MRS. GOUDE WRITES OF OLD TIMES

A good man said to me the other day, "I want to ask you a question. Did your father ever send Miner (a son) to fill an appointment for him at Lorane, one time." I said, "No he never." In the first place, father had too much reverence and honor for sacred things to do such a thing and Miner was not a Christian. However I have heard many tell of hearing him preach, and that he did it mightily well but never before any of the family. The falsehood of the Lorane episode reminds me of what "Pop" said to me once we were talking of similar things being told and he said, "That is one of the many lies that is going over this country about me," and it grieved him, and to use a modern phrase "it burns me up." It was something I heard told on myself, that I did as a youngster, that was as big a lie as Ananias and Saphira told.

MILLER REUNION AT DYKSTERHUIS HOME

On Sunday, Eugene A. Miller and children and their families got together at the Paul Dyksterhuis home for a picnic dinner and family reunion. Those present included Mrs. Ailene Miller and daughter Shirley Mae of Fort Collins, Colorado, who are visiting relatives here; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Miller and children from Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Miller of Florence; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Weddel and children of Coy Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller and family and the Dyksterhuis family of Cottage Grove.

TWO BALL FOURSOME DRAWS 17 PLAYERS

The regular Tuesday night two-ball foursome had 17 players and lowest score was shot by Mrs. Ella Zimmerman and Ray Lemley. Mr. Palmer took on two ladies, Mrs. Max Sears and Miss Belle Burkholder as his partners and regardless of this handicap, played fair with both so they came out with the same score, hence tying for runners-up in the play. No. 8 proved to be Miss Burkholder's Waterloo, otherwise they might have had the prize. Two visitors, house guests of Miss Burkholder, were present, Mrs. Harriet-Shields of So. Pasadena, Calif., and Mrs. Claribel Hebeison of La Porte, Indiana. Mrs. John Londahl of Portland also played in the two ball foursome. Twenty partook of a wonderful potluck dinner afterwards. The visitors were loud in their praises of the wonderfully delicious dinner and exclaimed that Oregon must have grand cooks as well as scenery.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB HONORS MRS. GRANNIS

The Tuesday Bridge club complimented Mrs. F. L. Grannis with an eight o'clock dessert and evening of bridge Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Clyde Roberts, this being in the form of a farewell for Mrs. Grannis, who left Wednesday with Mr. Grannis to make their home at Oregon City. Following the dessert course the evening was spent with bridge with Mrs. Herbert Lombard receiving high score.

Mrs. Grannis was presented a gift and corsage from the club members.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY MEET

Mrs. Carl Sudrow was hostess Wednesday to the members of the Baptist Missionary Circle. Sixteen members were present and one guest, Mrs. R. E. Bush of Wichita, Kansas, who is the house guest of Mrs. P. J. Bush. In the absence of the president, Mrs. O. H. Pickens, the vice president, Mrs. Henry Weeldreyer, presided over the business meeting. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Ervin Hansen. Delicious refreshments were served at the tea hour by the hostess.

I will admit I was full of pep, and alive but I would like the line of truth to be followed in my case. My father passed away in 1913—I have only the kindest recollections of him from a small child, all through life. He preached over 50 years, worked hard at his trade as a brick mason, set up nights and studied. He preached in school houses in many out of the way places, often walked miles in so doing. He was often called on to go comfort the dying, bury the dead—always he went. No one ever thought of paying a preacher for such services. I recall one rainy windy night waking up to find something unusual going on and a neighbor man being there. I asked mother "Where Pop was going," and she told me Janie, a little girl 13, was dying and she told her parents to send for Preacher Wallace to come and read the Bible. Poor little Janie, she never had a chance to go to church or Sunday school. She told me once at school the reason she stayed around close to me was because she "just loved to hear me laugh". One time I said to Pop (there is something about that old southern name of calling our daddy that I like) one time, when he came home weary after walking from a school where he had preached, "Why don't you quit? You are wearing yourself out." He sat awhile, then said "I can't." My memory is stored with many things. Some brings tears. Then again, laughter. I recall when addressing to retire one night, of taking a bunch of pins out of my clothes, (50 years ago women used many pins in dressing) I stuck all my pins in the tail of Pop's duster that hung near. Next morning when he started out, on his trip, Mother said "Hamilton, what are you doing with all those pins in your duster?"

CHURCH GROUP TO PICNIC

The Woman's Society of the Christian Service of the Methodist church will hold their annual picnic and meeting in the grape arbor of Mrs. H. B. Breedlove on West Main street, Wednesday, August 14th at 12:30 o'clock. Each one is to bring their own table service and covered dish.

Out of the "rollicksome" bunch of us eight, six boys and two girls, only brother Winters, (youngest) and myself are left. I am not so sure I'll not "rise up" next time, some one strays from the truth on us.—Fannie Goude.
