the church. Mrs. Lydia VanBuren, Mrs. Hattie McFarland, Mrs. Mary Hambric.

Sleeping Cars to Southern Oregon

Will Run Again Beginning March 1st

War-time regulations being modified, beginning March 1st sleeping car service will be restored between Portland and Southern Oregon cities.

Last July these sleeping cars were withdrawn on orders from the O.D.T. because they were needed for moving military personnel. Now they have been released for civilian service. This permits re-establishment of convenient overnight sleeping car service. This permits re-establishment of convenient overnight sleeping car service.
