Miss Betty Morgan

June Bride At Church Rites, 15th

Tall baskets of white gladioli and pink carnations with flickering white tapers in candleabra on either side of the altar in the First Methodist church Sunday afternoon, June 15, at two o'clock, formed the setting for the wedding of a lovely June bride, Miss Betty Joy Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Morgan, to Alon Lee Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams, all of Cottage Grove. The Rev. Frank E. Brown read the double ring service before a large group of relatives and friends.

Preceding the exchange of wedding vows Mrs. Boyd Allen played Clair du Lune while Miss Edna Brown of Klamath Falls, cousin of the bride, and Miss LaVaughn Stokes, both in white formals and gardenias in their hair, lighted the tapers. Mrs. Allen accompanied Miss Brown as she sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," and also played the traditional wedding marches.

Mr. Morgan gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white brocade satin wedding gown with fitted bodice, short sleeves, low neck and full skirt. Her lace trimmed finger-tip veil fell from a pearl beaded tiara and her lace sleeves matched the lace of her veil. She carried a white Bible topped with a single white orchid with white satin streamers interspersed with stephanotis. For "something borrowed" she wore a three-strand necklace of pearls, belonging to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Carter.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Robert Woolcott, who wore a rose floor-length dress of net and carried a nosegay of pink carnations, pink rosebuds and purple sweet-peas on a ruffled net. Her four bridesmaids, Miss Georgia Morgan of Forest Grove, a cousin of the bride, wore light blue net; Miss Carley Morgan also of Forest Grove and cousin of the bride, was gown in pink brocade satin; Miss Winnie Stokes was attired in aqua satin and her sister, Miss Blanche Stokes, wore aqua satin and net. All carried identical nosegays of pastel sweetpeas and carnations fashioned on ruffled net to match their gowns.

Other attendants were little Sandra Sue Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jenkins of Springfield, who was flower girl in a dainty frock of yellow net, and Michael Carter, nephew of the groom as ring bearer, preceded the bride to the altar.

Jack Carter, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and ushers were Mark Morgan Jr., brother of the bride, Tommy Morgan, cousin of the bride, Bruce Johnson and Ross Adkins. The bride's mother wore a black tailored suit and corsage of gardenias and red rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother chose a pink afternoon dress with gardenia and pink rosebud corsage.

A reception followed in the church parlors. The bride's table was graced with a lace table cloth and centered with a Fostoria crystal bowl with floating gardenias and matching candlesticks and white tapers on either side. The bride and groom cut the initial piece of the three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Harold Hammericksen of El Cerrito, California, sister of the groom, cut the cake, and Mrs. Glenn A. Thomas of San Francisco, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving were Miss Mildred Fisher, Miss Norma Bradley, Mrs. Jack Carter and Mrs. Jimmy Thrasher. Mrs. Robert Woolcott was in charge of the guest book.

For going away the bride wore a white dressmaker suit with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. After a trip to California they will be at home at the Woodard cabins on Black Butte route, the groom being employed at Woodard's mill.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Williams graduated from the local high school with the class of '44.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Morgan, Georgia, Carley, Tommy and Marlene Morgan, Mary Hill and Leah Rae Hill, all of Forest Grove; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Morgan, Ronald Judd and W. J. Morgan, Mrs. Annes Goodwin, Miss Edna Brown, all of Klamath Falls; Mrs. Glenn A. Thomas of San Francisco, California; Mrs. Edward DeLap, Santa Cruz; Mrs. Harold Hammericksen, Mrs. Margie Mark and Sandra Lee Hammericksen, all of El Cerrito, California.

Cooking Fallacy

One cooking fallacy is that cooking utensils made of aluminum may be harmful. Food spoils when it is not handled correctly and kept at sufficiently low temperature to prevent spoilage organism from developing—not because it is stored in aluminum dishes.

Hospital Space

New York state has one bed in a general hospital for every 200 people, but Mississippi has only one bed for every 650 people.

Keep From Light

Foods such as onions, potatoes and flour should be stored away from the light.

WOODARDS GRADUATE FROM USC

Collegiate activities for approximately 2350 seniors of the University of Southern California were climaxed Saturday, June 14, with the holding of the 64th annual commencement exercises in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Donald M. Nelson, former head of the War Production Board, delivered the commencement address with Chancellor Rufus B. von KleinSmid officiating at the formal ceremonies.

Residents of this community who were among graduates to receive their respective degrees were: Joy M. Woodard, A.B.; and Carlton Woodard, B.S. in B.A.

Crop Rotation

The Romans were the first farmers to practice crop rotation, the World Book encyclopedia relates. But this sound agricultural practice was forgotten during the Middle Ages and was not revived until modern times.
