Vows Exchanged at Candlelight Church Service November 3

At an impressive candlelight ceremony held in the Sutherland Christian church on Sunday afternoon, November 3, at five o'clock, Miss Bettie Mae Hosman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hosman of Cottage Grove, and Royal E. Abeene, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Royal E. Abeene, of Sutherland, were united in marriage before a large group of relatives and friends.

Baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums and candelabra with lighted tapers on either side formed the background for the ceremony with baskets of lavender mums in the foreground.

Miss Hosman was given in marriage by her father. She wore the traditional white satin floor-length dress with fingertip veil and carried a white Bible on which was arranged a corsage of gardenias.

All attendants, as well as the bride, wore white floor-length dresses.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Vern Holgate sang "Always" accompanied by Miss Erma Martin of Portland. Both wore white formal and pink and white corsages. Miss Martin also played the wedding music.

Mrs. Derril Sarff, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Jerry Taylor of Roseburg and Miss Helen Gourley of Sutherland, all wearing white floor-length dresses and carrying old fashioned nosegays of pink and white carnations.

Lighting the candles before the service were Miss Lorene Hosman, sister of the bride, and Miss Beverly Pope of Sutherland, also wearing white formal and corsages of pink and white.

Derril Sarff was best man for the groom. Ushers were Richard Vankuren of Sutherland and Bob Woods of Corvallis.

An impressive part of the ceremony was a dedicatory solo, "I'd Rather Have Jesus," which was sung by Miss Beverly Pope.

After the services were over, the bride party went through the ceremony again while moving pictures were taken for a wedding gift for the bride and groom.

The bride and groom left immediately on a short wedding trip and upon their return will be at home in Sutherland, where Mr. Abeene is in business with his father.

Mr. Abeene graduated from the Sutherland high school and served two years in the service of the Army, just returning from Korea and receiving his discharge. Mrs. Abeene graduated from the Sutherland high school last spring.

Out of town guests were Eugene Ramsey, uncle of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Cooper, Creswell; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelly and Miss Stella Adams, aunt of the groom, of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Spencer of Lorane; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Weekley and Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt of Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. George Spencer and Mrs. Sid Wegner of Oakland, Oregon.

MRS. STELLA BAKER WED AT HOME CEREMONY

The marriage of James A. Kiker of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to Stella Etta Baker, of Cottage Grove, Oregon was solemnized in the presence of a few close friends at the home of the bride on Cherry Court in this city, at eight o'clock Thursday evening, October 31, 1946.

The bridal party took their places before a floral altar made of baskets and urns filled with autumn's choicest gold, amber and rose blooms, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reiman, the Sunshine Circle and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tiech. The bride's corsage was of white gardenias and the groom wore a rosebud boutonniere.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vernon Stewart were the attendants.

An impressive double-ring ceremony was read by Judge Eva C. King, the wedding taking place on the 69th anniversary of the bride's parents.

Both the bride and groom are former residents of Oklahoma and have been friends more than 46 years. Mrs. Kiker was a country school teacher there, and Mr. Kiker was for many years owner of a grocery store in Oklahoma City. He recently retired to come west.

The bride cut the huge wedding cake, and 12 persons were served ice cream, cake and coffee at beautifully appointed tables. Mrs. Eliza Howe had charge of serving. Mrs. S. K. Adams received the guests and J. H. Bennett answered the door to greet Hallowe'en callers.

The groom and men guests exchanged personal pioneer stories of Oklahoma, including one concerning an oil well being drilled under the capitol building.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James Vernon Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shanda, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tiech, Mrs. Eliza Howe, Miss Bertha Howe, Mrs. S. K. Adams, J. H. Bennett, Mrs. Alta King, Justice of the Peace, and the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Kiker.

Mrs. E. L. Couch assisted. After their games, they joined the Primary class of Mrs. Ted Johnson for refreshments, which included doughnuts, cider, candy, cookies and nuts.

Miss Elizabeth Duke and Miss Patsy Picknell helped the Primary class in the games and refreshments. Teddy Picknell, Barbara Duke, Larry Brizette, Norma Massey, Robert Couch, Ronald Couch, Jimmy Sietz, Robert Rippey, Darlene Wilson, Janet Glade, Craig Hickok, Leon Hickok, Joe Clyde, Billy Clyde, Marilyn Christensen and Jackie Christensen were the Primary members present.

SUNDAY NIGHT CO-HOSTS

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Safley and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Safley were co-hosts to the Young Adults of the Methodist church Sunday evening at the home of the latter.

Following a discussion on "Christ and Our Country" the Rev. Frank Brown was honored with a surprise of a lovely decorated birthday cake and purse. At the close of the evening refreshments were served to the 30 guests attending. Additional guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Caten of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. R. Fauquier.

This group is taking as a project the sponsoring of entertainment and helping to further interest the young people in the Methodist Youth Fellowship. Next Sunday a waffle feed is being planned at the close of the MYF with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Safley in charge.

DAUGHTERS OF NILE

Hostesses for the dessert course and afternoon of bridge for the Daughters of the Nile Monday in the Masonic club rooms were Naomi Witters, Anna Graham, Verna Lombard and Beatrice McCoy. A short business meeting followed the dessert and the remainder of the afternoon was given to bridge with five tables at play.

The next meeting will be in the evening on December 2nd.

Southwest District B & P W Clubs Meet Held Here Sunday

The local Business and Professional Women's club was host to the clubs of the Southwest District at a conference held Sunday in the armory when a large group of members attended from Coos Bay, Coquille, Roseburg, Eugene, Albany and Corvallis with several state officers present.

Mrs. Merle Chase of Eugene, district president, presided at the morning session which was opened with the flag salute and the recitation of the club collect followed by a girls trio of Jane Beidler, Roberta Bagley and Marjorie Coier accompanied by Mrs. H. A. Hagen.

Mrs. Kathleen Miller of Albany, state president, was honored and introduced the club presidents. Other state officers attending were Mrs. Harold Jensen of Eugene, first vice president and Mrs. Irene Graham, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Charlotte Donovan of Eugene, state public affairs chairman, led a round table discussion, with Ruth Steward Caldwell, Myra Gebhardt of Coos Bay, Hattie Lee Holimon of Coquille, Elda Ketter of Eugene and Vivian Logsdon of Roseburg taking part, each presenting civic problems and discussing them.

Each club is working for some project such as swimming pool, public health, aid to hospitals, aid to schools and teachers or public parks. This was followed by group singing led by Miss Margaret Leum and accompanied by Mrs. Hagen, who was in charge of the musical portion of the programs. Miss Orlena Martin favored the group with two piano selections.

Mrs. Charlene Edwards of Corvallis, state membership chairman, was in charge of a membership questionnaire, assisting in this were Alice Breedlove, Marie Jackson of Corvallis; Ethel Littler of Albany, Vivian Logsdon of Roseburg, Leora McMurphy of Eugene, Mary Cramer of Coos Bay, Hattie Lee Holimon of Coquille. Mrs. Edwards outlined the goals of membership growth and distributed a membership questionnaire for use by club chairman.

The morning session closed with a vocal duet by Leoma Fauquier and Elva Young, accompanied by Mrs. Hagen.

The ladies of the Dorena Grange served dinner at 1:00 o'clock in the dining room at tables attractively decorated with red and white crepe paper streamers and bowls of red and white flowers, and a program of blue with red and white trim at each place.

At the afternoon meeting Grace Cowan, president of the local Business and Professional Women's club, presided through the flag salute, led by Adelia Hatch, club collect led by Edna Burleson and group singing led by Leoma Fauquier. Guests were introduced by Lila Graham, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Chase introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. J. Alan Wickham, dean of women at the University of Oregon, who discussed the Basic School Support bill.

Mrs. Reuben Gischler and Mrs. Jess Hayden, co-authors of "Muslin Town," the book which was on sale, were introduced. Others introduced were Irene Graham of Albany, state corresponding secretary; Eunice Courtright of Corvallis, magazine chairman; and Edna Helgeson of Roseburg, southern district chairman.

A short recess followed and then the members reassembled to honor Mrs. Reuben Gischler and Mrs. Jess Hayden of Eugene, co-authors of the late book, "Muslin Town," who were present to autograph all books sold. This was in the form of a silver tea with Elizabeth Mills chairman and Mary Workman in charge of decorations. Bowls of yellow chrysanthemums, pink roses and autumn leaves decorated the tea tables. Pouring was in charge of Alice Breedlove, Lenora Langston, Ruth Stewart Caldwell and Mary Workman, assisted by Nell Bukowski and Lois Mills. Entertaining with musical numbers during the tea were Joan Metcalf, Bonnie Gleason, Betty Bagley, Orlena Martin, Betty Dyksterhuis, Mary Ann Hall and Marjorie Coier.

During the afternoon Mrs. Gischler presented Elmer Fleming
