seat was taken, but we'll have some more in this Sunday. Men! This is your opportunity to find a place of real service for the Lord. Come and mingle with these friendly men at 9:45.

Bible School at 9:45. Morning worship at 11:00. Sermon: "That They Might Obtain a Better Resurrection." We believe this message will make you think. Communion is served at both morning and evening service each Lord's day. We believe that is the way it was practiced in the New Testament, which is our guide.

Young folks at 6:30. This is a splendid growing group under the leading of Mr. and Mrs. Beach. Young folks will find a real welcome here.

Evening Evangelistic service at 7:30. One of our own boys who has been attending Bible College, Dexter Williams, will bring the message. This is his first time to speak in his home church. Let's give him a fine hearing.

Don't forget the Thursday night prayer and Bible study at 7:30. This meeting is open to all and will help to strengthen your faith. J. Michael Shelley, minister.

The Rev. Sherman Devine of Portland will supply the First Presbyterian pulpit during the month of December until the new pastor arrives January 1, 1947. Sunday morning service at 11:00 a. m. Sunday school 9:45, Mrs. L. W. Coiner, superintendent.

Christian Science Society, Cottage Grove, Oregon, 242 Second Street holds Sunday services at 11 a. m. and Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Wednesday evening meetings at 8 p. m. (the second Wednesday of each month). Reading room is opened each day except Sunday and holidays from 2 to 4. The subject for next Sunday is "God the Only Cause and Creator."

First Baptist Church, 5th and Jefferson, Rev. Peter J. Bakker, pastor—Our Lord never graduated from the school of prayer. If the only sinless, Son of God found it necessary to pray, it is self evident that we need to pray. The topic of "How to pray?" will be discussed at the prayer service this evening, 7:30 p. m.

"Paul admonishes the churches" is the international lesson, for the Church school hour of 9:45 a. m. Sunday. The topic for the pulpit this month is: "The Most Wonderful Theme in the World." The 11

a. m. sermon will be: "The Everlasting, Protecting Love."

The Baptist Youth Fellowship meets at 6:30 p. m. Miss Bobbie June Clark will have charge of the study topic. The evening service at 7:30 p. m. promises to include the mixed quartet, and a sermon on a topic which puzzles many: "The Punishing Love of God." If you do not attend an evening service, our doors are open to you.

The planned potluck dinner at the church, Wednesday at noon was very enjoyable. It was sponsored by the Women's Missionary Circle. The choir had a profitable rehearsal at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bush, Wednesday evening.

The Deaconesses and their husbands, the church clerk, the treasurer and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Clark, and Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Hansen are to be the guests of the pastor and his wife Friday evening.

The Methodist Church, Frank E. Brown, minister — The Church School is held at 9:45 on Sunday morning with S. L. Mackin as superintendent. At the Morning Worship hour, the junior and senior choirs will sing and the pastor will bring a sermon on the topic of "The Human Predicament." The Vesper Hour is held at five o'clock at which time the congregation is given an opportunity to sing the old and familiar songs of the present day and the past. The Youth Fellowship are held at six o'clock and the High School Fellowship will have their fun and fellowship evening from six to nine. We cordially invite you to attend the services of this Church on this coming Lord's Day.

The Church of God is an under-nominal church. We invite you to worship God with us at 10:00 East Adams ave. Our Sunday school meets at 10 a. m. You will enjoy studying God's word with the class of your age group. The sermon topic for 11 a. m. will be "Feelings Faith." Christian Crusaders meet at 6:45. Sermon topic for 7:30 "Enoch's Biography." Prayer meeting Wednesday 7:30. Children's story hour Friday 3:15. Roy E. Hutchison, pastor.

DIVIDE

John Robinson returned from a Eugene hospital last Monday where he had been for several days with heart trouble.

Donald Kenady of Corvallis spent Thanksgiving day at his home here and Friday went to Portland to visit friends and attend the Oregon State and Washington football game there Saturday.

Guests on Thanksgiving day at the John Robinson home were Mrs. Buelah Robinson and Mrs. J. R. Ferguson and children of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Frank Boye of Reedport spent Monday visiting her sister Mrs. Clare Chapman and family. Chet Gilham and Bill Eastham killed a bob cat near the Chapman ranch Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lambert were in Portland last Wednesday on a business trip.

DECEMBER MEETING

The Daughters of the Nile held their December meeting Monday evening in the Masonic temple, the evening being spent with cards. The January meeting will be the 6th and will be a 1:30 dessert in the Masonic club room.

RESEARCH CLUB

Mrs. Georg Bjorset reviewed the magazine article "Talking Thru My Hats," written by Lilly Dache, at the last meeting of the Research club, December 3rd, at the library.

Plans were made for the Christmas tree and gift exchange on December 17th.
