Couple Wed At Midnight Service

At midnight on New Year's Eve, just at the turn of the year, Miss Hazel Grace Albino of River Road, Eugene, became the bride of Harold John (Jack) Ross of Cottage Grove at a beautiful candlelight service at the bride's home. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Marie Albino of Eugene and C. L. Albino of Walton, and the groom is a son of John W. Ross of Cottage Grove. The Rev. Claude O'Brien of the Springfield First Christian church officiated. The couple exchanged vows before the fireplace, mantle decorations being maiden hair ferns, chrysanthemums and candles, with tall baskets of yellow, white and lavender chrysanthemums and lighted tapers on either side.

The bride was beautiful in a white satin gown with fitted bodice, and sheer yoke beaded with silver, and scalloped peplum ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms and she carried Carriac roses with a background of maiden hair fern and violets and pastel multicolored satin ribbons.

Her maid of honor was Miss Marilyn Hinz of Eugene, whose yellow gown was accented with a nosegay of violets, all 'D'ois and yellow rosebuds. Bridesmaids were Jo Ann Albino, sister of the bride, and Donna Jean Ross, niece of the groom, both six years old, dressed identically in short pink dresses trimmed in white lace, and each carried a tiny nosegay of violets centered with yellow roses and edged with maiden hair fern.

Eugene Sprinkle of Portland, cousin of the groom, was best man.

C. L. Albino, father of the bride, gave his daughter in marriage.

Loren Edmiston played the wedding march and wedding music preceding the ceremony.

At the reception following the bride's cake was cut and served with coffee and punch. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Loren Edmiston, Mrs. Wendell Gronso, Miss Kathleen Conley and Miss Beverly Albino.

Attending the wedding were the parents of both the bride and groom and many relatives and friends of both families.

The couple left for Lost Creek ranch on the McKenzie for their honeymoon and are now at home at 590 Jefferson street in Eugene, where they will make their home.

Mostly Static

By "Shorty" Smith

Howdy folks: Charley Boslaugh, who operates a clip joint over on Main Street, says it's been quite some time now since he overhauled a G I haircut.

The army really took a load off some of the boys' minds when they reduced some of the beautiful marcel to G I haircuts.

It was a case of hair today and gone tomorrow.

But our good barber can put them back in shape.

Speaking of barbers, what puzzles us is when one barber cuts another barber's hair, which one does the talking.

The guy who gets the barber's goat is the bald-headed man. All he has to do is walk in, straighten his tie and walk out again.

If we cared to make a pun out of the subject, we might say that with a bald head there is no parting and dying there.

Also, we'd like to say that if you'll let us sell you an Electric Heater, it will be a profitable transaction for both of us.

Miss Velda Smith Sunday Bride of Jack Montieth

The First Methodist church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Sunday afternoon, January 12, at three o'clock, when Miss Velda Lea Smith, daughter of Mrs. R. F. Smith, and Jack Montieth, son of Mrs. Lawrence Montieth of Saginaw, plighted their troth before 150 relatives and friends. The double ring service was read by the Rev. Frank E. Brown, pastor, before the altar with tall baskets of white chrysanthemums and carnations and candelabra with white flickering tapers on either side. A large basket of pink and white carnations decorated the piano and white satin bows marked the pews.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Lucille Eastburn sang "I Love You Truly" and "Always," accompanied by Miss Joan Metcalf. Miss Metcalf also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her brother, Ray Smith of North Bend. She was lovely in a white nylon wedding dress, the material being a parachute sent home by the groom from Okinawa, and made by the bride's mother, being fashioned with a fitted bodice, Peter Pan collar, mutton leg sleeves and very full skirt. Her three-quarter length three-tiered veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white rosebuds centered with baby orchids.

Her matron of honor was Mrs. William Dehl of Portland in a delicate pink dress with broadened bodice and full chiffon skirt and carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds and carnations and pink carnations in her hair. Her three bridesmaids, Mrs. Lee Tucker, Miss Mildred Fisher and Miss Patricia Aubrey, were all in white and carried crescent shaped bouquets of cream carnations and the same flowers adorning their hair.

Best man for Mr. Montieth was Lee Tucker. Ushers were Ray Holliday, Aldon Copple and Hugh McCormick. Candle lighters were Ray Holliday and Hugh McCormick.

A reception followed in the church parlors. A lace tablecloth graced the bride's table where a three-tiered decorated wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom was cut. The initial piece by the bride and groom, and the bride's aunt, Mrs. M. E. Moore, of Butte Falls, Oregon, cutting the remainder of the cake and the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Ray Smith, poured. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Ray Holliday, Mrs. Hugh McCormick, Mrs. Iris Gersbach, Mrs. Eva Aubrey and Mrs. Raymond Thies. Miss Carol Hunter was in charge of the guest book.

For going away the bride wore a blue silk crepe dress, fur coat and brown accessories, and a baby orchid corsage from her wedding bouquet. The couple left for a wedding trip to Portland. Upon their return they will make their home here where Mr. Montieth is

How to teach a voice to "smile"

Speaking naturally is lesson one in becoming a telephone operator... and literally thousands of girls have learned it during the last year in the biggest operator training program in our history. Girls in training get a thorough grounding at regular pay... a basic course that lasts anywhere from three to six weeks.

On special practice boards like this a trainee is given hundreds of practice calls... everything from the simplest local call to a complex string of them. She learns to meet various situations... learns poise and skill and confidence. Even when she becomes a full-fledged "voice with a smile", she can call on a friendly supervisor for help on unusual calls, when she needs it.

In the weeks to come, girls now in training will take their places at switchboards, and as fast as additional equipment becomes available, thousands more will be trained to handle your calls. For we intend to do everything we can to bring the rapidly growing Pacific Coast an even better telephone service than ever before... just as soon as is humanly possible.

An ever-improving telephone service at the least cost consistent with good wages and working conditions for our employees and a reasonable return to the thousands of people who have invested in the business.
