THE CONSTELLATION CLUB

Many, many years ago, Mrs. H. A. Miller, Mrs. Lydia F. Stouffer, a charter member of Cottage Grove chapter No. 4, Mrs. Clara A. Burkholder, Mrs. Anna Graham and several other members of the Eastern Star organized the Constellation club, meaning a group of Stars. The purpose of this club is to make furniture for fixtures for the lodge hall and kitchen of the club rooms. It is also a social which meets the first Thursday of each month at the Masonic hall club rooms. The next meeting will be a covered dish dinner served at 1 p.m. All Star members automatically belong to Constellation club, but unfortunately not all attend. Some new Stars do not even know for what purpose this club was organized. Lately our membership has deteriorated so greatly that we decided to do something about it. When the Worthy Matron, Nettie Gawley, at the regular meeting March 8th called for suggestions for the good of the Order of Eastern Star, Mrs. Walter Sorensen, president, of the Constellation club arose and said she had something to say. This was the signal for the following members to rise also, leave their seats in the chapter room and form a seated circle in another part of the lodge hall and conduct an impromptu skit. Members taking part were: Mesdames Walter Sorensen, Martha Dixon, Ina Godard, Lavilla Woodard, Max Sears, Grace Smith, Geo. Hohman Miss Belle Burkholder and Mrs. Geo. Witters. Mrs. Sorensen distributed dish towels to be

EUGENE WARE TAKES BRIDE

A recent event was the marriage of Eugene Ware, recently of Klamath Falls, now operating and managing Monahan's Jewelers, and Lois Howard of Sacramento, California. They were united in marriage at Vancouver, Washington, by the Rev. Parcel of the Methodist church.

They were accompanied by Miss Arline Anderson, as maid of honor, and Dr. John Monahan, as best man.

Following the service, a reception was held in the bridal suite of the Congress hotel in Portland. They are making their home in Cottage Grove.

Spring flowers and candles formed the table decorations.

EL MARTES LUNCHEON

The El Martes Bridge club met on Tuesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Orlo Bagley for a 1:00 o'clock luncheon and afternoon of bridge with all members present. Scoring honors in bridge went to Mrs. John Kelly.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, March 19, and will be a no-hostess luncheon in Eugene at Westgate House in observance of the club's 23rd anniversary.

COUPLE WED AT ASPEN, COLORADO

A recent wedding of interest was that of Wayne Mackin, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin, and Miss Dorothy Knoebel of Manitou Springs, Colorado, who were married February 10th at Aspen, Colorado, by the Rev. Martin Owen of Aspen.

The couple plan to return to Manitou Springs after a short visit here with Mr. Mackin's parents, and will be at home after April 1st at 112 Spencer avenue, Manitou.

Mr. Mackin attended Oregon University three years and was manager of Gustafson's for two years prior to entering the service. He was in the army for four years serving as a first lieutenant in the 10th mountain division in the Aleutian and Italian campaigns. He was discharged January 18 with the rank of captain.

Enroute to Manitou Springs, they will visit Mr. Mackin's sister, Mrs. Richard Goettsche and husband, at Napa, California.

EARNshaw-STEWART NUPtIALS, MARCH 1st

Miss Maxine Stewart of Eugene, granddaughter of Mrs. J. B. Stewart of Dorena, with whom she made her home, was married to Arnold L. Earnshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Earnshaw of Culp Creek, in a simple ceremony Friday evening, March 1st, at First Christian church in Eugene. The Rev. Hugh McCallum, pastor, performed the service.

Miss Stewart, who was attired in a suit of forest green, with black hat and accessories, and corsage of gardenias and rose carnations, was attended by Miss Bernadine Loomis. Miss Loomis also wore a suit, in medium blue, with accessories in brown and corsage of gardenias and pink carnations.

Best man was Willard Herriott. Mr. and Mrs. Earnshaw are making their home in Eugene. She is employed at Valley Printing Company, and he is attending Eugene Vocational school.

WORLD FRIENDSHIP GROUP RESUMES MEETINGS

The World Friendship Group of the Methodist church met with their counsellors, Miss Dorothy Akerblade and Mrs. Frank Brown, Thursday evening at the Akerblade residence. Mrs. Brown had the lesson which was a story entitled "A Bible That Was Treasured." Following there was a discussion about the different uses of the Bible and various places it is in use.

At the business meeting election of officers was held for the year. Those elected were: President, Miss Jeannette Workman; vice president, Miss Pat Scott; secretary, Miss Barbara Nelson; treasurer, Miss Laura Porter.

Plans were made for a food and rummage sale which will take place April 13th.

Parts for a short playlet, "The Long Night Ends," were given out and this will be presented in the church sometime during the Easter season. At the close of the evening, refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be April 4th at the parsonage.

M. P. G. CLUB DESSERT

Mrs. C. C. Cruson and Mrs. K. K. Mills were co-hostesses last week to the members of the M. P. G. club at a dessert course and social afternoon. The club will be entertained at the March 19 meeting by Mrs. Harold Axley.

GUILD HOLDS ELECTION

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church held their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Stewart Carlson with Mrs. Earl Ballew as co-hostess. Twenty-two members were present and one guest, Mrs. Russell Iseli. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Pat Rickard. The congregational potluck dinner which had been planned has been postponed until March 27.

The nominating committee gave their report as follows: President, Louise Hanson; vice president, Nellie Bukowski; secretary and treasurer, Alma Sears; program chairman, Geneva Ballew; work chairman, Leona Veatch; hostess chairman, Hazel Saltsman. The new officers will be installed at the April meeting to succeed the outgoing officers who are: President, Mrs. Pat Rickard; vice president, Mrs. Clarence Holmes; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Jesse Denney; work chairman, Miss Eunice VanDenberg; program chairman, Mrs. P. S. Bukowski.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Byford Garrigus, who reviewed the chapter, "That They Might Have Life" from the book "Opening the Door for God." Miss VanDenberg led the devotional service.

The April meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Pat Rickard with Mrs. L. C. Hard as co-hostess. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening by Mrs. Carlson and Mrs. Ballew.

27TH ANNIVERSARY OF LEGION OBSERVED

At the American Legion Auxiliary meeting Monday night in the IOOF hall Mrs. Warren Daugherty reported 52 paid up members. An interesting letter was read from Mrs. Bayard Reed, a member, who recently moved to Roseburg. It was voted to give a first and second prize for the best poppy posters made by the school children. Plans were completed for the Auxiliary to sponsor a dance April 13th at the armory.

Following the business meeting the Legion members and a group of veterans joined the Auxiliary to celebrate the Legion's 27th birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Alvis Wicks had charge of the program which consisted of a short play, "Blue Beard Takes a Trip," by four eighth grade pupils, Larry Wolfard, Elizabeth Workman, Frank Rasmussen and Mae Malcolm; a reading by Lauretta Lundbom; song by Wesley Naish, followed by group singing and games.

Mrs. Frank Gierma and Mrs. Clyde Roberts served refreshments of sandwiches, ice cream and birthday cake at the close of the evening.

ALL DAY MEETING

The London 4-H Mothers club held an all day meeting Wednesday in their clubhouse. The business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. George Gunn. It was reported that two more memberships had been paid making a total of 22 members. There was a discussion about parties for the young people of the community and it was voted that the club sponsor an organization to form a club for regular parties at the clubhouse. A committee of Mrs. Maryjo Phillips, Mrs. Elvis Kelley and Mrs. Arlie Sugg was appointed. They will help organize and arrange for entertainment and chaperones at all parties.

The birthday pollyanna gift for the day went to Jeanne Morton. Housekeepers were Mrs. Elvis Kelley and Mrs. Maryjo Phillips. Craft work was on leather and it was decided that the next craft would be needlepoint when the leather articles have been completed. The next meeting will be an all day meeting on March 27th.
