D. U. V. ENTERTAINS DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS

The Ida May Whiting tent of the D. U. V. has entertained two department officers recently. Mrs. Esther Agnew of Portland, department president paid her official visit to the tent April 22. This evening was a combined social and business meeting held at the home of Mrs. Rodney Safley. Mrs. Agnew spoke to the members on ritualistic work and its changes.

A gift was presented to her by the president, Hazel Tohlen, on behalf of the tent. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Jessie May Castle.

On May 13 Mrs. Elva Eldred, department inspector, visited the tent. She spoke to the members in regard to the ritualistic work, also and informed the tent that as such a few Civil War veterans are living and it is impossible for them to visit the tents as they have done in the past, that some changes are necessary. She complimented the members on their activity. A few tents have disbanded and others are having a very hard time to keep going.

The local tent is sponsoring a Girl Scout Brownie troop again this year. Mrs. Walter Sorensen who is the representative announced that the girls are having a ceremonial at the Jefferson school gymnasium and extended a sincere invitation to their sponsors to attend.

Election of delegates and alternates to the convention was held with Mabel Doleman and Clara Riggs elected as delegates and Mary Manfield and Louisa Tohlen as alternates. The convention will be held in Salem on June 18 to 20 inclusive.

At the close of the meeting the members reassembled at the home of Mabel Doleman, surprising Mrs. Eldred, the occasion being her birthday. Refreshments of ice cream and a birthday cake were served by the hostess. A gift was presented to Mrs. Eldred by the tent for which she was very appreciative.

B. & P. W. Clubs

Hold 26th Annual Convention, Albany

Delegates from all over Oregon attended the three day 26th annual convention of Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs over the week end at Albany. The meeting opened Friday afternoon followed by a banquet honoring the national president, Miss Sally Butler, who spoke to the group on policies and activities of individual clubs.

Evangeline Philbin, Portland, regional chairman, who is also president of the Oregon State Federation of Women's clubs and erstwhile "Outstanding Oregon Woman of the Year," described plans for the regional B. & P. W. meeting to be held at Sun Valley June 12, 13 and 14. The program, she said, would revolve around the subject of reclamation.

Charline Edwards, membership chairman, reported a gain of 522 members during the year and a total current members of 2,251 in the 35 Oregon B. & P. W. clubs.

State officers for the coming year were elected as follows: state president, Leone Jensen of Eugene; first vice Carmelita Weddle of Salem; second vice Charline Edwards of Corvallis; recording secretary Charlotte Donovan; corresponding secretary, Miss Elizabeth Richards of Eugene; treasurer, Miss Georgia Kaylor, McMinnville. The Cottage Grove club was awarded a citation for increase in membership.

Those attending from here on Friday in time for the Sally Butler banquet were: delegates, Grace Cowan, Edna Burleson, Adelia Hatch, Lottie Lee Lamb, Lenora Langston, Edna Piller. Others attending besides the delegates were Dorothy Wert, Ruth Stewart Caldwell, Alice Breedlove, Della Gallo, Nell Bukowski, Lois Leonard and Lila Graham. Additional members attending Saturday evening were Helen Hagen, Eleanor Fleming and Gracie Cruson, who with Alice Breedlove, Ruth Stewart Caldwell and Lois Leonard sang in a combined chorus at the dinner Saturday evening, under the direction of Jesse Bush Mickelson, state music and arts chairman. At the banquet the national president spoke on "What Is America Going to Do About Keeping Peace and the Part Women Are Prepared to Do." She also told of her trip to Brussels to the International Congress and visiting the cemetery of the Battle of the Bulge.

Eugene will entertain the B. & P. W. clubs of Oregon in 1948.
