Time Savers

At least four hours a week can be saved by an ironer in the average family. A saving of several hours can be accomplished by the washer. The total gain from the two amounts to several weeks a year.

Ascorbic Acid

Fruits and vegetables are the principal sources of ascorbic acid. This vitamin keeps gums healthy, increases resistance to infection and helps in the development of teeth and bones.

Farms Decline

The 1945 census counted 1.1 billion acres in farmland made up of 5.8 million farms, 600,000 fewer than in 1920.

Many Trees in America

There are 1,000 known varieties of trees in the United States, but only about 180 of commercial importance.

Myrtle Creek Boy Killed Saturday

A gun pointed in jest proved to be loaded resulting in the death Saturday of Richard Lyle Scott, 21, of Myrtle Creek according to the story told by Scott's roommate, J. Lynn Fall McGann, formerly of Los Angeles, State Police reported at Roseburg Saturday.

Both men were sitting on a cot in their quarters in a Myrtle Creek rooming house Friday night, Sgt. Harrel said. McGann was cleaning his .38 revolver, which he thought to be empty. Scott, his back half turned, said, "I have something on my shoulder." McGann replied, "Wait a minute, I'll shoot it off." Scott, hit in the shoulder, died.

Deaf Students

There are 17,836 children in schools for the deaf in this country.

SAGINAW

Eleven young folks from here are employed at the McBee bean field near Goshen. Mrs. Margaret Kelne is one of the yard bosses this year.

The 4-H sewing club met last week with their leader Mrs. Betty Laird. Miss Mable Matson, the new club leader from Eugene and her sister were guests.

Visitors during the week at the Lowell Benton home were their son-in-law and daughter and granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krebser and daughter of Ridgefield, Wash., Sam Campions of Helena Mont. and Frank Grimes and son Jack of Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Laird left this week for Calif. their former home to visit relatives and friends for a couple months.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ostlick and daughter of Arcadia, Calif. are visiting at the Harold Laird home.

They all spent a few days with relatives at Astoria.
