LONDON 4-H MOTHERS CLUB

London 4-H Mothers club met at their clubhouse for an all day meeting. It was reported that the president, Mrs. George Gunn, had been called to Salt Lake City and the business meeting was conducted by the vice president, Mrs. Lawrence Funk. Mrs. Arlie Sugg, secretary, was instructed to turn the donation raised for the canner fund in to the community canner. A report was made that a gift had been purchased for Mrs. Doran Ritter as a housewarming present for her new home. Mrs. Ritter was a charter member and served as secretary-treasurer since the club's first year, until her recent retirement when she moved to Cottage Grove.

The youth recreation committee reported on the parties held at the clubhouse recently.

It was decided that the next meeting would be an afternoon affair on their regular meeting date and will be a shower to honor a recent bride in the community.

Mrs. Ada Howard of Los Angeles was a guest for the day. Housekeepers were Mrs. Willard McKay and Mrs. Leon Morton.

BETHLEHEM WHITE SHRINE

Bethlehem White Shrine met in regular session in the Masonic temple in Eugene Thursday evening, May 23, with the usual good attendance of Cottage Grove members. It was announced that installation of officers would be held at the next meeting, June 27. Anna Graham gave a brief though interesting history of White Shrine which she had been requested to prepare. At the close of the meeting the members withdrew to the banquet hall for refreshments and an hour of merriment over the antics of certain circus animals enacted by various members.

ENGLISH BRIDE HONORED AT SHOWER TUESDAY

Mrs. Dale McGarvin, a very charming English bride, and her three months old daughter Linda Pauline, also very charming, recent arrivals in our community, were guests of honor at a miscellaneous shower at the Christian church Tuesday, May 21, sponsored by the Sunshine Circle.

A covered dish luncheon was served at noon to about 35 church women and friends, several others coming in after lunch.

The tables and church parlors were beautifully decorated, and a corsage was presented to each guest as she arrived. The gifts were arranged on a large table.

Mrs. McGarvin received many lovely and useful gifts both for the new home and for the baby, and expressed deep gratitude for the material gifts and the spirit of American hospitality which inspired her.

A Mothers Day program was presented in the afternoon, followed by a business meeting.

The next meeting of the Sunshine Circle will be held on Tuesday, June 4. As usual it will be an all day meeting for work and a potluck luncheon at noon.

WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

Mrs. H. H. Haworth and Mrs. H. Minkler were co-hostesses Thursday evening to the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist church at the Haworth home. Mrs. Fred Vohs Jr., led the devotional service on "Valiant Women" and Mrs. Frank Brown had charge of the lesson, the subject being "The Real Methodist Woman." It was decided to send the Pollyanna basket around among the Guild members to raise funds.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. Harold Smith, Mrs. Harold Hicks and Mrs. Fred Vogler.

Mrs. Damon Scott was appointed chairman of the welcome committee for church services during June. The hostesses served refreshments at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Earl Woodson will entertain the Guild at the next meeting.

SHOWER FOR FRENCH BRIDE

Mrs. Harold Hicks, assisted by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Leonard Hicks, complimented Mrs. Bob Denham, nee Miss Gisele Dumont, a recent French bride of Lille, France, with a baby shower at the home of Mrs. Harold Hicks. About 15 ladies were present Friday evening to honor Mrs. Denham and she was the recipient of many dainty and lovely gifts. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by the hostesses.

BETROTHAL ANNOUNCED

The betrothal of Miss Helen Joan King to Daniel J. Dunn of Reedsport, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellie G. Dunn, has been announced by Miss King's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. King. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss King graduated from the local high school in 1944 and is now a student nurse at Sacred Heart hospital in Eugene. Mr. Dunn is a sophomore majoring in business administration at the University of Oregon. He is a member of Sigma Chi, social fraternity.

Elise attended school in Cottage Grove up to the 7th grade, when she moved to Portland.

MISS DUNLOP ENGAGED TO ROBERT MCCOY

Mr. and Mrs. Stirl Dunlop announce the engagement of their daughter, Patsy, to Robert L. McCoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. McCoy. Both are local young people. Mr. McCoy is now serving in the U. S. Navy at Great Lakes, Illinois.

Miss Dunlop is a member of the graduating class of the local high school. Mr. McCoy was also a member of this year's class and will receive his diploma this spring.

No date has been set for the wedding.

MARRIED BY CANDLELIGHT

In a double ring ceremony by lighted candles in front of the fireplace, at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Dan Merrell, Miss Marjorie Lovelace became the bride of John W. Johnson. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Lovelace of Parsons, Kansas, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson of Lawrence, Kansas. Rev. Frank Brown officiated. Given in marriage by her uncle the bride wore a navy and white suit with white hat and black accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of gardenias and sweet peas. She wore a locket of her mother's that her mother wore when she was married. The bride's sister, Miss Virginia Lovelace, was maid of honor. A reception was held afterward by Mrs. Dan Merrell to close relatives including Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Campbell, Barbara, Norma and Colin. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are at home at 1117 East Main St. He is employed with the Ford Garage in Cottage Grove.

EASTERN STAR CONFERS DEGREES FRIDAY NIGHT

At the regular meeting of the chapter of Eastern Star Friday evening with Nettie Gawley presiding, degrees were conferred on Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gates and Melba Geer. Following the degrees Mr. and Mrs. George Gates were introduced and presented with flowers for having most of their children members of the Star.

The chapter received an invitation to attend North Star chapter of Drain on June 7. Several visitors were present at the Friday evening meeting. Ilma Thum, grand associate conductress, was honored in the East. She invited the members to attend grand chapter which will convene in Portland, June 10. Due to the grand chapter meeting at the next regular meeting time, the local order will not meet again until June 28.

It was voted to have a penny drill at each chapter meeting to raise funds to send candy or flowers to the members at the Masonic home.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by the committee in charge with Mrs. Matt Smith as chairman.

DAUGHTERS OF NILE

Couple Wed at Springfield

A beautiful and impressive double ring ceremony took place Sunday afternoon in the Springfield Methodist church, when Miss Marion Balch became the bride of Clifford L. Carlson. The rites were performed by the Rev. Ellsworth M. Tilton, pastor.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Norman Richards sang "Ich Liebe Dich". The bridal party took their places in front of the altar, the bride entering on the arm of her brother Richard, and was given by her father. She was attended by Miss Mildred Carlson, sister of the groom. Ted Peterson was best man. At the close of the ceremony Rev. Frank E. Brown sang "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Leota Neat presided at the organ.

The bride was dressed in a powder blue suit and carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds. The bridesmaid wore a pale green suit with black accessories and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds.

A dinner was given in the Mirror room of the Eugene hotel for the immediate members of the family and guests from a distance. The young couple left early in the evening for a short honeymoon at Ocean Lake.

Mrs. Carlson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Balch. She was graduated from the Cottage Grove high school in 1939. Mr. Carlson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carlson of Ione and has just recently been discharged from the navy. Both Mr. and Mrs. Carlson are former students of the University of Oregon.

Those present from out of town at the Balch-Carlson wedding included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carlson, Miss Mildred Carlson, Ted Peterson and Rollo Crawford of Ione; Major and Mrs. Frank Cox and daughter Ardath, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Penit, Mrs. Chas. Eastman, Miss Bernadine Eastman, Miss Eileen Heinstead, all of Portland. Relatives of the bride present residing in Eugene were Mrs. Lois McHoes, Mrs. Sadie Heinstead, Mr. and Mrs. B. D.
