

You can bet it's not by accident that RPM Compounded Motor Oil keeps your motor cleaner, gives it longer life. This oil's especially compounded to end carbon trouble, prevent corrosion, stick to hot spots that ordinary oils leave bare and exposed to wear, to fight oxidation, and to eliminate air-bubbles that would impair circulation. Best of all, RPM Motor Oil rust-proofs as it lubricates!

Business and Professional Women Receive National Citation On Membership Goal

The highlight of the dinner meeting at Landon's Inn Monday night of the Business and Professional Women's club was the announcement of the local club receiving the national citation for reaching their goal of 72 members, the local club having taken in 76 new members, with Alice Breedlove chairman of the membership committee. Those becoming new members Monday night were: Ina Smith, Ella Beers, Stella Holt, Julie Crume, Grayce Cruse, Lois Leonard, Ella Hoyer, Sharon Hoyer, Mabel Brisbane, Phyllis Moody, Bernice Patten, Hilda E. Walther, Mildred Booher, Tressa Tullar, Lorraine Kolp, Dora Mae Linden, Margaret Spriggs, Patricia Vanderkley, Ida Williams, Donna Hatch, Irene Boyd, Madeline Throop, Margaret Woodson, Jane Harris, Pauline Robertson, Dorothy Hollister, Verna McDonald and Myrt Oviatt.

Grace Cowan, president, introduced the speaker, Miss Gloria Gebers, physical education teacher of the local Jefferson and Adams schools who brought out the fact that physical education is just as important in junior high as other studies and explained the work and tests which must be passed.

The club voted a contribution of $10.00 to the Red Cross and Ruth Stewart Caldwell reported on the Red Cross drive which was very satisfactory. The nominating committee composed of Inez Hoyt, Myrtle Gleason and Mary Workman was appointed. A report was given by the legislative chairman, Myrtle Gleason. Reports were also given on the southwest district conference held at Coquille on March 2nd. Those attending from the local club were Grace Cowan, Leonora Langston, Nell Bukowski, Ruth Stewart Caldwell, Edna Burleson, Lottie Lee Lamb and Adelia Hatch. On Saturday evening Florence Barton opened her home for a reception of state officers, chairmen and visiting members, with 57 attending.

As a national project the Business and Professional Women are adopting Belgian war orphans, and the local group has announced the adoption of an orphan and will help provide for its keep.

Committees were appointed for the card party to be held March 17 in the armory, by the general chairman, Edna Burleson, the proceeds of which will go toward the hospital fund. Committees are: tickets, Alice Breedlove; tables, napkins and posters, Edna Burleson, Adelia Hatch and Della Gallo; prizes, Catherine Sedergren, Laura Gentry, Lois Ware; cards, Nell Bukowski, Leonora Langston and Mathilda Prager; tables, Lottie Lee Lamb, Ruth Stewart Caldwell, and Elizabeth Mills; punch, Catherine Sedergren; coffee, cream, sugar, Grace Cowan; Laura Gentry, Yeola Baldwin, Leoma Fauquier, Lois Leonard and Lula Digby. Prizes and a door prize are to be given.

ADVANCE NIGHT BY N. OF W.
Advance night was held Tuesday evening by the Neighbors of Woodcraft with Jean Thiel, guardian neighbor elect, in charge. At the next meeting, April 1, installation of officers and initiation will be held.

Delegates were nominated for the district convention for District No. 12 to be held at Medford April 28 and 29. Delegates nominated were Anna Graham and Julia Bartel.

Refreshments were served by the committee, Pearl Bressler and Mildred Teich, St. Patrick's day decorations being carried out. The next social meeting will be with Mrs. Fannie Leabo March 18.
