SECTION 2

Two Oregon Ram Sales in August

Two annual Oregon ram sales are scheduled for August, the first being the annual Willamette Valley pured ram and ewe sale at Albany August 9, followed by the older twenty-first annual Oregon ram sale at Pendleton August 16.

At Albany there will be offered Stud and range rams and some ewes of ten breeds — Suffolks, Hampshires, Romneys, Lincolns, Corriedales, Southdowns, Shropshires, Columbias, Dorsets, and Cheviots. O. E. Mikesell, Lin county agent, is secretary.

For the Pendleton sale 375 selected rams are listed, nearly 100 more than last year when 286 were sold. Sixteen leading breeders have consigned rams, reports Vic Johnson, Umatilla county agent and secretary of the sale. Breeds include Suffolks, Hampshire, Suffolk-Hampshire crossbreds, Rambouillets, crossbred Rambouillets and Lincolns.

Colonel Earl O. Walter, famous livestock auctioneer of Flier, Ida., will cry both sales.

Mrs. Goyer and Myrtle Prime are employed at the cannery in Eugene.

Jack Grimes of Bend and his cousin Keith Russom of Mt. View visited with Delmer Benston Monday.

SUGAR RATIONING PRACTICALLY ENDED

Agriculture Department authorities said Monday that what remains of the sugar rationing program may be ended in a few days because the government has no money to pay the salaries of rationing officials.

The government had asked Congress for funds to continue the program until October 31, when rationing authority expires. But the lawmakers adjourned without providing the money.

The only phase of the program still in effect is rationing of supplies to industrial and institutional users, such as food processors, candymakers, soft drink bottlers, hospitals, hotels, restaurants and the like.

Ideal Rabbit Homes

Old groundhog holes make the best shelters for rabbits during the winter for they show relatively little variation in temperature.

Record of 80th Congress Ending Saturday 26th

Here's the record of the first session of the 80th congress on major legislation. Congress adjourned Saturday.

It passed these bills: the Taft-Hartley labor-management act; the presidential succession bill designating the speaker of the house as successor to the presidency if the president and the vice-president are unable to serve; portal-to-portal pay bill, limiting future and nullifying most past claims for portal-to-portal pay; continuing wartime excise tax rates; freezing social security payroll taxes at one per cent; retaining the three-cent rate on first class mail instead of allowing it to revert to two cents on July 1; establishing a national science foundation; restoring price support for wool; continuing the RFC and the commodity credit corporation for another year; continuing controls on industrial uses of sugar, on exports and imports of strategic materials, and on rents, with 15 per cent "voluntary" rent boosts allowed.

It deferred action on measures: boosting the legal minimum wage from 40 to 60 cents an hour; outlawing the poll tax as a prerequisite to voting for federal offices; creating a health insurance program; setting up a long-range housing program; broadening social security coverage to reach many not now covered; establishing a statutory program to check the loyalty of federal workers and job applicants.

It passed: bills authorizing a $400,000,000 aid program for Turkey and Greece and a $332,000,000 relief program for needy nations; a measure for U. S. participation in the international refugee organization. The senate ratified peace treaties with Italy, Hungary, Bulgaria and Romania.

It deferred action on: inter-American arms standardization and co-operation; the St. Lawrence seaway; a bill giving legal status to the state department's "Voice of America" broadcasts of foreign countries, although it financed limited operation of the program; a bill to admit 400,000 displaced persons.

It passed: the armed services unification bill; a measure allowing veterans to cash terminal leave pay bonds September 1.

It deferred action on universal military training. It cut appropriations deeper than in any recent year; passed the labor-management bill over a veto; twice failed to pass income tax reduction bills over a veto; and yielded to a veto on legislation to permit import quotas and fees on foreign wool.
