CLUB TOURS THE WORLD

The annual tour of the world was cleverly carried out recently by the members of the Research club and their two guests, Mrs. Benton Schrenk of Albany, and Miss Marie Zedron, of Los Angeles, who is visiting at the home of her father and sister. The club was divided into three groups, each group representing a different country, dressing typical of that country and serving dishes that would be served if one were visiting that country.

Sixteen covers were laid at each home for the progressive dinner that started in far off Russia at the home of Mrs. H. A. Hagen. Here the hostesses were attired in Russian costumes and served "borsh" as the first course after which the group was entertained in Russian style, with one of the members very gracefully giving a Russian dance.

From the Hagen home the group traveled to another country, which was China at the rural home of another member, Mrs. A. W. Shofstall, who lives on Bennett creek. In China they were served the main course of chop suey with chop sticks a must. For entertainment each was treated to a Chinese rice cake in which contained the fortune of the member, this being followed by games of Chinese checkers.

For the dessert course the members journeyed to the American home of Mrs. Georg Bjorset, which represented a New Orleans home, and were served pecan pie and pralines, followed by a "Mardi Gras," with confetti and all that goes with the carnival furnished the entertainment at this American home, which concluded the evening's frolic and fun.

MISS PHYLLIS BALDWIN WED AT HOME OF BROTHER

Miss Phyllis Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baldwin, of Cottage Grove, was married to Bennett Hagen at a double ring ceremony on April 25th at the home of her brother, Frank Baldwin, in Vancouver, Washington. The Rev. Moeller of the English Lutheran church united the couple. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dusty rose crepe afternoon dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Sydney Little of Eugene attended her sister as matron of honor and wore an aqua blue crepe afternoon dress with gardenias and rosebuds for her corsage. Ted Golmes acted as best man.

A reception was held for the immediate family after which the couple left for a trip to the Oregon coast. For going away the bride wore an aqua suit with matching accessories and a white top coat.

The couple will make their home in Portland.

Mrs. Hagen graduated from Cottage Grove Union high school in '45 and has been employed in Portland as teller at the Gas & Coke Co., for the past year.

The groom is attending business college in Portland. He served in the war, being a German prisoner for 17 months.

Assembly of God Scene of Wedding

The Assembly of God was beautifully decorated with vases and baskets of white spirea and purple iris Friday evening, April 25, for the wedding of Miss Verna Strickland, daughter of Mrs. Nina Strickland, to Lester Peabody, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Peabody, of Stayton. The couple exchanged vows before a group of approximately 200 guests, the Rev. Hilton Park officiating, at the single ring ceremony at eight o'clock.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Donald Strickland. She wore a gold color gabardine suit, white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Harvey Kragness, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her suit was green wool with yellow headress, white accessories and gardenia corsage.

Robert Fournier acted as best man for the groom and ushers were Keith Keller and Fred Frost.

The wedding music was played by Miss Orlena Martin. She also accompanied Miss Millicent Lewis who sang "Because."

A reception followed in the church parlors with Mrs. W. D. Lovegren in charge of the serving. The bride's table was graced with a lace tablecloth, and centered with the three-tiered decorated wedding cake with silver candlesticks containing yellow candles.

The bride and groom cut the initial piece of cake. Mrs. Lovegren was assisted in serving by Mrs. Loren Bell, Mrs. Asa Keller, Mrs. Lloyd Fournier, Mrs. Sam Kosanaka, Mrs. Geo. Aldridge, and the Misses Jewel Schemilfing, Dorothy Bell, Charlotte Aldridge, Betty Harker and Donna Mae Hill.

The couple was honored with a miscellaneous shower following the reception. They received many lovely and useful gifts.

Those from out of town attending the wedding were the groom's mother, Mrs. John W. Peabody, his sisters, Mrs. Floyd Persons and Miss Mary Anne Peabody, all of Stayton, and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Peabody of Portland.

Mrs. Peabody graduated from high school in Rochester, Minnesota and the groom from Forest Grove high school. During the war he served 39 months in the Signal Corps of the Army, 30 of which were spent overseas. Mr. Peabody is employed by the Madonna-Arnold Mill. They are at home in the Omer apartments.

UNITED SPANISH WAR VETS AND AUXILIARY MEET

The United Spanish War Veterans and Auxiliary held their regular monthly meeting Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sweet on Ash Ave.

Following a potluck luncheon served at noon the business meeting was conducted. Miss Evelyn Edwards was elected as delegate to represent the auxiliary at the state convention to be held in Corvallis in June, with Mrs. Eva Greenlee elected as alternate. Appointed as hospital chairman was Mrs. Minnie Hodgson.

Honoring Anna Nagle, past national president of the auxiliary, who died recently, in Boston, the charter was draped.

Out of town guests for the meeting and luncheon were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Veatch.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bertha Rodgers on Bennett creek, May 26th.

DAUGHTERS OF THE NILE TO MEET

The Daughters of the Nile will meet Wednesday, May 7th, for a 7:30 dessert at the golf club house. The committee in charge of arrangements includes Margaret Lasater, Thelma Gates and Estelle Gates.

W. C. T. U. LANE COUNTY INSTITUTE HELD HERE

A Lane county W. C. T. U. Institute was held in Cottage Grove last week at the Presbyterian church with Mrs. N. E. Compton, president, presiding. The Rev. Mrs. Rozella Douglas, pastor of the Free Methodist church, led the devotions and Mrs. C. V. Belknap offered prayer. Mrs. Carroll Witherspoon gave the welcome address.

After the reports were given Mrs. H. R. Burch was elected vice president and Mrs. G. Warner was elected treasurer.

A delicious luncheon was served by the local union.

Mrs. Compton led the afternoon devotionals, the group singing "Open My Eyes That I May See," and also offered prayers. A duet, "Beautiful Garden of Prayer," was sung by Mrs. J. B. Leonard and Mrs. Frank Brown.

This was followed by a talk by Rev. Rozella Douglas on "Why Have Institutes?" Mrs. Nelia E. Buck, state director of international relations for peace, spoke on state and national temperance legislation and international peace relations.

After the reports were given Mrs. H. R. Burch was elected vice president and Mrs. G. Warner was elected treasurer.

GIRL SCOUTS ENTERTAIN MOTHERS

Girl Scout Troop 94 gave a tea for their mothers April 29 at the home of Mrs. Earl Wiese. The girls as part of their badge work made cookies which they served with tea and punch.
