OFFICERS ENTERTAINED

Tuesday evening of last week the Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War entertained the department president, Mrs. Laura England of Eugene and the department council member No. 2, Mrs. Elva Eldred of Portland, at their regular meeting in the armory. Plans for refreshments and a program were made to celebrate the Ida May Whiting Tent second anniversary to be held May 21st. It is planned to invite Martha Bamford tent of Eugene and Mrs. Elva Eldred, who organized the local tent as the honored guest. Marie Sorensen, Miss Hazel Tohlen and Mabel Doleman were appointed to serve on the refreshment committee and Pearl Safley and Gladys Adams are in charge of the program.

The department president announced that there will be a reception held in the Osborn hotel in Eugene April 27th with the national president of the D. U. V. and her staff as honored guests. The annual convention will be held at Astoria June 18 to 20 inclusive. Both Mrs. England and Mrs. Eldred gave inspiring talks on the duties of a D. U. V. Due to the illness of the candidate, Harriette Barnes, initiation was postponed until May 14th.

Following the regular meeting, the group met at the home of Mrs. Louisa and Miss Hazel Tohlen for refreshments served by Cora Cooley and Gladys Adams.

The D. U. V. all over the nation has as a project as keeping alive the memory of those men in blue who fought to preserve our union. This year they are planning to furnish the Red Cross for the youths in the military hospitals micro-filmed projectors. The projectors are controlled by the patients with little effort. Clear readable images are thrown on the ceiling directly above the patient's head.

DORCAS CIRCLE MEETS

The Dorcas Circle of the Baptist church met on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. P. J. Bush led the devotionals, reading the 91st Psalm, followed by prayer. The committee reported on the gas water heater and it is hoped to have one installed soon.

Ten dollars was donated for the improvement of our summer camp at Arrah Wana. Cards signed by the ladies present were sent to Mrs. George Hardy and Mrs. John McCall, who were patients in Eugene hospitals.

The nominating committee submitted the following names, president, Mrs. P. J. Bush; vice president, Mrs. E. Hansen and secretary and treasurer, Mrs. T. Clark, and they were unanimously elected.

4-H MOTHERS CLUB HOLDS ALL DAY MEETING (Delayed)

London 4-H Mothers club met on Wednesday for an all day meeting at their clubhouse. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Lawrence Funk, vice president. It was decided that youth committee composed of Mrs. Funk, Mrs. Elvis Kelley and Mrs. Arlie Sugg, hold a meeting of the young people to organize their club groups and elect officers so that they can make plans for early fall parties. It is planned to have two groups; the grade school and high school groups.

It was voted to recommend a card system among town merchants for the distribution of hosiery for rural customers who are not able to participate in the line-ups. It was also voted to fence in the front porch for the small children to play on.

Record books for Mable Funk's Camp Cookery club were judged by a committee and the half scholarship to 4-H Summer camp, awarded by the Mothers club was awarded to George Clark, alternates are Gary Funk and Doyle Paul.

Mrs. Kenneth Brown was welcomed as a new member. Housekeepers for the day were Mrs. Amos Ketcherside, Mrs. Joseph Miller and Mrs. Emma Kelley. Mrs. Arlie Sugg was presented with a Pollyanna gift. The day was spent at handwork.

Members were asked to bring tools for cutting shrubbery and grass around the clubhouse, at the next meeting on May 8th.

EASTERN STAR
