THE CLUB

The greatest thing that ever happened, In our little home town, Was the organization of a club, And we'll never let you down.

The women of the Mother's Club, Are faithful, good and strong, We may talk about you some, But our hearts are never wrong.

The president of this 4-H club Is true loyal Goldie Gunn, She serves well the entire year But never receives any mon.

Without our Jeanne Morton, This Mother's club would die, To find a more sincere member, We simply would not try.

There is true blue Esther, And faithful Gladys too, Don't forget Mable nor Lawanna, When work there is to do.

When baking bread or clean up Is needed for club day, There is faithful Mary Philips Who serves us without pay.

Another loyal member is dear Edith Woods, From her store of plenty She always contributes goods.

A most adorable person Who weeps us within the law By her precept and admonition Is dearly beloved Ma.

A charter member who helped us to gain our great renown Is ambitious Margaret Ritter Whose home is now in town.

You'll never find a better club, 'Neath the rising and setting sun.

If great disaster befalls you, Or should you choose to wed, Our club will never push you down We'll give you a boost instead.

So when we heard that "Sister" From Miss to Mrs. became, "A shower" we said "We'll give her"

Because she has a new name. "Sister accept these gifts from us, Indeed we love you truly, Although you've changed your name From Winifred Newton to Mrs. Cooley.

Farm Cost Index Mounts Rapidly OSC Report Shows

Farmers now may well keep an eye on the so called "parity" index published monthly by the USDA to show the trend in farm costs except hired labor, believes L. R. Breithaupt, O. S. C. extension agricultural economist. Even in 1945 farm operation expenses in Oregon had reached a level greater than the total value of crop and animal production before the war and higher costs are indicated for 1946, he says.

The parity index of farm costs rose sharply from mid-April to mid-May this year. At 184 per cent of 1910-1914 this index at mid-May was 3 points higher than at mid-April and 11 points over May 1945. Including hired labor, farm costs are now around 5 or 6 per cent higher than a year ago, the data indicate. Price advances for farm products have averaged nearly as much so far, however, although some have declined sharply recently.

Compared with a year ago, the exchange value is lower, especially for hay, potatoes, truck crops as a group, and for poultry and eggs. Dairy products, meat animals and wool are also somewhat lower in purchasing power. Wheat, corn and other grains were higher at mid-May in exchange value as well as in money prices, reflecting government buying to meet overseas relief demands.

Actually, the parity index has risen far less than farm operation expenses in dollars. Whereas the parity index of prices paid rose only 40 per cent from 1939 to 1945, Oregon's actual farm operation expenses practically doubled to reach near 160 million dollars. A part of the difference is accounted for by the need to increase expenses in meeting the war-food goals calling for production about one-third above the prewar volume.

Thus the actual cost of the items that are included in the parity index rose more than the index. Furthermore, the cost of farm labor is not included in the index and hired farm labor was the principal item of expense that increased. Hired farm labor expense is 200 per cent greater in Oregon than before the war, and now accounts for about one-third of the total farm operation expenses, with the parity index items two-thirds.

Currently, most of the increase in farm costs is occurring in prices for commodities needed by farmers for production. These goods include many items that together represent about six-sevenths of the prices that are included in the parity index. Taxes and interest account for the other seventh. Family living expense is not included in the parity index, but this is up 12 per cent in the past year.

How to conserve bread

The Famine Emergency Committee has asked Americans to cooperate during the present food emergency to conserve bread so that starving people in other lands may be fed. We offer in the following suggestions ways to save precious bread.

TO KEEP YOUR BREAD FRESH — Open the wrapper at one end of the loaf only. Remove the heel, take out only the slices needed, replace the heel, and fold over waxed paper.

TO FRESHEN DRY BREAD — If your bread becomes slightly dry, sprinkle the wrapper around the bread with water or put the bread in a paper sack and sprinkle. Place in a moderate oven (350° F.) for about 10 minutes or until bread is heated through. Serve immediately for a homemade-bread flavor.

MELBA TOAST — Use leftover sliced bread. Place on a baking sheet in a single layer and dry out in slow oven (250° F.) about 1½ hours or until a tempting tawny brown. Store in an airtight container and use as needed. Use in place of bread for breakfast, lunch, dinner or as a snack.
