Miss Angela Wilson Wed in New York

On September 27th at a ceremony in the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, New York, Miss Angela Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sig Nelson, Cottage Grove, was married to Michael Fucile, son of Sam Fucile and the late Mrs. Louisa Fucile. The Rev. Joseph Rosa officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by the bridegroom's father. She wore an old fashioned marquisette gown styled with a sweetheart neckline, bustle, and long pointed sleeves. A wreath of orange blossoms held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, with an orchid center.

Mrs. Edward Peduzzi, the bridegroom's sister, was matron of honor and wore a pink taffeta dress with bouffant skirt, bracelet sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. She wore a wreath of matching flowers and veiling and carried a bouquet of pink roses and gardenias.

Mrs. Philip De Rosa, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Peggy Marucci, of White Plains, their cousin, were the other attendants. Their taffeta dresses of yellow and pale blue were styled like the matron of honor's and wore yellow and blue wreaths matching their gowns and bouquets of pink roses and pompons completed their ensembles.

Rose Marie Materile was flower girl and wore a pink frock styled similarly to that of the bride and carried a miniature bouquet of pink roses and a gardenia center. Her brother, Joseph Materile, was ringbearer.

James Mauro, FC 21c, USN, of White Plains, served as best man. Ushers were John Fucile, the groom's brother, and Jerry Fusco. A reception was held in Schmidt's Farm following the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school and was employed for a year as a civilian worker with the Army at the Port of Embarkation, Fort Mason, San Francisco, California, where she met her husband.

Mr. Fucile was discharged in June from the Army as a first lieutenant. Attached to the Transportation Corps, he was stationed at Fort Mason. An alumnus of White Plains high school, he is employed by the Borden Company in New York.

The couple went to Niagara Falls and Canada on their wedding trip.

DORENA GRANGE

Booster night of Dorena grange will be observed Friday evening, October 25th, and each member is asked to bring a neighbor or friend interested in the grange, also an invitation is extended to anyone who would like to come and learn more about grange work. Ladies of the grange whose names come between A and M are asked to bring cookies and from N to Z to bring sandwiches. The meeting is open to the public.

Mrs. Frank Hughes reported for the H.E.C. and announced the next serving committee to be: Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bales, Nona Bales, Mrs. Chaffee and Betty Chaffee. Next H.E.C. meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Hughes, November 12th with Jessie Vining as assistant hostess. At the next meeting of the grange there will be a display table of old favorites, such as dishes or any thing treasured by the lady of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thomason were elected to membership, also quite a number of applications were presented asking for membership.

The agriculture committee discussed decontrol of meat and told of the new weed, fanywort, that has made its appearance in the valley.

Claude Arne of the legislative committee reviewed the bills to be voted on at the coming election and a general discussion followed his report.

Henry Snauer and Philip Lake were appointed on the building committee by the master.

Mrs. Ed Sherrill reported $105.61 cleared from the recent box social and the treasurer, Mary Arne reported receiving $60 from the Lane County Fair board for the grange display. She also read the letter received from them giving the score in points on the booth which was 97.

The lecture hour was given to drill practice for booster night. Election of officers for the coming year will be held at the next regular grange meeting.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

FRIENDLY CLUB

A meeting of the Friendly club has been announced for Tuesday, October 29, with Mrs. Tom Biggerstaff. This will be a 1:30 dessert.

Look Pretty While You Wait

Striped flme and raspberry taffeta top with black rayon jersey skirt, dinner dress for mother-to-be.

MAYBE you have a baby. Even so, if you are expecting again, or if you are to be a brand new mother, this season brings good news. That is, complete maternity wardrobes are back.

Instead of relying upon the same little black dress for every occasion, the mother-to-be can now really dress up for dinner and evenings. She can keep her secret for a long time, too, in such attractive and yet concealing fashions as the two-piece dress pictured above—a young looking mandarin jacket flaring over a cleverly styled skirt adjusted at the waist with snaps.

Although the return of the long dress is the most exciting feature of New York's Fall and Winter maternity collection, suits and other daytime clothes deserve equal emphasis. The box jacket suit, becomingly tailored with wide bracelet sleeves, is most frequently seen in neat, small checks. Some of the jackets flare from back shoulder yokes, and the majority are sufficiently long to use as lightweight coats over wool dresses. The skirts of these suits wrap around.

Fall's new graceful sleeves, including bishop and push-up sleeves, are a happy trend in maternity dresses, and such prettifying touches as bow-tied necklines, bright piping, scalloping and decorative buttons.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

Mrs. Kitty Kime enjoyed a pre-birthday celebration on Sunday, October 20 with all of the members of her family present. Her birth date, which is November 1st, was observed at this time as some of those present would not be able to appear at the later time.

A turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served by Mrs. Kime early in the afternoon to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Linck, Miss Bette Romaine, Miss Geneva Kime and Rob Rohweder, all of Portland and Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Kime with their daughter Claudette of Cottage Grove. The Portland guests spent the week end here returning home Sunday evening.

YOUNG ADULT FELLOWSHIP

The Young Adult Fellowship group of the Methodist church met at the parsonage Sunday evening and went from there in a group to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Makinster of Silk Creek. Group singing was enjoyed by all, after which games were played and prizes won by Mrs. Hank Minkler, Elwyn Rude and Mrs. Rodney Safley.

Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening. It was announced there is a Halloween party being planned.

MRS. DILLMAN HOSTESS

Mrs. C. E. Dillman was hostess to the Utopia club Thursday at a dessert course and afternoon of visiting and needlework, the Halloween scheme being carried out in the decorations. Besides the regular members Mrs. Julia Powell and Mrs. C. N. Land were guests. Mrs. Nelson Durham will be hostess to the club at the next meeting, November 21.

St. Mary's Church, Eugene, Is Scene of Recent Wedding

The St. Mary's Catholic church in Eugene was the scene for the wedding on Saturday, September 14, at 10:00 o'clock in the morning for Miss Janet Blanche Rynearson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rynearson, to Vincent J. Mataga, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mataga, of Bayonne, New Jersey. The church organist played the wedding music for the double ring ceremony with the Rev. Basil officiating before the immediate relatives and a few close friends.

The bride was attired in an ice blue street length dress with white accessories and wore an orchid corsage.

Miss Genevieve Hargis was maid of honor and wore a dusty rose dress with white accessories and her corsage was of gardenias. Mel Freer was best man for Mr. Mataga.

The couple spent a few days at the coast and are now at home at 1571 High street in Eugene where they are both employed.

Mrs. Mataga graduated from the local high school with the class of 1943 and has been employed at the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company in Eugene ever since. The groom graduated from a high school at Bayonne, New Jersey.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

A large beautifully decorated birthday cake with 80 candles with white and yellow tapers at either end decorated the table at the home of Milton Ross Tuesday evening when his children and their families came in to help him celebrate the occasion of his 80th birthday anniversary. Baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and pink snapdragons were used about the rooms. Ice cream, cake and coffee were served to the honored guest and those present to enjoy the occasion, who were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ross and daughters Donna and Kay and son Jimmy; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. John Ross and daughter Jane and son Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ross, all of Cottage Grove; Miss Hazel Albero of Eugene; Mrs. A. G. Sprankle of Portland, who is visiting her father and brother, John Ross and family.
