George, Mrs. Lila Lilja, Mrs. Luna Hunt, Mrs. Alfred Wilson, Thelma Hodgson, Mrs. Saltsman, Mrs. Ed Frazier, Mrs. Grant Dully and the honored guest.

THETA RHO GIRLS

Theta Rho Girls held their regular meeting Monday night in the IOOF hall. At this time plans were completed for the convention to be held at Creswell Saturday. The girls are to meet at the hall at 9:00 a. m. for transportation.

Plans were also made to have a penny supper for April 6th at 6:30, with the public invited.

Initiation was held for three candidates, Clara Johnson, Mary Johnson and Jean Rickard.

NAVY MOTHERS SEWING CLUB

The Navy Mothers Sewing club will meet Tuesday, March 26, at 1:30 p. m. with Mrs. A. W. Wooley at 733 S. 3rd street.

FRIENDLY CLUB TO MEET

The Friendly club will meet next Tuesday for a 1:30 dessert with Mrs. Jessie Anlauf.

FRIENDLY CLUB OBSERVES 35TH ANNIVERSARY

Last Thursday at the home of Mrs. N. E. Compton the Friendly club observed its 35th anniversary with a dinner. Mrs. Compton was assisted by Mrs. Bessie Sutcliffe, co-hostess. The table decorations were yellow and green with a centerpiece of spring flowers and yellow tapers. Mrs. Compton was the only charter member present. Special guests besides the regular members were Mrs. Ernest Sears, Mrs. C. E. Dillman and Mrs. Stowell.

At the business meeting election of officers was held for the year with the following results: President, Mrs. Ernest Christensen; vice president, Mrs. R. S. Drenner; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. H. B. Ferrin.

The afternoon was spent socially and in reminiscing the club activities of the past year.

The April meeting will be held with Mrs. Herbert Eakin.

MIZPAH CLASS

The Mizpah class of the Presbyterian Sunday school met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Eva Hatch with Mrs. Minnie Willetts as assistant hostess. Seven members and one visitor, Mrs. Shellapho, were present. Miss Stella Adams, president, was in charge of the meeting. At the close of the afternoon, refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The next meeting will be April 16, the place and hostess to be announced later.

M. P. G. DESSERT

Mrs. Harold Axley entertained the M. P. G. club Tuesday at a 1:30 dessert and a social afternoon. The St. Patrick's scheme was carried out in the table decorations and spring flowers decorated the rooms. Mrs. Charles Beidler will entertain the club at the next meeting.

N. OF W. SOCIAL MEETING

The neighbors of Woodcraft met socially Tuesday evening for an 8:00 o'clock dessert and evening of bridge with Mrs. George Keibelbeck. At bridge Mrs. Carl Bragg and Mrs. L. Lasater received prizes. The April social meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. P. Graham.

SKATING PARTY

The Intermediate League of the Methodist church enjoyed a skating party Friday night at the Drain skating rink. About 25 members and friends attended, accompanied by their sponsors, Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. Johnson, and Mrs. Marjorie Murphy.

LUNCHEON GUESTS

Mrs. Clyde Roberts entertained friends from Corvallis Thursday at a luncheon and afternoon of bridge. Guests were Mrs. Charles Paulden and Mrs. Florence Welch, house mothers on the campus; Mrs. Bertha Nynatt of Corvallis; Miss Helyn Roberts, student at Oregon State college, and daughter of Mrs. Roberts, and Mrs. A. S. Austin, mother of Mrs. Roberts.

POTLUCK SUPPER

The United Spanish War Veterans and Auxiliary will meet for a 6:30 potluck supper with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sherman next Monday evening.

DAUGHTERS OF UNION VETERANS INITIATE

Leontine Knickerbocker, Addie Hull and Minnie Morelock were initiated into the Daughters of Union Veterans at the regular meeting held in the armory March 12. Due to the fact that Mabel Doleman was not able to be present at the installation held in the first part of January the president of the local tent installed her as senior vice president. Refreshments were served to the members by Marie Sorensen, Clara Cooley, Pearl Safley and Lauretta Safley, the hostesses. It was decided to hold regular quarterly birthday party March 26. Following the regular business meeting the group will reassemble at the home of Louisa and Miss Hazel Tohlen for refreshments.

REBEKAH LODGE

Cottage Grove Rebekah lodge met Friday evening, March 15, in the IOOF hall. It was announced that the Rebekah convention will be held in Coburg March 30. The Theta Rho girls convention will be held in Creswell on March 21. It is hoped that all Rebekahs who are able will attend this convention. An invitation was read from the lodge at Springfield asking the Cottage Grove lodge to visit them April 8th when they celebrate their fiftieth anniversary.

The quarterly birthday party will be held April 5, those whose birthdays occurred during the last quarter of the year to be in charge. Initiation will be held March 29 at which time the president of Rebekah Assembly will be present.

B. & P. W. CLUB ENTERTAIN GIRL SCOUTS

The March social meeting of the Business and Professional Women was held March 18 at the armory. The theme was a St. Patrick's party with twenty members of Girl Scout Troop 94 as special guests. Mrs. Frank Miller, troop leader, Mrs. John Long, assistant leader, and Irene Schaffer, pianist, were present also. Games such as Kissing the Blarney Stone and Passing a Hot Potato were enjoyed by all. Group singing and singing games, followed by refreshments, closed the party. Mrs. Grace Cowan, assisted by her committee, planned the entertainment.

A short business meeting followed; bills were allowed and a birthday offering was received which netted $2.81.

April 1st will be the next business meeting with the nominating and auditing committee in charge.

GIRL SCOUT ACTIVITIES

Mrs. E. L. Quillen attended the Summer Camp Committee meeting of Girl Scouts on March 14 in Eugene at which time plans were made for Girl Scout camp at Cleawox for next summer. She will attend another meeting on April 10th.

Troop No. 50 has been working on their International Friendship badges and also on their friendship bags.

Last Saturday Troop No. 52 turned in 10 filled friendship bags to the Eugene office. Thursday this troop celebrated the Girl Scout birthday anniversary with a party at the Methodist church under the leadership of Mrs. Dale Gates and Mrs. Carl Rynearson.

The B. & P. W. club entertained Troop No. 94 at a birthday party on Monday evening.

LAYNGS HOSTS AT SCHNEIDER HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Layng were hosts last Thursday evening at a potluck dinner and social evening to the members of the A. V. H. Bridge club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schneider. An evening of cards followed the supper. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith will entertain the club on the next meeting date, March 28.

MR. & MRS. BELKNAP RECENTLY SURPRISED

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Belknap, who were recently married, were very pleasantly surprised on Friday, March 15th, when a crowd gathered at their home on South Sixth street to honor them.

The evening was spent in a pleasant way. Dr. J. E. Richmond gave some amusing readings, and Mrs. Richmond rendered "The Goblins Will Get You if You Don't Look Out" in her own fine manner, her singing was greatly appreciated by all the guests. Milton Turay showed colored pictures which included some of the recent flood.

Delicious refreshments were served by the ladies. Mrs. Brownie Turay, Mrs. Gretta Estabrook and Mrs. Bernadine Howard poured. Those responsible for the surprise were Mrs. Milton Turay and Mrs. Ronald Gray.

One gift was from all, a lovely end table. Other nice gifts were received by the couple.

Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Richmond of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Estabrook and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Turay and sons Jeff and Wallie of Culp Creek; Mrs. Ronald Gray and Sandra and Michael Gray, Mrs. Thomas Howard, Alta B. Gulley, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Faust and son Dale, Rev. Mrs. Rozella Douglas of Cottage Grove. Others who were hindered from being there, but who sent gifts were Lawrence Weise, Thomas Howard, Rosa Martin, Ronald Gray, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Youngblood.

Mrs. Belknap is the mother of Ronald Gray. They are at home to their friends at 1216 So. 6th street.

METHODIST MEN MEET

The third annual father and son banquet of the Methodist Men was held Monday evening at the church. About sixty persons gathered around the tables of the dining room and partook of the bountiful meal prepared and served by the Service Guild of the church. After all had done justice to the meal S. L. Mackin led the singing of two hymns. The presiding officer, Earl B. Balch, presented the service men, who were honored guests of the evening, and they received a good hand from the gathering. Jack Godard was then introduced and in a few well chosen words, welcomed the sons, Boyd Allen, who has recently been discharged from the army, responded briefly and appreciatively for the sons.

The speaker of the evening, Dr. Paul Means, former missionary in Malaya, and at present head of the Department of Religion at the University of Oregon, was presented and he addressed those present on the subject of his work in the Malay jungle. He told of a primitive, near pigmy race of people, about five feet high, the remnants of a race who have lived in this region for two thousand years. In a series of graphic stories he told of the efforts of the missionaries to meet their poverty and disease and to help themselves. He held the close attention of all present and the address was well received. The Rev. Frank E. Brown closed the meeting with the benediction.

LOCAL COUPLE ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

The engagement of Miss Ethelmae Allen to Raymond K. Denham, fire controlman third class, USNR, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Denham, has been announced by Miss Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Allen.

Miss Allen graduated last spring from the local high school and is now a freshman at Oregon State college.

Mr. Denham is stationed at Bremerton with the navy. No date has been set for the wedding.

MRS. MONROE, MRS. SAFLEY CO-HOSTESSES

Mrs. Wayne Monroe and Mrs. Cecil Safley were co-hostesses Thursday evening to the members of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Monroe.

The lesson was presented by Mrs. Arthur Kulm, the topic being "World Outlook on Peace." Mrs. Boyd Allen conducted the devotional service on "Great Heritages." The evening was spent in making final plans for the father-son banquet which was given Monday night in the church dining room. Mrs. R. Fauquier was a guest of the evening.

At the close of the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Monroe and Mrs. Safley. Mrs. H. H. Haworth and Mrs. Arthur Kulm will entertain the Guild at the next meeting, March 28.

YOUTH MEETING HELD

A meeting was held March 11 at the home of Claude Arne for the purpose of organizing the youth of Dorena Grange. The following officers were elected: President, Lois Cook; vice president, Delores Kelly; Sec.-Treas., Shirley Arne.

The carnival date was set for April 12 and will be held at the grange hall. Candidates for carnival queen will be sponsored by the standing committees of the grange.

Esther Stratton was elected to have charge of the play which will be given by the young grangers soon.

The next meeting will be at the grange hall with Bob Wagner and Phil Lake on the refreshment committee.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Tuesday Bridge club was entertained recently by Mrs. Claude Kime at a 1:00 o'clock luncheon and afternoon of bridge. High score at bridge was received by Mrs. John Finneran. The next meeting will be March 26 at the home of Mrs. Schofield Stewart.

ROYAL NEIGHBOR DISTRICT CONVENTION

The Royal Neighbor district convention will be held in the IOOF hall Tuesday, March 26. Registration from 10:00 to 10:30 a. m., preceding call to order. A banquet will be served in the evening at the Rainbow cafe followed by open meeting in IOOF hall.

ROYAL CLUB TONIGHT

The Royal club will meet this evening, March 21, for a 7:30 dessert at the home of Georgetta Funk.

TOHNSEND MEETING

Tom Short presided at the Townsend club Monday night in the absence of President Elmer J. Kent. A business meeting was held which was followed by a program of singing, readings and violin music by Gus Hansen, Frank Hazen and Nellie Blackmore. "Irish Romance," a musical number, was given by Mrs. Fred Irwin and Mrs. O. W. Blackmore.
