Several Couples Are United Recently by Judge King

Several couples of both Lane and Douglas counties have been united in the past two months by Justice of the Peace Eva C. King, with one recorded in October, two in the month of November and three so far in December.

Couple Wed December 14th
Virginia Margaret Lovelace became the bride of William Weston Prough, both of Lane county on Saturday, December 14 at 4:00 o'clock by Judge Eva C. King. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Johnson were attendants again for this couple. Mrs. Johnson being a sister of the bride and Mr. Johnson a brother-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Garner also witnessed the single ring ceremony. The bride and lady attendants wore corsages of pink rosebuds.

Roseburg Couple Wed Here
A Roseburg couple, Ina N. Sjolvoid and Edward F. Ruggles, exchanged vows here on Sunday, November 24th, when Judge Eva King read the wedding ceremony. The couple left immediately for their home.

Judge King Weds Couple
A Lane county couple, Agnes Bernice Johnson and Berlin Little, were united in marriage by Judge Eva C. King on November 22nd in the presence of a few close friends. The couple remained here the first two days of their honeymoon.

Miss Harrell Bride of Mr. Gabrielson
The office of Justice of the Peace Eva C. King was the scene for the wedding of Zettie Harrell to Virgil L. Gabrielson at a single ring ceremony on December 6, in the presence of the witnesses, Phyllis Hibbard and Dorothy Picknell. Mr. and Mrs. Gabrielson will make their home in Cottage Grove for the present.

Naomi Vian Bride of Dec. 14
On December 14th Judge Eva C. King married Naomi Hope Vian and Robert Allen Perini, both of Douglas county in the judge's office. The ceremony was witnessed by the immediate members of the families.

They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Perini. They left immediately for a short wedding trip and will be at home to their friends upon their return.

DESSERT AND GIFT EXCHANGE

All members of the M. P. G. club were present Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. A. W. Helliwell entertained at a dessert course and Christmas party. Decorations were in keeping with the holiday season. The afternoon was spent socially and with the annual Christmas gift exchange. Mrs. Harold Axley will entertain the club at the next meeting.

SOCIETY— Telephone 159

RECENT BRIDE HONORED AT SHOWER

Mrs. A. C. Tomashek entertained Thursday, December 12 at a bridal shower for the pleasure of Mrs. Jim Martindale (nee Mary Margaret McKibben), a recent bride. The afternoon was spent socially and in the opening of the many beautiful and useful gifts received by the guest of honor.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon to the guests: Mesdames C. E. Stewart, F. B. VanNortwick, G. R. VanNortwick, Will White, K. E. Mickey, Leon Godard, J. B. Grubb, L. W. McKay, W. L. Baker, John L. Trunnell, Roy Trunnell, Jeanette Lukens, Hubert Hickethier, A. W. Bartel, J. C. Bucker, L. W. McKibben, Miss Belva Garoutte and Mrs. Martindale.

WORLD FRIENDSHIP PARTY

Miss Pat Scott entertained the World Friendship Quesbys of the Methodist church Saturday night at a Christmas party. Miss Scott was assisted by Miss Barbara Nelson in decorating her home which was beautifully decorated, the Christmas scheme being carried out.

RESEARCH PRE-HOLIDAY DINNER AND PARTY

Mrs. Georg Bjorset entertained the Research club members, their husbands and a few additional guests Tuesday evening at their annual turkey dinner and Christmas party. Poinsettias, red tapers and sprays of cedar decorated the long dinner table where places were laid for the 26 guests, including the members and their husbands. Mrs. Ellen Reynolds of San Mateo, California, sister and house guest of Mrs. Ida Williams, Mrs. Mary Vandenburg and W. D. Seaman.

A social evening followed in the spacious living rooms where the beautifully decorated Christmas tree was laden with gifts for each one present. The singing of Christmas carols brought an enjoyable evening to a close.

SERVICE GUILD HOLDS ELECTION THURSDAY NIGHT

Mrs. H. H. Haworth, assisted by Miss Hazel Tohlen, entertained in her home Thursday evening as the Methodist Service Guild members gathered for their annual election of officers for the coming year. The officers are as follows: President, Mrs. Wayne Monroe; vice president, Mrs. Joe McClarnan; secretary, Mrs. Stanley Frye and treasurer, Mrs. Wilber Crane.

Each member was asked to contribute Christmas tree decorations for the tree at the church. Mrs. Arthur Weinkauff, vice president, was in charge of the business meeting in the absence of the president.

On December 17th the members will meet at the local golf course club house for their annual Christmas party and turkey dinner. At this time the past year's Secret Sisters will be revealed.

At the close of the evening refreshments were served to the group.

PRE-CHRISTMAS PARTY AND EXCHANGE DESSERT

Highlighting recent activities of the B. & P. W. club was their Christmas party and exchange dessert Monday night at the home of Alice Breedlove. The evening began with an 8:00 o'clock exchange dessert, each member bringing a dessert for one, artistically wrapped and exchanged with another member. Seven tables were decorated in keeping with the yuletide season, each being centered with lighted candles, each symbolic of Christmas as also were the favors and place cards. Mrs. Breedlove was assisted by Edna Burleson, Adelia Hatch and Myrtle Gleason.

Following the dessert course the group enjoyed a solo by Leoma Fauquier, accompanied by Helen Hagen. Mrs. Hagen also accompanied the group, singing a number of Christmas carols after which members had their Christmas tree and gift exchange. Grace Cowan, president was presented with a gift by the club members.

SERVICE GUILD CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual turkey dinner and Christmas party of the Service Guild of the Methodist church was held Tuesday night at the golf course club house with 24 members present. A Christmas tree adorned with decorations and many lights formed the setting for the Christmas meditation with Mrs. Frank Brown reading "The Story of the Other Wise Man" and Christmas chimes being played on the phonograph at the close of each chapter and closed with "The Hallelujah Chorus" from The Messiah.

Silent Sisters were revealed at this time and gifts exchanged and new names were drawn for Silent Sisters for the coming year. This was followed by the Christmas exchange of gifts.

Mrs. Wayne Monroe will entertain the Guild at the next meeting with Mrs. Arthur Kuhl as co-hostess.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mrs. J. P. Graham was hostess to the Neighbors of Woodcraft at their annual Christmas party and 8:00 o'clock dessert Tuesday evening at her home, amid elaborate decorations symbolic of the Yuletide season. Lighted, decorated trees and greenery gave the rooms an atmosphere of Christmas as well as the long table centered with chrysanthemums, lighted tapers and greenery, and red and green perfume lamps at each place as favors.

Mrs. Alta Young was a guest. Mrs. Young and Hazel Arthur won prizes at cards which followed the exchange of gifts.

The group presented their hostess with a gift, the following day being her birthday anniversary.

MIZPAH CLASS PARTY

The Mizpah class of the Presbyterian church met for the regular meeting and Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Minnie Willits with Mrs. Lila Veatch co-hostess. During the afternoon the members filled sacks with candy to be given to the children during the Christmas program at the church on Sunday.

Mrs. Ellen White and Mrs. Grace Daskam were guests of the club. Gifts were exchanged after which the hostesses served a dessert course.

Harriet Horn, W. M., Chas. Akerblade, W. P. For Year 1947

At the annual election of officers of the local chapter of Eastern Star held Friday night Harriet Horn was elected worthy matron and Charles Akerblade worthy patron for the ensuing year. Associate matron will be Ruth Smith and associate patron, George Winters; secretary, Miss Eunice Vandenberg; treasurer, Barbara Hill; conductress, Isabelle Gates and associate conductress, Ruth Thompson. Nettie Gawley is retiring worthy matron and Ted Taylor, retiring worthy patron.

Frances Racknor and C. V. Belknap were welcomed as new affiliate members. At the business meeting, tentative plans were discussed relative to purchasing a new piano for the hall. It was announced that there will be initiation at the next meeting, and installation of officers will be January 10th. Ilma Thum, grand conductress, was honored in the east. Nettie Gawley announced she will entertain her officers at a dinner in the Masonic dining room on the evening of December 19 after which members of the Star and Masonic lodge will be guests at a dancing party in the Masonic temple, to start at 9:00 o'clock. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening with Ina Godard chairman of the committee.

SUNSHINE CIRCLE ELECTIONS OFFICERS

At the all day meeting of the Sunshine Circle of the Church of Christ Tuesday the annual election of officers was held for the ensuing year. The new president is Mrs. Hildebrand; vice president, Mrs. Amil Thies; secretary, Mrs. Dale McGarvin and treasurer, Mrs. Addie Hull. Twenty-one were present for the potluck dinner and program in the afternoon. Christmas carols were sung and Velda Moon sang a solo, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Herbert Moon. Slips were handed out for each one to write their most outstanding Christmas with many interesting responses. The Christmas exchange of gifts and treats followed and names were drawn for Secret Sisters for the coming year. The Circle will meet again January 7th with the new officers in charge.

DECEMBER MEETING OF METHODIST MEN

The December meeting of the Methodist Men was held Monday night in the church dining room with a potluck supper preceding the business meeting. Wayne Monroe, president, was in charge of the meeting and Charles Akerblade, program chairman, led the devotional service and program with a discussion on articles in the Christian Advocate.

MRS. BAGLEY HOSTESS AT CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas dinner and party of the Justamere club was held Tuesday evening with Mrs. Orlo Bagley hostess, at her home. The Christmas scheme was carried out in the red and white table decorations, candy canes adding much to the Yuletide motif. A Christmas tree adorned with lights and decorations was also symbolic of the season. The members spent the evening with the gift exchange, singing of Christmas carols and in writing a letter to a member, Mrs. Palmer Johnson.

BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON

Mrs. Eliza Howe entertained at her home Sunday, December 15, with a birthday dinner honoring Mrs. S. K. Adams, Miss Bertha Howe and J. A. Kiker whose birthday anniversaries were within a few days of each other, the two ladies the same day. Mrs. Howe was assisted with the dinner by Mrs. Kiker.
