SOCIETY

MAY MEETING, B. & P. W.

The May meeting of the Cottage Grove Business and Professional Women's club was held May 6th at the armory. Mrs. Breedlove opened the meeting and Carolyn Hunt's resignation as vice president was accepted. This made it necessary to conduct a special election at which Grace Cowan was elected and installed as president to complete the remainder of the year. Mrs. Angela Nickols was accepted as a new member and Mrs. Donna Cooper, now of Portland and a charter member, was introduced as a guest. Mrs. Ruth Caldwell's resignation as the club's recording secretary for next year was accepted and Lila Graham elected to fill this position.

The delegates to the State Business and Professional Women's meeting were given their instructions. Those chosen to attend at Portland are Grace Cowan, Edna Burleson, Adelia Hatch, Lottie Lee Lamb, Lila Graham and two alternates.

The next social meeting will be at Landon's, May 20th.

DRAIN BROTHERS MARRY TWIN SISTERS

Of much interest is the wedding in Reno, Nevada, May 7 of Robert Spencer to Miss Betty McDonald and Jack Spencer to Miss Carolyn McDonald, all of Drain. The brides are twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. McDonald and the brothers are sons of Mrs. Lillian Spencer. Both recently returned from the service. They were accompanied to Reno by Miss Jane Spencer, sister of the bridegrooms, who acted as bridesmaid.

ANNUAL EXPERIENCE SOCIAL LAST WEEK

The annual experience social of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church was held on Wednesday afternoon of last week in the league room of the church. The amount of $180.00 was turned in by the captains, Mrs. N. E. Compton, assisted by Mrs. Albert Woodard, and Mrs. Walter Sorensen, assisted by Mrs. Lee Cooley. Mrs. Compton's side were the winners.

The worship service was led by Mrs. J. D. Monroe. The program consisted of two numbers by the high school girls chorus; a solo by Miss Frances Thrus; reading by Mrs. Boyd Allen and an original story told by Mrs. Bert Land.

Yellow tulips lilacs and white spirea decorated the rooms. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. C. N. Land, Mrs. Lee Cooley and Mrs. Paul Dyksterhuis, who served refreshments at the tea hour.

MRS. QUAGLIA, MRS. TONOLI HOSTESSES, ALTAR SOCIETY

Mrs. Michael Quaglia and Mrs. Joe Tonoli were hostesses to 21 ladies for the regular meeting of the Catholic Altar Society on May 1 at the parish rectory. It was reported during the business meeting that the recent food and rummage sale was very successful, and the ladies wish to express their appreciation to all those who helped to make this sale a success. At the close of the business session refreshments were served, after which Mrs. Robert Boyce Jr. was honored with a surprise shower. Several ladies who could not be present sent gifts.

Mrs. Claud Troclair and Mrs. Joe Bricher Jr. will entertain at the next meeting on June 5th at the parish rectory.

TUESDAY EVENING CLUB ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Tuesday Evening club was held recently in the form of a theatre party when the group met at the Arcade theatre and attended the show in a body. Afterward they adjourned to the home of Mrs. Clyde Roberts for a dessert and business meeting at which time election of officers was held for the ensuing year. Officers elected were: Mrs. Charles Hall, president; Miss Marlette Hamant, vice president; Mrs. Joe Smith, secretary and treasurer.

Miss Whitlock Bride at Church

Tall baskets of pink and white snapdragons and white tapers in candelabra on either side of the altar formed the setting Sunday afternoon, May 12th, at the Methodist church at 3:00 o'clock for the wedding vows of Miss Betty Whitlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Whitlock, and Robert G. Woolcott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woolcott. About 80 guests witnessed the double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Frank E. Brown.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dark brown suit with aqua accessories and an orchid corsage. She carried a white satin covered Bible topped with lilies-of-the-valley from which fell white satin streamers.

Miss Verla Jean Whitlock, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a gold colored suit with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Morgan and Mrs. Dean Addington, who wore light tan colored suits with corsages of gardenias.

Russell Woolcott, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Kenny Whitlock and Russell Woolcott.

The tapers were lighted by Miss Barbara Anderson and Miss Beverly Whitlock, who wore pink dresses and corsages of gardenias.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Boyd Allen played "Because" and Miss Lucille Eastburn sang "Into the Dawn With You" and was accompanied by Mrs. Allen, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors. A lace cloth graced the bride's table which was centered with a bowl of floating gardenias and lighter tapers in forstoria candlesticks and a four-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. After the bride and groom cut the cake it was served by Mrs. Mark Morgan and presiding at the punch bowl was the bride's aunt, Mrs. Henry Bennett. Assisting in serving were Mrs. S. L. Godard, Mrs. Nellie Paul and the Misses Verla Jean Whitlock, Beverly Whitlock, Barbara Anderson and Betty Morgan.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were the bride's uncle, Harold Whitlock, of Bremerton, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Chet Wheeler and two daughters Shirley and Carolyn of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stoffer of Albany; Chloris Roberts and Donna Paulson of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lyons and Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Barnes of Portland; Mrs. Mary Burchan of Independence; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pallaske and daughter JoAnn of Eugene; Rev. Ellsworth Tilton of Springfield.

The couple left for a wedding trip to California where they will visit the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bennett. On their return they will make their home south of town. Mr. Woolcott is employed by the Woodard Lumber Company.

FAMILY NIGHT AT METHODIST CHURCH

Family night was observed on Tuesday evening of last week at the Methodist church with members and their families gathering for a potluck supper in the dining room which was followed by group singing of hymns and a talk by Mrs. Mary Miller, Child Welfare worker from the Lane County Public Welfare office in Eugene. Mrs. Miller told of the work being accomplished throughout the county and state through this office and other welfare offices. This was followed by a discussion and the answering of questions by Mrs. Miller.
