you should, for this crucifixion scene is one of the blackest sins of all time. It showed how far sin would go to gain its ends. But did you know that the Bible speaks of a second crucifixion? And that those who have part in it shall come to a sad end indeed? Is it possible that you might have part in this second great crime of the ages? Yes, it is very possible. You owe it to yourself to come and study this subject with us this Sunday night. You will be interested!

CULVER-KEEFAUVER WEDDING HELD

Miss Shirley Culver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Len H. Culver, Cottage Grove and Mr. George Keefauver Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Keefauver of Albany, were united in marriage at the First Baptist Church, Sunday, February 9. The Rev. Peter Bakker performed the ceremony at 2:30.

The bride, wearing a light blue suit and carrying a white Bible with a bouquet of pink rosebuds and orchids was given in marriage by her father. The maid of honor was Elsie A. Larsen, who wore a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, E. Nelson Keefauver.

The couple plan to make their home in Albany, Oregon.

SR. BYPU BOX SOCIAL

A dessert box social was given by the Sr. B.Y.P.U. for the Harmony Circle of the Baptist Church Monday night, Feb. 10 at 7:30 p. m. W. C. Martin Jr. was in charge of the raffling and the highest bid on a box was about $4.00. The individual boxes were decorated, such as hats etc. W. C. was also in charge of the other miscellaneous food.

After the raffling, those present played different games, Mary Bush being in charge.

Although there wasn't a record crowd, those who did come were determined to come the next time a box social is held.

PRESBYTERIAN CHOR ENTERTAINED

The members of the choir of the Presbyterian church were pleasantly surprised Thursday February 6 after their evening of practice when they were invited by the Mizpah class of the Sunday school to proceed to the dining room of the church. There they found refreshments consisting of apple pie, ice cream and coffee which were served to them by the ladies of the class.
