Oregon Couple Wed in Des Moines, Iowa

A wedding of interest to their many Oregon relatives and friends was that of Miss Mary Jane Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Smith, to Dr. Harry Simonson Irvine Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Harry S. Irvine Sr., of Portland, who were married in a lovely floral setting of summer flowers in the beautiful chapel of the First Methodist church in Des Moines, Iowa, on Friday afternoon, June 28, at four o'clock. Dr. Bacon officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a white ruffled period dress of nylon marquisette and wore a white horse hair halo hat with trim of ostrich tips and stephanotis. Her bouquet was of gardenias, white daisies and stephanotis.

Miss Edith Irvine, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and the bride's only attendant. She wore a light blue taffeta floor-length dress and carried a nosegay of blue gladioli centered with rosebuds.

Best man for Dr. Irvine was Dr. Leslie Montgomery, a friend of the groom.

The bride graduated from Oregon State college and the University of Oregon medical school of nursing and served as a navy nurse for over two years. She received her discharge recently with the rating of Lt. (j.g.).

Dr. Irvine is a graduate of Willamette university and the University of Oregon medical school and is serving his internship in the Iowa Methodist hospital in Des Moines.

After spending a wedding trip at Lake Okoboji in northern Iowa they are at home at 3301 Kingman Blvd., Des Moines.

Dr. and Mrs. Irvine, parents of the groom, and their daughters, Edith and Mary Ann, attended the wedding of their son.

Miss Crick Wed in Southern California

On Saturday, June 29, at 5:00 o'clock Miss Mary Crick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crick of Delight Valley, became the bride of Leslie S. Otis, son of Mrs. Helen Otis, of Hollywood, California, at the home of the groom. The double ring service was read by Dr. Louis H. Evans, pastor of the Hollywood Presbyterian church, before a group of fifty close friends and relatives. Potted ferns and white tapers in candelabra with white roses and stock attached to the burning candles formed the setting for the ceremony.

The bride wore a street-length gray crepe dress and matching hat with blue accessories and an orchid corsage.

Miss Martha Crick, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a blue silk dress and white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Best man was Jack O'Connor of Hollywood, friend of the groom.

A reception followed in the home of the groom. The bride's table was centered with an all-white decorated wedding cake of three tiers, topped with a gardenia and surrounded with white sweet peas and maiden hair fern. White tapers also decorated the table.

They spent their honeymoon on the Crick ranch in Delight Valley.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Couple

Before an altar decorated with baskets of pink and white gaidoli delphiniums and double candelabra, in the First Baptist church, Eugene, on Sunday, June 29, Miss Jean Mornhinweg and Gordon Elving exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mornhinweg of Eugene and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elving of Cottage Grove. The tapers were lighted by Alvin Hill and Neil Hammond. Dr. Vance H. Webster, pastor, read the ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony Kenneth Harmon sang "Because" and "Always," accompanied by Miss Jerine Newhouse, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white organza gown with matching mitts, fitted bodice and full train. Her fingertip veil fell from a headdress of lilies-of-the-valley. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, Rapture roses and stephanotis.

Miss June Elving, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a pink chiffon dress and a coronet of white daisies in her hair, and carried a bouquet of Esther Read daisies and carnations, centered by a gardenia and edged with starched white lace. Mrs. Keith Parks wore a similar frock in pink with a coronet of blue daisies and carnations centered with Rose Elf roses with starched blue lace. The Misses Barbara and Beverly Houghtling, twin cousins of the bride, wore identical dresses of blue, each with a crown of pink daisies. Their bouquets were similar with starched pink lace.

Little Janet Dawley, flower girl, wore a yellow gown and scattered rose petals in the bridal path. Billy Ray Taylor carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Jerry Mosby served as best man for the groom and ushers were Robert Kimball, Neil Hammond and Alvin Hill.

A reception was held following the ceremony for approximately one hundred guests. Mrs. Corbett Skelly, aunt of the groom, served the cake and Miss Genevieve Koepf poured. Assisting were Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Mrs. William Woodie and Mrs. Max Allen. Mrs. Charles Hollis had charge of the guest book.

For going away Mrs. Elving chose a pink dress with white accessories and her gardenias from her wedding bouquet. After a wedding trip to Southern California, they will be at home in Cottage Grove.

Couple Exchange Vows at Church Rites

Baskets of salmon-pink and white gladioli and delphiniums and lighted tapers in candelabra decorated the First Congregational church in Eugene on Saturday afternoon, June 29, for the wedding of Miss Shirley Mae Coombs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Coombs of Springfield, to Daniel L. McCormack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCormack of Cottage Grove. The Rev. Wesley Goodson Nicholson officiated at the ceremony at two o'clock.

For the wedding music, Miss Gloria Chellis sang "Dannie Boy" and "Because," accompanied by Miss Mary Grubbs, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown with white taffeta bodice, its net yoke embroidered with beads, and a skirt of net over satin, with train. Her full-length veil was held in place by a tiara of seel pearls, and she carried a bouquet of francosa, a new variety of lily-of-the-valley, centered by an orchid.

Her maid of honor, Miss Jean Coombs, her sister, wore a gown similar in style, with blue jersey bodice and net skirt, and she carried a nosegay of sweet peas in pastel shades with pink rosebuds in the center, and a half-halo of stephanotis in her hair.

Miss Kay Kennedy was flower girl and wore a pink organza dress in the same style, trimmed with net and blue bows, and wore a wreath of blue flowers.

Best man was Louis Polley and ushers were Jerry McCormack, brother of the groom, and William Davis, a cousin.

A reception was held in the Wheeler room following the wedding, where Mrs. Wayne Dillingham cut the cake and Mrs. Nellie Davis of Eugene and Mrs. Glenn Sroufe of Walton poured. All three are aunts of the bride.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon coast and Crater Lake the couple will be at home in Eugene. In the fall Mr. McCormack will attend Oregon State College.

Goshen Girl Weds Creswell Man

Miss Mira Ruede of Goshen became the bride of Maurice Lower of Creswell at a seven-thirty candlelight service on June 28 in the Grace Lutheran church in Eugene. Miss Ruede is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Ruede of Goshen and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lower of Creswell. The Rev. W. B. Maier officiated. The church was decorated with baskets of gladioli, delphiniums and daisies, and a candle in each window. Orvin and Owen Ruede, brothers of the bride, lighted the tapers in the candelabra.

Miss Berline Anderson sang "Because" preceding the ceremony and the wedding music was played by Miss Gertrude M. Deierlein.

The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father, wearing a gown of white satin, fashioned with lace over the shoulders and on the train. A crown of stephanotis held her fingertip veil in place. Her heart-shaped nosegay was of red roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Paula Belkman whose gown was of pink net and her nosegay was of pink carnations. Bridesmaids were the Misses Elaine Gau and Deloris Klipfel, whose gowns were of aqua taffeta. They carried nosegays of sweet peas, pink roses and white carnations. Flower girls were Misses Adella and Aurelia Ruede, sisters of the bride.

William Lower, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Orvin and Owen Ruede.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. V. R. Brenden, aunt of the bride, cut the cake, assisted by Donna Brenden and Mrs. J. Klipfel.

The couple will make their home in Creswell.

Garden Wedding In Evening, June 29

The garden of the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Handshuh was brightly lighted for the eight o'clock wedding ceremony Saturday evening, June 29, when the couple's daughter, Miss Venus Patterson Handshuh, was married to William Leo Phelps of Saguinaw. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Betty Kitt of Saguinaw.

The Rev. Ernest S. Bartlam of St. Mary's Episcopal Church officiated at the marriage, which took place before an arched trellis covered with vines and sweet peas.

Mrs. George Crick played the wedding music, and Bertel Olin sang "Always" and "Because," a microphone serving to carry the sound from house to garden.

The bride, given by her father, wore a gown of white lace made over satin, with a wedding veil held by a lace cap. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and Cecil Brunner roses, resting upon a white prayerbook which had been borrowed from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harold Handshuh.

Mrs. Harold Handshuh, wearing a gown of blue lace and carrying a nosegay of sweet peas and rose buds, was the matron of honor.

William Ashbaugh was Mr. Phelps' best man, and ushers were Frank Bonlow and Roy Peterson.

Following the ceremony, the guests were received within the house, where Mrs. Kieth Fennell cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Jack Lamb poured. Mrs. Roy Peterson had charge of the guest book, and Miss Ellen Stephens and Cecil Henry were in charge of gifts.

Mrs. Phelps wore a grey tailored dress and black accessories for traveling, when the couple left on their wedding trip to Newport. They will be at home in Eugene.

Preceding the wedding, a dinner was given by Dr. and Mrs. Handshuh for the members of the wedding party at the Oriental room of the Osburn Hotel.

SHOWER HONORING BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. Roy Short and Mrs. C. C. Cruson were hostesses recently at a shower complimenting Miss Lois Guggisberg, bride-elect of Robert Mills, at the home of Mrs. Short. An 8:00 o'clock dessert was served in the dining room which was tastefully decorated in color scheme of pink and white and on the table a beautiful center piece of pink and white sweet peas.

Numerous gifts were presented Miss Guggisberg and were all prepared in a unique manner, and all wrapped in blue and white paper and bows. A package made to represent a hat when opened was found to be a place serving of china. Another which was an attractive paper purse contained articles for the kitchen. The honored guest was sent from room to room where she found gifts pertaining to the room in which they were located, and it took more than two hours for her to find and unwrap all the packages brought by the 36 guests.

The wedding date has been announced for July 14.
