Radio Operator

PICTURED aboard the Norwegian liner Roseville when she docked in Los Angeles from Manila is Lyle Smith, the vessel's radio operator. The ship's captain said that Miss Smith once stood by the ship's radio for 62 hours receiving directions from Midway Island on how to treat a sick crew member. (International)

MISS ELAINE CRADER MAY BRIDE

Baskets of pink and white snapdragons formed the setting for the marriage of Miss Elaine Crader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Crader, of Joseph, to Reg Land, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Land, at the home of the groom's parents, Friday, May 30, at ten o'clock. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Frank Brown before a group of approximately 25 relatives and friends.

Mr. Crader gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a navy blue summer suit, white accessories, and carried a bouquet of gardenias centered with a white orchid.

Miss Joyce Land, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, wearing a gold colored suit dress, brown accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Nancy Crader, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid, and was dressed in pink with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Joe Getty was best man for the groom.

The bride's mother wore a brown suit with white accessories and the groom's mother, a blue suit with white accessories. Both wore corsages of pink rosebuds and gardenias.

A reception followed at the Land home, the bride's table being graced with a lace tablecloth and a centerpiece of pink and white carnations. A two-tiered decorated wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was cut by the bride's cousin, Norma Crader, and Miss Pat Kelly presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Land and Mrs. Crader assisted in the serving.

The couple left for a short wedding trip to Portland. The bride wore a blue suit and orchid from her bouquet.

Mrs. Land graduated with the high school class Thursday night and Mr. Land graduated in 1945 after which he served two years with the navy. He is employed by the Northcutt Lumber Company. They are making their home here.

The next meeting will be July 2nd.

MRS. CARR HONORED AT FAREWELL DINNER

Mrs. Cathleen Carr, who is leaving this week for Los Angeles, was the inspiration for a covered dish dinner held by the Presbyterian church choir and friends at the Roy Short home Tuesday evening. After a bounteous meal in which members sat at card tables scattered about the room, old time songs were sung. Mrs. Short, choir director, presented her with a fountain pen, on behalf of the choir. A little later a real surprise was given Mrs. Carr, when Rev. Hugh Peniston presented her with a gift from the congregation of the church in the form of an overnight bag, and expressed appreciation for them concerning her work with the choir. The evening closed with more old time songs, musical numbers and visiting.

Visitors present were Miss Myrtle Kem, Mrs. Paul Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Martens of Temple City, California, sister of Mrs. Fred Hollister.

Choir members with their wives or husbands present were Mr. and Mrs. George Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hagen, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Trask, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cruson, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Lovegren, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ballew, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Trunnell, the Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Peniston, L. W. Coiner, Miss Jane Beidler, Miss Roberta Bagley, Miss Joan Metcalf, and the honored guest.

The El Martes club met last week at the home of Mrs. N. J. Nelson for the last meeting until fall. Mrs. Warren Hansen and Mrs. Earl Wise were guests. Hazel Saltsman held high score for the day.
