Couple Plight

Troth in Floral Setting

Setting

At an impressive ceremony in a floral setting of salmon gladioli and white tapers before a background of greenery, Miss Zelda Darnell and Gordon E. Mooney exchanged wedding vows Sunday afternoon, August 4, at four o'clock at the Royal S. D. A. church at Silk Creek before a very large gathering of friends and relatives. The ceremony took place under a beautiful white bridal veil that has become traditional in the history of weddings in this community, having been used since 1919.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Darnell of Silk Creek and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Butte Mooney of Springfield. The Elder B. L. Hassenpflug of Eugene read the service.

Preceding the ceremony, the tapers were lighted by the bride's cousin, Walter Wheeler, while appropriate music was played by Mrs. Chester Allen, who also played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Stanley Sergeant, a cousin of the bride, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly" before the service.

On the arm of her father the bride came down the aisle, lovely in a white wedding dress with a full net skirt, sweetheart neckline and short gathered sleeves. For "something borrowed" she wore a fingertip veil, worn by her cousin Mrs. Richard Kegley at her wedding. This was held in place by a spray of white gladioli. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet of white roses and stephanotis with streamers of white satin ribbon entwined with little bowknots of ribbon.

Miss Mariel Jean Darnell, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a white summer formal sprinkled with tiny red dots and a white head dress and carried a mixed bouquet of summer pinks. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Merlin Dewey and Mrs. Vernon Cook, both cousins of the bride, who wore identical summer formal dresses of white with tiny blue dots and also white head dresses. They carried bouquets of mixed carnations and fern.

Merlin Dewey was best man and the ushers were Keith Babcock and Vernon Cook. Assisting in the ushering were Dorothy Doleman and Kay Wheeler.

Little Jack Wheeler, a cousin of the bride was the Bible bearer and the little flower girls were Marlene Rae Darnell and Florence Marian Oakes.

The bride's mother wore a white flowered suit dress with navy hat. The groom's mother wore a flowered jersey dress with black accessories, and both mothers wore corsages of white roses.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents with over 130 guests present to enjoy the wedding cake and ice cream. After the initial piece of cake was cut by the newlyweds the bride's mother, Mrs. E. R. Darnell and Miss Lucille Conklin cut the cake. Assisting in serving were Mrs. R. V. Darnell and Mrs. Hiram Wheeler, both aunts of the bride and Mrs. R. D. Darnell and Mrs. Norman Darnell and Miss Kay Wheeler, cousins of the bride, Dorothy Doleman, Joyce Allen, Myrna Mattheyer and Virginia Barrett. Miss Dorothy Doleman had charge of the guest book.

During the reception, Mrs. Sergeant and Hiram Wheeler sang "Always" accompanied by Mrs. Boyd Allen, who also played several piano selections during the afternoon.

For going away the bride chose an aqua suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of white roses and stephanotis from her wedding bouquet.

Mr. Mooney was recently discharged after serving for more than three years in the army. He formerly lived here and attended Cottage Grove schools.

The bride has been attending Walla Walla College at College Place, Washington, the past year, and the couple plan to attend the college there this fall.

Out of town guests at the reception included: W. R. Babcock and John Urquhart of Los Angeles, California; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rustin and Miss Francetta Rustin of Forest Grove; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hartley and daughter Laurie and Mrs. Mabel Dresser, all of Gaston; Mrs. Paul Barnett of Gervais; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Oakes and family of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon E. Cook of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Butte Mooney and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Egan and family and Miss Alice Henderson, all of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Darnell and grandson, Gary Hanafin and Roy Darnell, all of St. Helena, California; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Darnell and son Eddie of Ukiah, California; Mr. and Mrs. Devern Darnell and daughter Marlene and Howard Hanafin, all of Cedarville, California; Mrs. Jessie Walker and daughter, Betty, of Glendale, California; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kegley and sons, Mrs. Stanley Sergeant and Miss Kay Wheeler, all of College Place, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Palleske of Eugene; Elder and Mrs. B. L. Hassenpflug and children of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Allen and son of Coburg and Miss Lucille Conklin of Portland.

"You don't have to swing to kill that pesky thing!"

Flies, mosquitoes, moths and other similar insects (with or without wings) take a permanent nose-dive when they run into a whiff of Standard Fly Spray. Used as directed, it won't stain your finest materials, it has no unpleasant odor, and it's harmless to human beings. It not only gets rid of pest parents, it also destroys their eggs and larvae—before insects are born.

And use Standard Animal Fly Spray to get rid of flies on milk cows—and as a general insecticide for all animals.
