SOCIETY

INITIATION PLANNED

At the regular meeting of the Theta Rho Girls Monday night in the IOOF hall plans were made for initiation at the next meeting. They also discussed plans for the convention to be held at Creswell March 23. Donna Porterfield and Joyce Land were appointed in charge of the seating of the officers. A potluck supper was served preceding the meeting. For the initiation Shirley Meyers, Joyce Stroup and Pat Rickard were appointed on the refreshment committee.

RESEARCH CLUB

Mrs. Alvis Wicks and Mrs. Gaylord Davies were in charge of the program Tuesday evening at the meeting of the Research club held in the library, the topic being "Movies and Entertainment and Education." Guest speaker of the evening was Elmer Fleming, principal of the Jefferson school, giving a short talk on "Movies and Education" which was demonstrated by showing three films of talking pictures. "From the Department of Visual Instruction" showing scientific planning which each film is put through before releasing; "Fuels and Heat" and one on "Clothing." These films are rented from the State System of Higher Education at Corvallis and used in the local schools.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. H. A. Hagen. The topic will be "Trends in Music."

"AND IT IS TOMORROW," DEVOTIONAL TOPIC

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist church was entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. Joe McClarnan and Mrs. Boyd Allen at the home of Mrs. McClarnan's mother, Mrs. H. C. Rose. The devotional service was in charge of Mrs. Damon Scott, the topic being "And It Is Tomorrow." Mrs. H. H. Hawthorn presented the lesson which was a missionary program on Africa.

The new lesson material for the year containing the worship services and programs was on hand and discussed.

The hostesses served refreshment at the close of the evening. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Wayne Monroe with Mrs. Cecil Safley and Mrs. Monroe as hostesses.

PLAYLET PRESENTED

At the meeting of the Baptist Missionary Circle Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. J. Bush, a playlet, "What Makes Peace," was presented by Mrs. George E. Hardy, Miss Lena Zendron and Mrs. Bush. This was followed by a business session and devotionals led by Mrs. E. L. Clark, on the subject, "The Touch of Jesus." Miss Zendron reviewed an article, "The Colored Race in the Postwar World," written by Dr. Benjamin Mays, president of Morehouse college. The World Day of Prayer was announced for Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Baptist church.

REBEKAH PRESIDENT TO VISIT

At the regular meeting of the Rebekahs Friday night in the Odd Fellows hall a letter was read from the president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, Mrs. Ethel Bailey, accepting an invitation to visit the local lodge on March 29 at which time initiation will be held for six candidates. The Staff captain, Hazel Culver, sincerely wishes all members of the staff to be present at the next meeting, March 15, at which time another practice will be held, also the regular staff club meeting on March 22nd to practice for this coming initiation.

Following the regular meeting of the Odd Fellows Thursday evening a pie social was enjoyed by all members and the Rebekah lodge and friends. W. A. Hemenway very capably served as auctioneer for the pies which the ladies of the Rebekah lodge brought. Ice cream and coffee were served with the pie.

OFFICERS ELECTED FOR YEAR

At the regular meeting of the Past Noble Grands club Thursday afternoon in the IOOF hall officers were elected for the year. They are Eva Hatch, president; Effie Boyd, vice president; Elsie Currin, secretary and treasurer; Mearl McKibben, marshal; Lucy Bennett, reporter; Zula Hansen, guardian; Leita Stewart, chaplain. Appointed on the flower committee were Eva Aubrey, Edith Sanders, Mina Clark. Mrs. Sandman was a visitor.
