4-H MOTHERS TO SPONSOR ACHIEVEMENT DAY

The regular meeting of the London 4-H Mothers Club was held on Wednesday with a good attendance and a number of special guests. At the business meeting a report was given by Mrs. Glen Banton that she had turned in $56.50 collected by her during the Red Cross drive. A report on activities of 4-H clubs at London school was made by Jeanne Morton and on the club party held at the clubhouse last Saturday evening. The Mothers club will sponsor the local Achievement Day at their next meeting and voted to award a half-scholarship for the most outstanding exhibit and record book. Most of the quilt blocks have been completed and Mrs. Elvis Kelley was appointed to purchase materials to complete the quilt.

Miss Josephine Day, assistant county club agent was present and gave some notes pertaining to club work. She reported on the proposed co-operative house for former 4-H club girls attending Oregon State College, for which funds are being raised.

Mrs. C. R. Burrows, Mrs. E. H. Gosser, Mrs. J. B. Hile and Mrs. Gladys Starkel were guests representing the Vida Community Club. They reported on activities sponsored by their club and other subjects of mutual interest.

A vote of thanks was made to Mrs. Maryjo Phillips for decorations in the room and the table and to Arlie Sugg for cleaning the clubhouse.

The next club meeting will be on April 16th, with special invitation to mothers of 4-H club members who are not members of the Mothers Club.

DESSERT AND BUSINESS

The Constellation club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Albert Woodward and Mrs. Pat Rickard as hostesses. A 1:30 dessert was served, followed by the regular routine of business.

At the next meeting, May 1, Mrs. Nelson Durham and Mrs. George Currin will be hostesses. Election of officers will be held at this time.

GARDEN CLUB HOLDS ELECTION, APRIL 4TH

The P. D. G. Garden club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jack Godard, who served a 1:30 dessert. Election of officers was held with the following result: Mrs. Jack Godard, president; Mrs. Glenn Flatters, vice president; Mrs. S. L. Godard, secretary and treasurer. Names of Pops Pals were revealed at this time and new names drawn for the coming year.

Plans for the annual spring plant sale were completed. This sale will be held in the Mt. States Power Company office, Saturday, April 12. The next meeting will be on May 2 at the home of Mrs. Matt Smith.

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE EASTER PARTY

Saturday afternoon the Intermediate League members of the Methodist church met in the League room for their Easter egg hunt. Miss Carolyn Crane was voted in as the "best egg in the League," and received a gift as a prize. Malcolm Scott's dressed up egg won first prize, and was cleverly fixed to resemble a Mexican, big hat and all. The prize for the largest egg went to Miss Joyce Allen, and Nathan Crow received the prize for the tiniest egg.

The party was climaxed with an Easter egg hunt and each one went home well supplied and happy.

WORLD FRIENDSHIP PLANS INSTALLATION SERVICE
