Former Resident Takes English Bride At Everett, Wash.

A wedding of interest to his many friends here was that of Paul A. Cochran, son of P. J. Cochran, to Miss Vera May Mills of Bude, Cornwall, England, who arrived by plane on Tuesday evening, July 1, to be married on July 2nd at an eight o'clock wedding at the home of the sister of the groom, Mrs. C. J. Dudek, at Everett, Washington.

The bride was given in marriage by the father of the groom. She wore a white jersey gown with a wreath of gardenias in her hair. Her attendants were Mrs. Judy Groat and Mrs. Maxine Dudek. Mrs. Dudek's small daughter Shirley was flower girl.

Willard Cochran, brother of the groom, was best man. Mrs. Maxine Dudek sang "I'll Walk Beside You", at the bride's request. She was accompanied by Mrs. Dorothea Cromwell. The Rev. Elroy Sheikles, pastor of the First Baptist church of Everett, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride and groom left for a week's honeymoon in Portland, where they will visit his mother, Mrs. Zella Larsen. After July 12th they will be at home at Arlington, Washington.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Groat and family who went to Everett for her brother's wedding; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dudek, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Pearson and daughters Bonnie and Betty; Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Cochran and son Jimmie; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Clarke and son Rolfe; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cromwell. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Groat and sons of Cottage Grove and Willard Cochran of Portland.

MRS. ROY M. BROWN (BEVERLY JEAN MUNSSELL) married in white brocaded satin, June 21, at First Methodist Church.

Roy Marion Brown slipped a slender gold band on the third finger of Miss Beverly Jean Munsell's left hand Saturday evening, June 21, at 8:00 o'clock at the First Methodist church, the Rev. Frank E. Brown officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Munsell and the groom is the son of Mrs. Opal Brown, all of Cottage Grove. Tall baskets of white gladioli, white calla lilies and pink snapdragons and candelabra with white tapers furnished the setting for the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a white brocaded satin wedding gown fashioned princess style with train and long sleeves. Her veil of illusion fell from a crown trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias, pink rosebuds and pink sweetpeas. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of her brother. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Rex A. Munsell.

Mrs. George C. Munsell of Cottage Grove was matron of honor and wore a yellow gown, the bodice of satin and the skirt of net. Her nosegay was of pink and white rosebuds arranged on yellow net and yellow net and rosebuds formed her headdress. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jack Gardner and Miss Joyce Stroup, both of Cottage Grove. Mrs. Gardner wore a floor-length dress of blue net, with matching headdress. Miss Stroup was in a turquoise jersey gown, and carried a nosegay of pink and white rosebuds on turquoise net and headdress to match.

Best man was George C. Munsell and ushers were Doyle L. Eastburn and Floyd A. Tucker.

"God Gave Me You" and "I Love You Truly" were sung by Mrs. Glenn Bricker, accompanied by Mrs. Norman Lewis, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride's mother wore a grey crepe afternoon dress and corsage of white gardenias and yellow rosebuds. The groom's mother chose a navy blue suit and corsage the same as the bride's mother.

A reception followed immediately in the church parlors. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Bill Brock, Mrs. Glenn Bricker, Miss Joyce Stroup, Mrs. Jack Gardner and Miss June Eastburn.

The couple went on a short wedding trip down the coast highway and into California. For going away the bride chose a two-piece gold colored suit, white accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds.

Miss Joan King Bride at High Noon Ceremony

A lovely wedding at high noon Sunday, July 6, at St. Mary's Episcopal church in Eugene was that of Miss Helen Joan King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. King of Cottage Grove, to Daniel J. Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Dunn of Reedsport, Oregon. Tall white flickering tapers in candelabra and baskets of peach and white gladioli furnished the setting for the exchange of vows at the double ring ceremony, read by the Rev. E. S. Bartlam. Approximately 150 relatives and friends were present for the wedding and reception.

Those coming for the reunion were Mrs. H. W. Croco of Woodland, California; Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Webster of Fruitland, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Webster and children Frankie, Bonnie Jean, and Dixie Lee of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Richard McClintic of Eugene; Charlie Houghton of Everett, Washington, and two daughters, Mrs. H. N. Lindblom Jr., and son Richard of Edgewood, Washington and Mrs. Willard Eddy and daughter Linda of Edmonds, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. William Haight, Ontario, Oregon; Mrs. Clarence D. McClintic, John Kinsley, Mrs. Inez Lovelace and daughter Eleanor, all of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Loring McLaughlin.

Preceding the ceremony Betty Dunn and Mary Browne lighted the tapers, both in identical blue eyelet floor-length dresses. The church organ played the wedding music.

The bride wore a white eyelet pique floor-length wedding gown with halo and mitts of matching material. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jack Kelly, sister of the bride, who wore peach linen and carried a nosegay of peach carnations and gardenias.

Best man was Bob Bennett of Reedsport and ushers were Paul Pearson and Jack Brandon. A reception followed in the church parlors with Miss Phyllis Turry in charge. Mrs. John Lundahl, sister of the bride, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Birdie Lewis cut the cake. Miss Sara Bjorset was in charge of the guest book. A luncheon was given in the Mirror room of the Eugene hotel for the wedding party and immediate families.

For going away the bride was attired in a navy blue suit with white accessories and orchid corsage. After a wedding trip they will reside at Reedsport, where Mr. Dunn is associated with his father in the Dunn Outfitting Company.

The bride graduated from the local high school in '44 and was a member of this spring's graduating class from Sacred Heart School of Nursing in Eugene. The groom graduated from the Reedsport high school and attended the University of Oregon where he was affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity. He served in the Marines for four years, two of which were spent overseas.

MISS JEAN GRABLE JULY BRIDE

A simple wedding ceremony of July 7th was that of Miss Jean Grable, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Grable, of this city to Roger Becker, son of Mrs. Christine Becker, also of Cottage Grove. The ceremony took place at the home of Justice of the Peace Eva C. King, who officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Becker of Curtin, the groom's brother and sister-in-law, attended the couple.

REUNION OF WEBSTER CLAN

Over the Fourth of July holidays the children and several grandchildren of Mrs. Emma Webster gathered at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Knaffle Haynes, for a family reunion. Twenty-two guests spent a few days at the Haynes home visiting and enjoying the vacation period.

Those coming for the reunion were Mrs. H. W. Croco of Woodland, California; Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Webster of Fruitland, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Webster and children Frankie, Bonnie Jean, and Dixie Lee of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Richard McClintic of Eugene; Charlie Houghton of Everett, Washington, and two daughters, Mrs. H. N. Lindblom Jr., and son Richard of Edgewood, Washington and Mrs. Willard Eddy and daughter Linda of Edmonds, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. William Haight, Ontario, Oregon; Mrs. Clarence D. McClintic, John Kinsley, Mrs. Inez Lovelace and daughter Eleanor, all of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Loring McLaughlin.

MISS IVEL MARIE POSEY NOW MRS. HAND

At a quiet ceremony at the First Methodist church on July 3, at three o'clock Miss Ivel Marie Posey became the bride of Calvin Clarence Hand. The Rev. Frank E. Brown, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony with a few close relatives present. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwin Posey of Porterville, California, and the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Hand of Cottage Grove. The couple was attended by the groom's mother and his uncle, Rolfe Hand.

They are making their home here, Mr. Hand being employed by Woodard Lumber Company.

Betty Romaine Bride Of Patrick Sullivan

In a setting of white flowers and candles, Miss Betty Mae Romaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Raymond Linck, was married to Patrick Henry Sullivan, son of Mrs. Kathryn Sullivan, June 21, at the Church of the Madeleine, Portland. Mr. Linck gave her in marriage and the Rev. Joseph M. McMahon officiated.

A wedding gown of eggshell Skinner satin fashioned with long sleeves and in basque style with a long train was worn by the bride. She wore her mother's heirloom veil of silk net and imported lace and carried a white orchid on a white prayer book.

The attendants wore frocks of white crepe made like that of the bride and carried delphiniums. Mrs. Elmer F. Kolberg was honor attendant and the others were Mrs. James D. Mount and Mrs. Harry W. Adams. Molly Sullivan, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl, dressed in white and carrying a nosegay.

Best man was Paul J. Sullivan Jr., and ushers were Messrs. Donald W. Moore, Whitlock Lees Jr., Edward Ferguson and Warren Johnson.

The reception was held at the Laurelhurst club. Mrs. Landor Penne, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Horace A. Dryer poured. Messrs. John C. Callahan and Lillian Slater served punch and Mrs. Claude H. Kime of Cottage Grove, aunt of the bride, served the bride's cake. Assisting were Messrs. James Crowder, Earl Bray, John McCurdy, Paul J. Sullivan Jr., Robert Jackson, Earl Benson, Lucille Olmsted and Bette Perkins and the Misses Catherine Carneg, Patty Foreman, Lillian Townsend and Dorothy Meyers.

Attending from here were Mrs. Kittie Kime, grandmother of the bride; Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Kime, uncle and aunt, and Claudette Kime, Mrs. Tressa Tuller and Miss Gerry Ken.
