Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Traxler returned Thursday from an extended trip which took them as far away as Florida. They report a wonderful time on their vacation.

Mothers Club met at the grade school Friday afternoon with Miss Alleyne Spencer, and Mmes. Wm. Thomson and Al Bartel in charge of the program. Group singing was enjoyed with Mrs. C. I. Kent at the piano. Mrs. Thomson and Mrs. Bartel presented a very amusing skit. Mrs. Harold Patton presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Chas. Ellis, and Mrs. Guy McDonah resigned from the sunshine committee and Mrs. R. M. Carpenter and Mrs. Norman Skaggs were appointed to take their places. Mrs. Carpenter resigned as treasurer and Mrs. Thomson was elected to fill the vacancy. Mrs. E. E. Graham, Mr. Cantwell and Mrs. Minnie Heftriksen will act as an auditing committee for the treasurer's books. Lawrence Chestnut, grade school principal, discussed the purchase of a new stove for the kitchen and Mrs. Kenneth Schwering was appointed to look for a stove. Mr. Chestnut also asked for the cooperation of the community on the coming school issues up before the legislature. It was voted to have some new cupboards built for the kitchen and Mrs. Graham was appointed to secure them. The purchase of divided plates was discussed and the matter will be investigated. Mrs. Frances Cooper's room won the prize for having the most mothers present. The mothers were urged to look through the clothing articles which have been found about the school and grounds and claim those belonging to their children. Mrs. V. W. Johnston, Mrs. Harry Holt and Mrs. Harold Patton served refreshments.

Gilfry Lodge IOOF met in regular session February 5 and made plans to sponsor a project for the city playground and discussed ways and means of improving the club room of the hall. Six members of the local lodge attended the Cottage Grove lodge Thursday evening. Those making the trip were B. F. Johns, L. J. Quigley, J. R. Miller, John Ray, Chester Hewitt and Norman Skaggs.

Tri-Community club met Friday evening and discussed improvements for the club. Mrs. H. Gifford was in charge of the program and Mrs. Thelma Beckstrand was served after the meeting and a social time was enjoyed by all with a number of visitors present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Borchard of Forest Grove visited this week-end with their daughter Mrs. R. M. Carpenter and family.

Creswell Chapter of O. E. S. met Thursday evening and held balloting. Mrs. Ethel Bryden became affiliated with the local lodge. Initiation will be held at the next meeting. Mrs. Harry Mawson, Mrs. E. A. Green and Mrs. Travis Kerr served refreshments. A group from here attended a meeting of Evangelical chapter in Eugene Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Bartel and son of Portland are spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bartel.

This being national Boy Scout week the Creswell Scouts attended the Presbyterian church in a body Sunday morning. They also had a display in Green's store window.

Dale Pitcher has arrived home and after spending two years in the army, he is now being discharged. He has been stationed at Antwerp, Belgium for the last year. Mrs. Pitcher has been making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown, while Dale was in the service. They and their small son, Marvin will now make their home in Cottage Grove.
