VOWS EXCHANGED AT CANDLELIGHT SERVICE

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kenady announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mabel Kenady, to Russell Lambert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Lambert, of Portland. The vows were exchanged at a candlelight service Saturday, February 23, in the Four Square church, at Vancouver, Washington, the pastor, the Rev. C. E. Swanson, officiating before the immediate members of the families.

The bride wore a fuchsia afternoon dress with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Miss Patricia Lambert, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and wore a pale green afternoon dress and a corsage of violets. Delbert Wilson was best man for the groom.

On Sunday afternoon a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents with about 30 guests present. The bride's table was decorated with a wedding cake and candles. The bride's mother served the wedding cake after the couple cut the initial piece. Mrs. Les Corey assisted in serving.

Mrs. Lambert is a graduate of the local high school in the class of 1943 and has since been employed as office secretary at the Jefferson school. The groom is with the Merchant Marine.

They went to Boise, Idaho, on a short wedding trip, after which Mr. Lambert will ship out and Mrs. Lambert will remain with her parents until his discharge.

EASTERN STAR

Regular meeting of Eastern Star was held in the Masonic temple on Friday evening, February 22, at which time degrees of the order were conferred upon Emma Erwin. As this was the annual past matron and past patron meeting a covered dish dinner was enjoyed previous to the meeting with the officers of the past matron's club in charge. During the meeting, at which Nettie Gawley, the worthy matron, presided, the past matrons and past patrons were guests, there being 17 matrons and eight patrons. These former officers gave reminiscent talks telling of some experiences they had while in office. Mrs. Gawley presented each patron with a gift and each patron with a carnation. Mrs. Maude Wheeler, president of the past matron's club, was given a degree.

Mrs. Sorensen was chairman of the committee which served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

HARMONY CIRCLE

The Harmony Circle of the First Baptist church met with Mrs. George E. Hardy last week. Devotions were led by Mrs. Hardy.

The Love Gift offering was taken at this time which is for the World Mission Crusade program for helping war-torn countries.

The date of March 29 has been set for another social at which time the husbands will be invited. Mrs. Glenn Weeldreyer is general chairman and will announce committees soon. This social will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beager.

At the next regular meeting, March 20, Mrs. J. W. Beager will be hostess. The Mission Circle will meet with the Harmony Circle to take up a special study, "Harvest Festival."

At the tea hour the hostess served refreshments.

BROWNIE SCOUTS

The 3rd Grade Brownie Scouts had their investiture service Tuesday afternoon at the Presbyterian church with 20 little girls filling the requirements and receiving pins. The Fairy Pool ceremony was used. Leaders of this group are Mrs. E. L. Quillen and Mrs. McMillan and it is sponsored by the Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church.

After the ceremonial, games were played and the meeting closed with the Fairy Wishing ring.

VETS AND AUX. MEET

The United Spanish War Veterans and Auxiliary met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Bertha Rogers for a potluck supper and regular meeting. At the meeting of the Auxiliary, two new officers were installed, Minnie Sweet as patriotic instructor and Eva Greenlee as assistant conductor. It was voted to send a cash gift for Easter cheer to a veterans hospital.

The next meeting date will be March 25 and it will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sherman.

RAINBOW GIRLS

The Rainbow Girls met Monday night in the Masonic temple. Plans were made to have initiation at the next meeting, March 11.

B & P W Club to Meet 1st and 3rd Mondays of Month

The Cottage Grove Business and Professional Women's club met February 25, 1946, for a social and business meeting. The primary business was the announcement of a new meeting place and time. Beginning in March the club will meet the first and third Mondays at 7:30 in the Cottage Grove armory, using the east entrance.

The eight members who attended the district convention in Albany gave their report on an extremely successful and interesting meeting. The spotlight of interest was focused upon the after-dinner speech of Dr. Dillon, president of Linfield College, who had just returned from work in Europe and eastern United States as U. of O. advisor. His comments, criticisms and advice were brief, but certainly well chosen. Everyone present had a much clearer understanding of national and international relationships following his address. Members attending were Edna Burleson and Adelia Hatch, who gave a report on "Our responsibility toward our government; local, state and national." Grace Cowan, Alice Breedlove, Inez Hoyt, Marie Carstensen, Lila Graham and Lottie Lee Lamb, who represented the president in reporting the club's activities.

It was decided to table the report of the nomination committee until the first meeting in April.

The social meeting was held around a beautifully decorated banquet in honor of Mrs. Helen Judy Hardy. Many lovely gifts were received. Following refreshments a useful white elephant sale netted several dollars for the club's scholarship fund. Mrs. Ruth Caldwell and Mrs. Orris Steele were chairmen for the evening.

Next meeting will be March 4, 7:30 at the armory, east entrance. Theme of the evening will be Red Cross Million Dollar Fund.

7:30 DESSERT

A 7:30 dessert was served the members of the Carnation club Monday night by Glenda Bushell and Bernadine Layng at the Bushell home. Besides the members guests were Geneva Ballew and Nell Bukowski.

The evening was spent with bridge with scoring honors going to Mrs. Ballew and Doris Morelock.

The next meeting of the Degree of Honor lodge, March 11, will be inspection and Mrs. Ethel Lindholm of Portland, state director, will be present. A banquet will be served at 6:30 preceding the meeting. Appointed on the banquet committee were Merl King and Doris Morelock.

COOLEY HILL CLUB

At the Cooley Hill club meeting last Thursday afternoon there were three guests present besides the regular members, the guests being Mrs. Oliver Nichols, Mrs. Vinal Randall Jr., and Mrs. Alvin Dugan. Mrs. Randall and Mrs. Dugan became members of the club.

The afghan which the club members have finished will be sent to a patient at the naval hospital at Corvallis.

CLUB MEETS IN EUGENE

All members were present Monday night at the meeting of the O. W. Dinner club when they were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams in Eugene. An additional guest was Sidney Laswell of Yoncalla. A social evening was enjoyed by the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Grube of Eugene will be hosts to the club at the March meeting.

DAUGHTERS OF NILE LUNCHEON

The Daughters of the Nile will be entertained at a 1:00 o'clock luncheon Friday, March 1, at the home of Verna Lombard. Catherine Talbot, queen of Lydia Temple, Portland, will be present. This meeting will take the place of the regular meeting next Monday.

MRS. HAYNES HOSTESS

Mrs. Knaffle Haynes was hostess to the Utopia club at a dessert course and social afternoon on Thursday of last week. Additional guests included Mrs. Glennie Frost of Eugene, Mrs. Horace Cochran and Mrs. Emma Webster. Mrs. S. L. Mackin will entertain the club at the next meeting, March 21.

MISS WHEELER, DOYLE EASTBURN WED FEB. 23

The marriage of Miss Yvonne Wheeler of Eugene and Doyle Eastburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Eastburn of Cottage Grove, was an event of Saturday evening, February 23, at 8:00 o'clock in the Lutheran church, Eugene, by the pastor.

The immediate members of the families were present at the double ring service.

A sister of the bride, Mrs. Raymond Fountain, was matron of honor and wore a gray pin-striped suit with corsage of pink and white carnations.

Rex Munsell, cousin of the groom, was best man.

The bride was dressed in a three-piece soldier blue wool suit with matching hat and veil and black accessories. Her corsage was gardenias.

A wedding dinner was served Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Ferguson, sister of the groom, with 23 guests present. A two-tier decorated wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom centered the table. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fountain of Eugene were the only out of town guests.

After a week spent at the Oregon beaches, the couple will make their home here, where Mr. Eastburn is employed.

BAPTIST YOUTH BANQUET

Saturday evening at 7:00 in the First Baptist church there will be a Youths Banquet for all young people of Cottage Grove. There will be a lively program just as young people like it and good time is in store for all those that attend. The guest speaker will be Clarence Stauffer of Portland.

1945 WEATHER SUMMARY

The 1945 weather summary as given by the Cottage Grove lake weather station is as follows: Clear days, 156; part cloudy days, 80; cloudy days, 129. The 1945 rainfall amounted to 57.30 inches. The high temperature of the year was reached in August and was 96 degrees, the low temperature of 24 degrees above freezing was in January.

DESSERT COURSE

The Justamere club was entertained Tuesday at a 1:30 dessert followed by an afternoon of bridge. Mrs. Max Sears was a special guest and also received high score. The next meeting will be with Mrs. P. S. Bukowski.

Hearing aid batteries are in stock at Monahan Jewelers, Phone 234R.

N. OF. W. REGULAR MEET

The regular meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will be held next Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock in the IOOF hall. This will be advance night.

FRIENDLY CLUB

The Friendly club was entertained Tuesday afternoon at a dessert and social time by Mrs. C. N. Land at her home. The club will meet again March 26.
