SHOWER FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

Miss Marie Hohman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hohman, was the honored guest at a desert and miscellaneous shower recently given by Mrs. Joe Smith at her home. The honoree received many lovely gifts from the guests who were Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. Charles Beidler, Mrs. Ralph Teeters, Mrs. Bert Trask, Mrs. Ronald Gray, Mrs. H. B. Ferrin, Mrs. H. A. Hagen, Mrs. Ivan Patten, Mrs. Dan Trask, Miss Lois Baldwin, Mrs. Bunny Jones, Mrs. Patty VanderKley, Mrs. George Hohman, the honored guest and the hostess.

Miss Hohman left last week for Boston, Massachusetts where she will marry Murray Carney, the exact date of the wedding has not been announced.

Miss Hohman is a graduate of the local high school with the class of 1938 and of Oregon State college and Multnomah County nursing school in Portland. She served as a flight nurse with the army air forces in this country and in the Pacific area and was discharged with the rank of first lieutenant. Mr. Carney was a pilot with rank of first lieutenant, with the army air forces.

LITTLE MISS OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Little Sandra Joan Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Gray, celebrated her fifth birthday anniversary Friday, February 22nd. Guests included a few little playmates: Ronnie and Darlene Macklin, Carol and Johnny Cummings, Jeff and Wally Turay, Kirk Horn, Mike and Robin Gray, all accompanied by their mothers; Mrs. George Hohman, grandmother; Miss Marie Hohman, aunt; Mr. and Mrs. Belknap, grandparents; Miss Ruth Bussett, the honored guest and her mother.

Many gifts were received by Sandra Joan and ice cream and birthday cake were served to the guests.

MRS. GALDABINI SURPRISED

Mrs. Elizabeth Galdabini was pleasantly surprised recently by her children when they called, bringing gifts and refreshments, to help her celebrate her birthday anniversary. They visited until a late hour and served refreshments before departing to their homes.

Former Resident Wed in Goldendale

A wedding of interest to her many friends here was that of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Hall, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Hall, former residents, and Russell David Clark, who recently returned from overseas in the European theater. The scene of the impressive ceremony was the new Goldendale Methodist church at Goldendale, Washington.

The double ring ceremony was read by the bride's father before a group of 200 relatives and friends. Miss Hall was given in marriage by her brother, Thomas Hall, physical director of the YMCA of Wenatchee, Washington. She was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Hall, James Clark, brother of the groom, of Dow City, Iowa, was best man.

Thomas Hall sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Through the Years" accompanied by Mrs. Milton R. Davies who also played "Elegy," "The Swan," "Valse-Trieste" and "Lohengrins Wedding March."

The tapers were lighted by Mrs. Clinton Ferguson and Miss Ethel Jane Cahoon, roommates of the bride while she was a teacher in Olympia, preceded the wedding party and lighted the tall tapers in the candelabra.

The bride wore white satin, floor-length dress with a train and shirred bodice with chantilly lace at the neck line. Her veil was held in place with a crown of orange blossoms and bouvardia. She carried a white Bible with two orchids and white streamers. The bridesmaid's gown was aquamarine taffeta and she carried a bouquet of Tailsman roses. The church was beautifully decorated with daffodils and forsythia and lighted tapers.

Ushers were Charles Wilson and Orville Good.

The bride's mother wore a navy dress of open embroidery and a corsage of gardenias and roses.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlor, which was supervised by the Wesleyan Circle. A large wedding cake on a beautifully appointed table was cut by the bride and groom. Tiny Judy Good passed parcels of the groom's cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark went to Vancouver, B. C., for their wedding trip, after which they will visit her folks at Goldendale before going to Iowa to make their home. For going away the bride wore an outfit of powder blue with silver and black accessories.

25th ANNIVERSARY OF CLUB

The 25th anniversary of the Tuesday Bridge club was celebrated last Tuesday at a 1:00 o'clock luncheon with Mrs. F. L. Grannis hostess at the home of Mrs. Maude Wheeler. Mrs. Grannis presented each member with a gift and Mrs. Schofield Stewart, who is a charter member, was given a corsage with an appropriate poem at the presentation.

Covers were laid for eight members and one guest, Mrs. Wheeler, at the luncheon table centered with daffodils and yellow tapers. At the business meeting election of officers was held and Mrs. Schofield Stewart was elected president and Mrs. Clyde Roberts, secretary. The election was followed by an afternoon of bridge with scoring honors going to Mrs. Wheeler.

Mrs. Claude Kime will entertain the club at the next meeting.

WHITE SHRINE

Several Cottage Grove officers and members of the White Shrine attended the regular meeting which was held in Eugene on Thursday evening, February 28. Elsa Hickok has been appointed to the office of musician with Nettie Gawley as her substitute. This was the first meeting to be held after institution of the organization and there were several visitors from neighboring shrines at Salem and Portland. After the meeting refreshments were served in the banquet hall at which time accordion music and group singing was also enjoyed.

Miss Dorothy Price Bride of T. Kem

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic church was the scene of the wedding Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock of Miss Dorothy Alice Price, daughter of Mrs. William G. Price of Corvallis, and Thomas O. Kem, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude J. Kem. The ceremony was performed by Father Louis Sohler in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives. Mrs. William Bach, director of the choir, played the wedding marches and music was furnished by members of the choir, who sang "Ave Marie" and "Veni." The church was decorated with baskets of white carnations, calla lilies and snapdragons and white candles burning in the gold candelabra on the altar railing.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, George F. Gilday of Portland. Her dress was white bengaline floor length, full skirt, with sweetheart neckline and three-quarter veil which fell from a lace trimmed cap. She carried a white prayer book with white orchid from which fell white streamers intertwined with orange blossoms.

Miss Cora Price, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were the groom's sister, Miss Geraldine Kem of Salem, and Miss Donna Ewald of Sacramento, California. The attendants dresses were also white bengaline floor length, their caps were of colored net and shoulder length veils and carried bouquets of roses and sweetpeas, the colors matching their veils.

The groom's father, Claude J. Kem, was best man and ushers were Lawrence Wiese of Vernonia and Ronald Gray.

The bride is a graduate of Oregon State college, where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. She is a former Cottage Grove high school teacher and recently taught at Marysville, California high school.

The groom also attended Oregon State college, where he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He was a reserve officer in the U. S. Army and called to duty in April, 1941. He served 32 months in the Aleutian campaign and 14 months in European war, returning to the U. S. in October of 1945. He returned to inactive duty January 29, 1946.

A reception was held after the wedding at the home of the groom's parents on West Main street. Mrs. F. L. Grannis poured and assisting were aunts of the groom, Mrs. H. D. Kem of Portland, Mrs. McKinley Carr of Cottage Grove, Mrs. Alton Woodard, Mrs. Michael VanderKley and Mrs. Lois Berlin of Corvallis. After a honeymoon at coast points, they will make their home in Cottage Grove.
