GROUP VACATIONS AT BEACH

The World Friendship high school "Quebys" of the Methodist church had a wonderful week end of recreation, swimming, singing, etc., at Big Stump on the coast. They left Friday morning and stopped at several points of interest along the way.

Sunday morning the girls visited the Presbyterian church at Waldport, and heard an inspiring sermon concerning the fact that "we should all be God's teachers." Following the church service the girls were homeward bound. Those who enjoyed the week end were Mrs. Frank Brown, sponsor, Mrs. W. W. Hileman, and the following girls: Shirley Hileman, Marjorie Cone, Joyce Stroup, Pat Scott, Jeanette Workman, Pat Rickard, Alice Hanks, Betty Dyksterhuis, Phyllis Englund, Barbara Nelson, Laura Porter.

DINNER HONORING GOLDEN WEDS

About 75 members and families and friends of the Methodist church joined in a covered dish dinner Sunday, following the morning church service, in the dining room to pay honor to those who had been married 50 years or more. The tables were beautifully decorated with gold colored flowers and gold tapers. A short program followed the dinner, with the Rev. Mrs. Alice Camp of Creswell giving an inspirational talk on "At Even Tide." Mrs. R. Fauquier and the Rev. Frank Brown sang a number of songs; Elmer Kent gave an original poem and Mrs. H. B. Breedlove read an original poem written by Sam Mackin for Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Leonard on their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Several of the honored guests gave responses.

The honored ones present were Mrs. Carrie Starr, who was married 68 years ago; Mrs. Clements, 65 years ago; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. George Moxley, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Leonard and Weston Allen, all of whom had been married over 50 years.

ALTAR SOCIETY

Mrs. Claud Troxclair and Mrs. Joe Bricher, Jr., were hostesses on June 5 to 15 members and 3 guests of Catholic Altar Society.

At the business session it was decided to hold a meeting once each month during the summer.

Plans were completed in regard to the summer religious vacation school currently being conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Names of Eugene, Oregon.

Mrs. Glenn Flatters will be hostess for the next meeting of the society on July 10th at the parish rectory.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS

The Royal Neighbors met Tuesday night in the Eagles hall. Following the business session refreshments were served by Maude Funk and Mae Tennis.

Golden Wedding Observed by Shays

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shay celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon, June 9th, at the family home on South Sixth St. where they have resided for the past 37 years. They were married at Cedar Springs, Mich. where Mr. Shay was engaged in the mercantile business.

Fifty friends called during the afternoon to offer congratulations and 100 cards, telegrams and messages were received from friends and relatives who could not be present.

The house was a profusion of flowers which were gifts of church friends and neighbors, with yellow roses, yellow snapdragons and blue delphiniums predominating. Ice cream and cake were served during the afternoon.

Guests at the home included two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Shay, Mrs. Muriel Rehm and Mrs. Marjorie Ismael of Portland, Oregon, two grandchildren Donald Rehm and Jeanette Ismael and a niece, Mrs. Mabelle Russell of Eugene, at the home of whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Shay were married.

Mrs. Shay was presented with a corsage of gardenias and yellow rosebuds and Mr. Shay a rosebud boutonniere. The couple received many beautiful and useful gifts.

TOWNSEND NEWS

Special numbers on the program Monday night were a group of songs by some ladies and men from the Methodist church. Others included readings and stories and musical numbers by Mr. Hazen and Mr. Hanson with Mrs. Nellie Blackmore at the piano. Mr. Geo. Hawley's famous bean soup was served as refreshments and good reports on the petition progress were given.
