MISS RITA SHIELDS WED, SPRINGFIELD CHURCH

Miss Rita Shields, daughter of Mrs. Elsie Shields of Springfield, former Cottage Grove residents, became the bride of Donald Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anderson of Springfield, Sunday afternoon, March 3, at a double ring ceremony performed in Ebbert Memorial church at Springfield. The Rev. Ellsworth Tilton of the First Methodist church officiated.

Miss Rita Shields, twin sister of the bride, attended her, and Raymond Reinheimer, cousin of the bride, was best man.

Preceding the service Miss Margie Whalley sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because," accompanied by Miss Arletta Wendel, who also played the wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, W. A. Heck, the bride wore a winter white dress with multi-colored sequin trim at the shoulders, white straw hat, also trimmed with sequins, and carried a white Bible, a gift of the bridegroom, with a lavender orchid on top from which fell white satin streamers.

Spring flowers, potted plants and candelabra with lighted tapers decorated the church.

A reception followed in the church. Mrs. Leo Wilson of Creswell and Mrs. Paul Gassler cut the cake. Friends of the bride assisted in serving.

After a short wedding trip in Portland the couple will make their home in Springfield.

O. E. S. HOST TO VISITORS

The local chapter of Oregon Eastern Star entertained the chapters of Junction City, Drain, Creswell and Springfield Friday evening. Guests escorted to the East were Dorothy Gregory, worthy matron, and Angus Gibson, worthy patron, of Junction City; Golda Woolman, grand representative of Porto Rico, of Drain; Lucia Matten, worthy matron, of Drain; Faye Hayes, worthy matron, of Creswell, and Crystal Fogle, grand martha, of Springfield. These honored guests were introduced and presented with gifts.

At this time initiation was held for Eunice DeLassus, by courtesy of Waverly chapter of Portland, and Betty Rickard. This was followed by talks by the visitors and refreshments served in the club room with Maybelle White, chairman of the committee.

It was announced the next meeting will be April 12 which will be a district meeting with Creswell, held in the local temple.

LOCAL COUPLE WED IN DALLAS CHURCH

A setting of white lattice work banked with cedar boughs and dogwood, with palms and baskets of daffodils, delphinium and flowering quince on either side formed a beautiful background for the wedding of Miss Ialo Patridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Partridge, and Domenico Quaglia, in the Assembly of God, at Dallas, Friday evening, March 8. The service was read before a large group of relatives and friends by the Rev. Atwood Foster, Salem, district superintendent, assisted by the Rev. Gordon Kampfer of Dallas and the Rev. Hilton Park of Cottage Grove.

Preceding the service Miss Ethel Berglund sang "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Kampfer, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a winter white two-piece suit with gold nail head trim neckline, white hat and white accessories. Her bouquet was of gardenias, deep rose rosebuds and bouvardia.

Miss Dorothy McCulley was bridesmaid and wore a two-piece gold colored suit. She carried a nosegay of sweetpeas.

Best man was Floyd Quaglia, son of the groom. Ushers were P. D. Harriman and Ernie McCulley.

A reception followed in the church with Mrs. Atwood Foster, Mrs. Gordon Kampfer and Mrs. Hilton Park acting as hostesses.

A large wedding cake centered the bride's table. Assisting in the serving were the Misses Genevieve Mulvihill, Carrol Gibson of Brooks, Frances McCulley, Leona Gitchell, Alice and Frances Akers, and several ladies of the church.

The couple spent a few days in Eugene before settling on the Quaglia farm on Mosby creek.

D. U. V. TUESDAY EVENING

The Daughters of the Civil War met Tuesday evening in the armory for their regular business session. The floral committee reported the illness of Mrs. Ernest Christensen, Mrs. Maude Wright and Mrs. Oscar Smith. Mrs. Walter Sorenson reported on the dinner given for the Daughters.

It was learned that the department president, Mrs. Laura Englund, of Eugene will make her official visit on April 23. All members are requested to keep this date in mind.

There being no further business the group reassembled at the home of Mrs. Louisa and Miss Hazel Tohlen for the quarterly birthday party. Clara Riggs presented crocheted centerpieces to each member present who had had birthdays in the first quarter. The gifts that were not claimed were auctioned off with Loretta Saffley, auctioneer, the amount of $3.06 being turned over to the treasurer. A beautifully decorated birthday cake, ice cream and coffee were served to the group.

RAINBOW GIRLS MAKE PLANS

Plans were made Monday night by the Rainbow Girls, at their regular session in Masonic temple, for their spring formal to be given April 27. They also made plans for a cooked food sale which will be held Saturday, April 6th, at Smith's Electric.

Local R. N. Camp Host to 25th Meet

The Cottage Grove Royal Neighbor camp was host Tuesday for the 25th inter-county convention, Royal Neighbors of America, at an all day and evening meeting. The meeting was called to order by Oracle Nellie Blackmore, State Supervising Deputy Mae Logan, District Deputy Mabel Miles and Convention Oracle Alice Breedlove were introduced and the meeting given over to the district officers, Alice Breedlove, district oracle; Edna Burleson, recorder; Maude Funk, marshal; Mae Tennis, assistant marshal, and Fern Anderson, musician, all of Cottage Grove.

The afternoon meeting opened with the formal seating of the convention officers and presentation of corsages to the officers and deputies, with Sandra DeYoung and Frances Jean Gerrard acting as flower girls. Cora Teeters, a charter member of Cottage Grove for 43 years, was presented with a corsage.

The address of welcome was given by Edna Burleson and the response by Mabel Miles of Salem. The Eugene camp put on initiation at which time Veva Collier and Launa Sugg received the degree as members of the local camp. After a school of instruction was held the meeting closed until the evening session.

A banquet was served at the Rainbow cove at which time 56 members were present, representing the Marcola, Springfield, Eugene camps and the local camp.

They returned to the IOOF hall and opened the evening meeting with group singing and Alice Breedlove, district oracle presiding. Mae Logan, state supervising deputy, installed the newly elected convention officers assisted by Mabel Miles, ceremonial marshal. The Springfield camp was in charge of the retiring march. The Cottage Grove camp put on a very impressive candlelight memorial service for the departed members.

Gifts were presented Alice Breedlove, Mae Logan and Mabel Miles in behalf of the convention, the presentation being made by Edna Burleson. Gifts were given to Mae Logan and Mabel Miles by Alice Breedlove. A program followed with a skit by Marcola; reading by Lula Whobrey of Springfield; skit by Eugene and an Indian skit by Cottage Grove. Talks by the visitors and group singing closed the meeting after which cake and coffee were served in the dining room.
