DEGREE OF HONOR

DISTRICT CONVENTION

The Degree of Honor Protective Association held a district convention in the Knights of Pythias hall in Eugene on October 29. The afternoon meeting was given to reports from the various lodges represented and a school of instruction held by state officers.

A banquet was served in the hall at 6:30 to 84 members and the evening meeting was open to members and friends with a large class initiated and drill teams and glee clubs from the various lodges entertaining. The district includes Salem, Albany, Corvallis, and Cottage Grove, with Eugene acting as hostess.

Attending from the local Degree of Honor lodge at the afternoon session were Wilda King, Aileen Andrews and Clara Riggs. Mary Plunkett, June Johnson, Genevieve Nelson and Frances Swanson attended the evening meeting and banquet.

The juvenile lodge of Corvallis entertained with songs and drills. The state officers were presented with gifts from the members.

BRIDE AND GROOM

HONORED AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin E. Griewe (Maxine Aubrey) who were married at the home of Hugh McCollum, pastor of the First Christian church in Eugene October 7, were guests of honor at a family dinner at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Aubrey, on Knox Hill Sunday October 20.

Present at dinner were, Mr. and Mrs. Griewe, Mrs. Eva Aubrey, Mrs. Emma Smith, Misses Pat and Nancy Aubrey, Sharon Smith, Linda Aubrey, Mrs. Celia Handy, Pauline Teresi and the host and hostess.

NO-HOSTESS MEETING OF GUILD

A no-hostess meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist church was held Thursday evening in the dining room of the church with an exchange of gifts followed by the regular business session. The dining room was attractive with fall leaves and flowers. Mrs. Wilbur Crane led the devotional service and Mrs. Frye presented the lesson. During the meeting new hostess programs were given out for the year. A guest of the evening was Mrs. Ritchey. Mrs. Earl Woodson will entertain the Guild at the next meeting.

THIRTY COUPLES ENJOY LION LADIES NIGHT

Thirty couples including a number of guests enjoyed the ladies night at the Masonic building Saturday evening, sponsored by the Cottage Grove Lions club. Dancing and games were enjoyed until a late hour. Winners in the various games drew a number of attractive prizes.

FASHIONS

WHITE SHRINE

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Following the regular business meeting of the White Shrine in Eugene Thursday night at the Masonic temple, the evening's entertainment was in the form of a Halloween party and dance with refreshments served at a late hour. Several carloads attended from here and Wayne and Stella Henry of Salem were present. Mrs. Henry being district deputy. Substituting for the absent officers were Helen Rude, treasurer; Ruth Bradford, first hand maid and Alma Sears as shepherdess.

At the next meeting Cottage Grove will furnish a skit for entertainment and any one interested may contact Nettie Gawley or Helen Rude.

Due to the holidays both in November and December it was decided to meet on the second Thursday nights instead of the fourth in these months.

SILVER TEA SUNDAY BY B. & P. W. CLUB

The ladies of the local Business and Professional Women's club are sponsoring a silver tea and sale of the book "Muslin Town", written by Mrs. Pearl Gischler and Mrs. Hayden of Eugene, to be held in the east room of the armory on Sunday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5.

The public is cordially invited and urged to attend as this is a benefit tea and all proceeds from the tea and the percentage made from the sale of the book will go for local civic improvements. Both ladies will be present to autograph books sold.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. Ronald Gray and Mr. Gray's mother, Mrs. Lillian Gray Belknap, entertained at dinner on Saturday Oct. 26 honoring Mr. Gray on his birthday anniversary. Autumn leaves adorned the rooms and a beautifully decorated birthday cake centered the dinner table. Place cards of candy holding lighted colored candles were at each place.

Mr. Gray was the recipient of many lovely gifts and cards and the wishes for happiness by the guests.

Suitable games were the evening's entertainment, after which the honoree opened the many dainty gifts. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

MISS DOREEN EASTBURN

BRIDE OF GEORGE MUNSELL

In a setting of deep pink snapdragons and white carnations at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Eastburn of Walden, on Saturday evening, October 19, their daughter, Doreen Louise Eastburn, was married to George Clayton Munsell, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Munsell, also of Walden. The Rev. Frank E. Brown, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiated at the single ring ceremony.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Virlin Ward, and Rex Munsell acted as best man for his brother.

The bride wore a pastel blue wool suit with white accessories and her corsage was of gardenias. She wore an heirloom string of pearls.

The attendant's suit was of navy blue wool, with white accessories and gardenia corsage.

An informal reception followed the ceremony with Miss Beverly Munsell and Mrs. Charles Eastburn serving.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Munsell attended the local high school and he spent three years in the army receiving his discharge last December. They will live in the Walden district where he is associated in business with his father.
