W. S. C. S. PICNIC

IN GRAPE ARBOR

Mrs. H. B. Breedlove was hostess to the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church Wednesday when the group met for an all day meeting in the grape arbor of the Breedlove home where a picnic dinner was served. About 20 ladies were present for the dinner and the Rev. and Mrs. Frank E. Brown were guests.

At the business meeting Mrs. Maude Wright led the devotional service and Mrs. Roy Sherman presented the lesson. Plans were made for the fall bazaar and it was decided to have a little competition this time so Mrs. Breedlove and Mrs. Ira Beidler were appointed captains, one serving on each side.

The September meeting will be with Mrs. H. C. Rose at her summer home on Mosby Creek. This will be an all day meeting with covered dish luncheon at noon.

SHOWER FOR MRS. SHELTON

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Bill Sheldon (Virginia Brown) was the honored guest at a shower at her Delight Valley home given by Mrs. Victor Huggdahl, assisted by Miss Jeannine Brown. Those from a distance were Miss Jeannine Brown and Mrs. Hilar Crawford of Toppenish, Washington; Mrs. Elmer Bushell, of San Bruno, California, sister-in-law and house guest of Mrs. P. S. Bukowski; and Mrs. Merle Chase of Garden Way.

24 OUT TO TWO-BALL

Ray Lemley playing with Dorothy Hayes and Belle Burkholder as co-partners won the prize as the lowest scorer at the regular two-ball foursome. Mrs. Ella Zimmerman and Hap Hayes were runners-up with only one point behind. George Johnson doubled with Muriel King and Jean Landahl.

Twenty-four enjoyed a wonderful potluck dinner. Merle King and daughter, Jean Landahl, will leave August 25th for a week at the Hearst ranch near Oakland, California where there is an 18-hole course. Merle should return as a champion with this much practice since her usual score is plenty low.
