MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET BY WORLD FRIENDSHIP GIRLS

A delightful affair was the annual mother-daughter banquet held May 1st in the dining room of the Methodist church with the high school World Friendship Queens as hosts. Eighty mothers and daughters assembled in the dining room attractively decorated in gay spring colors of pink and green with lovely white flowers adorning the tables. Members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service prepared and served the dinner with Mrs. Charles Akerblade acting as chairman.

Mrs. Frank Brown, counselor of the group, acted as toastmistress and was presented a corsage and gift from the girls.

The program consisted of songs, readings, and talks. Minnie Snapp, president, gave a report on the aims, activities and projects of the organization and gave a salute to the mothers present. Mrs. E. E. Cone, president of the W.S.C.S., spoke to the girls, commending them in their fine work, and challenged them to a richer fuller Christian life. Pauline Dyksterhuis gave a reading "Home," and Mrs. Reg. Fauquier rendered a solo, "When Love Shines In." Mrs. Fauquier also led the group in singing.

Miss Louise Walther played two accordion solos, "My Mom," and "Anniversary Song." Miss Patty Lee Rickard sang "My Mother," and "Dedication," accompanied by Miss Betty Dyksterhuis.

Guest speaker of the evening was the Rev. Miss Dorothy Hardy, minister of the Bennett Chapel Methodist Church, Portland. Her interesting talk concerned mother-daughter relationships, and she stressed the many privileges and the challenge of today's mothers.

A corsage for the youngest mother attending was presented to Mrs. Bob Frye, and Mrs. May Hogate received the corsage for being the oldest mother there.

The banquet came to a close with group singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

MOTHERS DAY THEME OF W. C. T. U.

The Mothers day theme was carried out in the program and tea by the members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carroll Witherspoon. Miss Stella Adams led the devotion and Mrs. N. E. Compton presented the program, both centered around Mothers day, as also was the tea. It was voted the contribution be sent to headquarters for the entertainment of the world W. C. T. U. convention delegates. A visitor of the afternoon was Mrs. Norma Luman.

Mrs. N. E. Compton will entertain the members at the June meeting.

CEDARS CLUB SHOWERS MISS ATWOOD

During the afternoon meeting of the Cedars club held at the home of Mrs. N. E. Compton on Tuesday a miscellaneous bridal shower was given Miss Evelyn Atwood, whose wedding will be an event of June. She was the recipient of many lovely gifts. This was an all day meeting with a covered dish luncheon at the noon hour. A special guest was Mrs. Mac Bolton, daughter-in-law and house guest of Mrs. Anna Bolton, of Creswell. The June meeting will be with Mrs. Peacock, at her home in the Cedars district.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR DR. AND MRS. FLAIZ

On Saturday evening 75 friends of Dr. T. S. Flaiz and wife gathered at the home of Mrs. Woodrume on North River road for a social evening and farewell party honoring them before they leave for Portland to make their home. The evening was spent in lawn games and music, both vocal and instrumental, and refreshments closed a pleasant evening.

Dr. Flaiz has been in the office of Dr. C. H. Kime for the past several months and is planning to open his own dental office.

MRS. KIME HOSTESS

The El Martes club was entertained by Mrs. Claude Kime on April 29. Mrs. Harold Wolford was a guest and received high scores. The next meeting will be May 13 with Mrs. George Matthews.

FAMILY GATHERING HONORING MRS. WILLS

A family gathering was held Sunday at the home of Mrs. Minnie Jones, on South Sixth street, honoring Mrs. Jones' sister, Mrs. Ella Wills, whose birthday was Thursday, May first. Mrs. Wills was 84. Three of Mrs. Wills' children were present for the occasion: Ralph Wills of Fair Oaks, California; Mrs. Alice Noth of Salem and Mrs. Lynch Currin of Cottage Grove. Ernest of Vallejo, and Delbert of Paradise, California, were not present. Sunday, May 4th was the 26th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lynch Currin.

Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Curtis Harris, Mrs. Edna Harris, Mrs. Agnes Thornton and Miss Maxine Currin, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Small, Mrs. Lissie Small, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Shortridge, Mr. and Mrs. Lynch Currin, Ralph Wills, Mrs. Alice Noth, the honored guest, Mrs. Ella Wills and Mrs. Minnie Jones.

Mrs. Julia Powell spent the afternoon with the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Newton called on Mrs. Wills Sunday evening. They were accompanied by Miss Ethel Ann Newton and a girl friend who are nurses in Portland and were spending the week end here. Mrs. Wills received many lovely gifts and cards.

OFFICERS INSTALLED, CANDIDATES INITIATED

Officers who were absent at the regular installation service of the Neighbors of Woodcraft were installed Tuesday night at the regular meeting and four candidates were initiated into the order. Those installed were Jean Thiel, guardian neighbor; Eleanor Wolfard, banker and Thelma Tonoli, senior guardian. Fannie Leabo acted as installing officer. Mrs. Thiel presided over the meeting and degrees were conferred upon Kay Bartels, W. G. Carpenter, Miss Helen Judd and Miss Thelma Murrell.

Adella Hatch was introduced as the new district guardian neighbor of District 12, and was honored. Reports were given by the delegates, Anna Graham and Pearl Bressler, of the district convention held in Medford. Honoring the mothers, Fannie Leabo sang "Mother McCree." It was announced that the next social meeting will be with Adella Hatch at her apartment on May 20. Refreshments were served by Hazel Chapman of Drain and her committee.

CLUB HOLDS MEETING AT CLUBHOUSE

A 7:30 dessert was served the members of the Daughters of the Nile Wednesday evening at the golf course clubhouse with Margaret Lasater chairman, assisted by Thelma Gates and Estelle Gates.

Plans were made to have a luncheon on May 23 honoring the queen of Nydia Temple, Beatrice H. King. Gurea Arnold was elected to represent the club at the hospital committee meeting. Bridge followed the business meeting with high score going to Thelma Bagley and low to Gurea Arnold.

LAWN PARTY FOR BAPTIST YOUTH

Twenty-one young people of the Baptist Youth Fellowship and their sponsor, the Rev. Peter Bakker, and Mrs. Bakker gathered at the home of their president, W. C. Martin Jr., last Saturday evening for a lawn party. The evening was spent in playing games and the serving of refreshments of sandwiches, punch, ice cream and doughnuts. Several new members were guests of the Fellowship group.

Women Of Moose

To Sponsor Girl Scout Troop

At a recent meeting the Women of the Moose voted to sponsor a Girl Scout troop. At the meeting on May 1st Mary Voegel, committee chairman in child care and training, had charge of the chapter night program and was accompanied by Mrs. Hollister, district chairman of Girl Scouts, as speaker. Mrs. Hollister gave a very interesting talk on what our duties are as a sponsoring group.

The Women of the Moose wish to thank Mr. Morelock for the piano he gave the lodge to use as long as they wish.

Due to the illness of the senior regent, Lois Ware, Katherine Sedergren, junior regent, will take her place until election of officers. At the May 1st meeting seven candidates were initiated. They were Blanche Stokes, Harriet Aldrich, Virginia Kelly, Dora B. Maulding, Dora May Linden, Juanita Goodrich and Maxine Ward. The hospital board has asked Katherine Sedergren to represent the Women of the Moose on the board and also invited members to attend any of the meetings.

Senior regent, Helen Abrahamson, and several co-workers from the Eugene lodge were guests of the evening. She has invited the Cottage Grove chapter to be their guests May 9 which is the 30th anniversary of their lodge.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Elizabeth Bullington, Mary Bussard and L. A. Adams.

The next meeting will be May 15 at the Moose hall and several candidates will be initiated.

ALTAR SOCIETY AT PARISH RECTORY

Altar Society met May 7th at the parish rectory. It was reported that approximately $200 was cleared on the recent food and fancy work sale. The ladies wish to thank the public for the generous response, and also all those who in any way participated to make the sale a success.

Mrs. Thomas Veale, mother of Mrs. R. L. Sedergren was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. Julia Watts will represent Catholic groups at the Hospital planning meeting.

Mrs. Alfred Small, Rt. 1, Creswell, was winner of the hand braided rug donated by Mrs. Ursula Ryan and Mrs. John Keblebeck. B. B. Route, won the hand painted picture donated by Mrs. Wm. Bach.

MRS. MATT SMITH ENTERTAINS CLUB

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Matt Smith entertained the P. D. G. Garden club at her home in Latham at a dessert course and afternoon meeting and social time. Her dessert table was attractively decorated with the centerpiece being a huge mayabaskat containing yellow tulips, lilies-of-the-valley and maiden hair fern. At each place stood a small flower pot filled with ice cream covered with chocolate shot to represent soil, out of which was growing a cookie flower with pink blossoms and green leaves.

At the business meeting a committee was appointed to make year books. Those on this committee are Mrs. Matt Smith, Mrs. Glenn Flatters and Mrs. Andrew Brund. The club voted a donation of $10.00 to "Save the Myrtlewood" campaign which is a special endeavor of the Federated Garden clubs of Oregon. They also pledged $25.00 to the local hospital fund. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Martin Foster at Lorane.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

A birthday dinner honoring Ralph Allen was given Sunday, May 4, at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Allen, at Silk Creek. Those present besides the honored guest were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Duncan and son Lester Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Allen and daughter Judy, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Lebow, Miss Leona Hamill and Miss Joyce Allen. Mr. Allen received several nice gifts and a special birthday cake with appropriate number of candles was also enjoyed.

Mrs. Leo Rickard will entertain the Westminster Guild at her home 45 S. 12th St., Tuesday evening, May 13th, at 8:00 o'clock.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 94 GUESTS OF CLUB

Girl Scout troop No. 94 and their leader, Mrs. Frank Miller, were guests of the Business and Professional Women's club Monday night in the armory. The club is sponsoring this troop. The girls went through their regular routine of business as though it were their meeting and Mary Lou Gerl thanked the club for sponsoring their troop. The club gave two camperships and those receiving them were Carmen Grewelle and Joanne Stewart, which will enable them to attend summer scout camp.

Speaker of the evening was Mrs. Janet Stultz, field director of the Three River Council of Girl Scouts, and a former member of the Business and Professional Women's club at Danville, Illinois. She spoke on leadership of Girl Scouts and the part mothers can play in encouraging scouting.

The club members served punch and a cake decorated with scout colors and bearing the inscription "Troop 94" with Mildred Colner, Eleanor Fleming and Margaret Davies in charge. Scout ceremonial was announced for May 18, 3 to 4:30 p. m. in the Jefferson gym and the club members are invited.

Plans were made concerning the music and stunt to be presented at the state convention in Albany May 16-18 and the regular business meeting followed.

The next meeting will be May 26 instead of the 19th. This meeting will be in the armory and dinner will be served by the Dorena grange ladies. For reservations contact Lenora Langston. Initiation of new members will be held at this time.

UTOPIA CLUB WITH MRS. V. RANDALL

Next Thursday, May 15, the Utopia club will meet with Mrs. Vinal Randall Sr. for a 1:30 dessert instead of Mrs. H. K. Metcalf as previously announced.

W. R. C. TO MEET

A meeting of the Women's Relief Corps is planned for Saturday, May 10th, at 2:00 p. m. in the IOOF hall. There will be work to do and all members are requested to be present.

Too late we are coming to a realization of the necessity to rehabilitate devastated areas. Any effort expended after a fire is too little too late. Let's prevent fires and "Keep Oregon Green."
