

SOCIETY—

Telephone 159

CATHOLIC CHURCH PICNIC

For the first time in several years the local Catholic church will sponsor a parish picnic for all the families of the Cottage Grove parish. The picnic will be held at the city park on East Main street after the 10:00 a. m. Mass, next Sunday, August 17th. Coffee, ice cream and pop will be furnished. Each family should bring a pot luck picnic lunch and their own table service. There will be games and contests for the children.

This picnic is especially to welcome the many new families that have entered the parish, and to enable all members of the parish to become better acquainted.

The Ladies Altar Society, with Mrs. Claud Troxclair, president, will be in charge of serving the picnic. J. J. Butler and Carl Kebebeck will direct the games and races.

Methodist Church Scene of Wedding

On Sunday afternoon, August 3, at 2:00 o'clock the First Methodist church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Adele Bostick to Ralph Bonadurer. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bostick, formerly of Disston route, now of Eugene, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonadurer of Portland. The couple plighted their troth in a setting of white gladioli and white flickering tapers with the Rev. Frank Brown, pastor, officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Keith Lewis of Eugene, who also accompanied the soloist, Miss Eleanor Culver, of Eugene, who sang "Because," "Till the End of Time," and "The Lord's Prayer." The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father. She was a lovely bride in a white brocaded nylon floor-length dress with sweetheart neckline, short sleeves, bisque bodice and full skirt with mitts matching her dress. Her fingertip lace-trimmed veil fell from a coronet of white and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of red roses and gardenias.

Her matron of honor, Mrs. William Bostick, sister-in-law of the bride wore an aqua dress identical to the bride's and wore aqua gloves. Her nosegay was pink carnations and pink roses, with matching flowers in her hair.

Harold W. Beyers of Portland was best man for Mr. Bonadurer. Ushers and candlelighters were Wayne E. Frie and Frank Baker of Portland.

The bride's mother wore a gray suit, white accessories and Mrs. Bonadurer wore a printed jersey dress, white accessories and both wore corsages of gardenias.

At the reception which followed in the church parlors, the bride's table was centered with a three-tiered decorated all-white cake, topped with a white dove carrying two silver rings. The bride and groom cut the initial piece of cake and Mrs. Lucrécia Nelson of Eugene cut the remainder. Mrs. Thomas Watt of Eugene poured. Mrs. Keith Lewis assisted in serving. The guest book was in charge of Barbara Bostick, niece of the bride.

For her wedding trip the bride chose an aqua suit, white accessories, and a gardenia corsage. They spent a few days at the coast and Crater Lake. They will make their home in Eugene where Mr. Bonadurer is a student at the University of Oregon and Mrs. Bonadurer is secretary for the Monroe Lumber Company.

The bride graduated from the local high school in 1942, after which she was secretary for the Daugherty Lumber company for two years and attended the University of Oregon two years.

CHURCH GROUP MEETS IN GRAPE ARBOR

The members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church were entertained Wednesday afternoon at a 1:45 dessert course in the grape arbor of Mrs. H. B. Bredehoe, who was assisted by Mrs. Lee Cooley and Mrs. N. E. Compton as co-hostesses.

At the business meeting Mrs. C. N. Land led the devotionals and Mrs. Charles Akerblade presented the lesson. It was decided to collect children's clothing, ages 6 to 12, and send to Europe for relief. Members are asked to bring what good used clean clothing they have at the September meeting.

Hostesses for the next meeting will be Mrs. C. N. Land, Mrs. Elmer Kent and Mrs. Lee Duffy.

LUTHERAN LADIES AID

The Ladies Aid of the Trinity Lutheran Church (now worshipping at the S. D. A. church) held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Lake, Disston route. The ladies brought and displayed various articles of handiwork which they have completed to date for their food and gift sale planned for December. The hostesses, Mrs. Lake and Mrs. Roy Dixon served delicious date cake and coffee.

UNCLE HANK SEZ

"THE MAN THAT NEVER MADE A MISTAKE—A CERTAINLY COULDN'T A BEEN VERY INDUSTRIOUS."

Make no mistake about it... CHEVRON products give you headquarters... to see our stock of accessories... to bring your car to us when it needs lubrication, wash and grease jobs. BURKHART'S CHEVRON STATION invites your patronage.

quick starts, fast warm-ups and immediate power. We invite you to make us your gasoline and oil

BURKHART'S CHEVRON STATION

610 MADISON ST. - COTTAGE GROVE

BAPTIST PARSONAGE SCENE OF WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Betty Lou Hood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hood, of Cottage Grove, to Robert J. Cagle, son of L. E. Cagle, of Tulsa, Oklahoma was an event of Saturday, August 9 at the Baptist parsonage, with the Rev. Peter Bakker, pastor, officiating. The couple was accompanied by the bride's mother. The bride wore a powder blue suit with navy blue accessories and a gardenia and rosebud corsage.

The bride and groom were formerly of Oklahoma, but both attended Oregon schools. Mr. Cagle at Paisley and the bride graduated with this spring's class from the local high school. The couple will live in Cottage Grove as Mr. Cagle is employed here.

4-H MOTHERS MEET

A well attended meeting for summer was held at the clubhouse on Wednesday by the London 4-H Mothers club. During the day final sewing was done on the embroidered and quilted spread. Chances will be sold on this with proceeds to be donated to the proposed Cottage Grove Hospital fund. It is an unusually interesting quilt, each block being embroidered with the bird and flower of one of the United States.

Members and their husbands met one evening last week to cut grass in the yard and berry vines surrounding the lot. They are to meet again to complete the job. A display booth for the Southern Lane Fair was discussed and it was decided that it would be arranged again this year. Members were urged to get orders for personal printed materials to be used as Christmas gifts so that an early order could be sent in.

At the next meeting members will start on shellcraft. Each was asked to bring a tube of Duco cement, a pair of tweezers, a small glass tumbler, a few toothpicks and a small piece of glass to work on and change to purchase materials to work with.

A Pollyanna gift was received by Lovene Miller. Housekeepers were Gladys Kelley and Esther Banton. The next meeting will be at the clubhouse on August 20th.

WEEK END RETREAT BY WORLD FRIENDSHIP GIRLS

Early Friday morning the World Friendship high school Quesbys of the Methodist church left for Big Stump beach resort for their annual week end retreat. Friday afternoon was spent in swimming at the "Nat" in Newport.

Saturday was spent on the beach playing and bathing in the ocean and Saturday evening Miss Laura Porter, who was celebrating her 16th birthday anniversary, was honored with a surprise birthday party, at the dinner table. Late Saturday evening a bonfire was built on the beach, the girls encircling the fire and sang songs which they had learned at camp a few weeks previous.

Early Sunday morning the group motored to Corvallis where they attended the First Methodist church and returned home.

This retreat is becoming quite popular with the girls, and already they are making plans for the same next year.

Mrs. Frank Brown, counselor, and Mrs. Earl Cone acted as chaperones for the girls. Those making the trip were the Misses Micky Snapp, Carol Naish, Laura Porter, Marjorie Cone, Betty Dyksterhuis, Alice Hanks, Barbara Grewelle, Pauline Dyksterhuis, Phyllis Englund, Joyce Crouch, Jean Cochran, Pat Scott and Barbara Nelson.

The next meeting of the World Friendship girls will be September 4th at the parsonage and will be in the form of a membership party to welcome new girls into the group.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY MEETS AT BUSH HOME

Mrs. P. J. Bush entertained the members of the Baptist Missionary Society at their regular monthly meeting, Wednesday afternoon of last week with 15 members present. Mrs. Frank White presided in the absence of the president at the business meeting. Mrs. Salem Magnusson was in charge of the lesson and Mrs. Ida Turveen led the devotionals. In addition to the regular program, reports of the house party at Ararah Wana were given by Miss Lena Zendon, Mrs. W. C. Martin and Mrs. Bush.

The hostess served refreshments at the tea hour.

N. OF W. SOCIAL MEETING

The Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet socially Tuesday, August 19, at 12:30 p. m. with Mrs. Mabel Sowles at Curtin. Those having cars contact Adelia Hatch.

Columnar Pads.—The Sentinel.

Vows Exchanged at Lutheran Church

The altar of the Grace Lutheran church in Eugene was decorated with baskets of gladioli and white tapers on Sunday afternoon, August 10, at four o'clock, for the lovely double ring ceremony of Miss Lucille Patscheck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Patscheck, of Creswell, to Dean Bolton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Bolton, of Cottage Grove. The couple exchanged vows before a large group of relatives and friends, with the Rev. W. B. Maier, pastor, reading the ceremony.

Special music preceded the ceremony and soloist was Mrs. Maurice Lower of Creswell, who sang "Largo," "Always," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Patscheck gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of cream satin, fashioned with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and a long train. Her long veil, previously worn by her mother at her wedding, was held in place by a crown of pink rosebuds. Her bouquet was of pink rosebuds and stephanotis. She wore a string of pearls, a gift of the groom, and carried a lace handkerchief of her grandmother's.

Maid of honor for the bride was her sister, Miss Thelma Patscheck, of Creswell. Her gown was of aqua sheer with round neckline and full gathered skirt, with white shoulder length veil, and she carried a nosegay of pink and white sweetpeas. Her two bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Laird of Eugene, sister of the groom, and Miss Joan Morris, also of Eugene. Both wore pink sheer gowns with round gathered neckline and full gathered skirts and carried nosegays of pink and white sweetpeas.

Best man was Richard Laird, brother-in-law of the groom, and ushers were Sterling Bolton, of Cottage Grove, brother of the groom, and Walter Patscheck, Creswell, brother of the bride.

Shirley Ann Miller was flower girl and was dressed in a yellow sheer formal and carried a basket of white sweetpeas. Alvin Patscheck Jr., nephew of the bride, was ring bearer, carrying both rings on a white satin pillow.

Candlelighters were Miss Bernice Patscheck and Miss Frances Kunkel, dressed in light blue formal and corsages of pink and white carnations.

Both the bride's mother and the groom's mother wore aqua dresses with white accessories and corsages of white gardenias and pink rosebuds.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, at Creswell. The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Herman Kunkel of Eugene and Mrs. Anna Bolton presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving were the bridesmaids and candlelighters. Miss Thelma Patscheck had charge of the guest book.

The couple left for a wedding trip to the coast. The bride chose a teal blue suit with fishtail coat, for going away, white accessories and a corsage of pink and white rosebuds.

The bride is a student nurse at the Sacred Heart hospital in Eugene and the groom is an engineer for Wagner Lumber Company, Cottage Grove.

The groom graduated from the local high school in 1942 and is a World War II veteran, having served in the Navy.

SURPRISE FOR MR. BELKNAP

On Friday evening a party of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Gray, to celebrate the birthday anniversary of C. V. Belknap. Mrs. Gray served lunch of ice cream and cake, coffee and punch. The cake was a lovely birthday cake in light and dark colors. Several of Mr. Belknap's old friends from Moro, Oregon, were present, and he was the recipient of many nice gifts and also a fine present from his sister in Canada. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Schillings and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin, and son and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Belknap. The evening was spent in conversation and reminiscences of other days in which some had been with the guest of honor many years.

MOTHERS' CLUB

The Mothers' club met Tuesday in the city park for a picnic dinner and meeting. At this time Mrs. Hattie Hart was honored with a birthday cake and ice cream, it being her birthday anniversary. At the business meeting 18 answered to roll call and two new members, Mrs. D. P. Sullivan and Miss Stella Adams, were welcomed. The relief committee reported giving out 10 garments in July.

Miss Loomis Bride At Home Ceremony

A home wedding which married Miss Bernadine Loomis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Loomis, and Ernest L. Gesme, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Gesme, took place Thursday, July 18, at the home of the bride's parents in Eugene. The Rev. Frank E. Brown of Cottage Grove Methodist church performed the ceremony at two-thirty o'clock.

The home was decorated with large baskets of gladioli. The wedding march was played and other appropriate pieces were played during the reception.

The bride's gown was of white net over satin with a full skirt and sweetheart neckline. White lace formed the bodice and white lace mitts matched the lace of the bodice. The fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and was edged in lace. Her bouquet was of gardenias arranged in a fan shape and centered with an orchid and tied with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Arnold L. Earnshaw was matron of honor. Her gown was of salmon-pink color and she carried a nosegay of white gladioli which was tied with white satin ribbons.

Robert G. Black was best man. At the reception following the ceremony, Mrs. Harold R. Dawley, aunt of the bride, cut the cake and Mrs. Earnshaw poured. Misses Patricia and Lois Dawley served.

For the wedding trip to the coast Mrs. Gesme chose to wear a suit of champagne color with brown accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple will be at home in Eugene at 2 Bailey Street.

The bride was a former resident and graduate of the local high school.

MISS GERALDINE JOHNS WEDS ENDRI TONOLI

At a quiet wedding at the court house in Eugene, Thursday, July 31 Miss Geraldine Johns, daughter of Mrs. Ralph DeJarnett, became the bride of Endri Tonoli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tonoli, all of Cottage Grove. Miss LaVaughn Stokes and Richard Palmer accompanied the couple.

The couple went to Sacramento, California on their wedding trip and will make their home in Cottage Grove. Both young people attended the local high school. Mr. Tonoli is employed at the Electric mill.

W. C. T. U. PICNIC

The Women of the Christian Temperance Union held their annual picnic August 6, in the city park. Following the dinner devotionals were conducted by Mrs. E. Hutchison, and the program consisted of a round table discussion on temperance. The September meeting will be with Mrs. W. E. Masters.

SPRINGFIELD JUNCTION BEAUTY SALON

4401 South 99 Highway
Across from Gregg's Drive-In

Mail Card or Call at Shop for Appointments
Can Accommodate All Drop-ins

PETRA MARTIN, PROPRIETOR
BEATRICE BURCH, Operator

1-tfc

FALL
FLASH!

We have those new and fashionable English ribbed anklets—in white and most wanted colors.

Also just received a new shipment of ladies dresses.

Arnest's Dress Shop

509 Main Street
Dorothy Arnest

Phone 36
Alice Foster

M and W Market

5th STREET AND HIGHWAY • PHONE 177 • COTTAGE GROVE

Cottage Grove's Most Complete Shopping Center. Free Parking — Open Sundays 10:00 A. M. — 6:00 P. M. — EVERYTHING IN FINE FOODS.

COFFEE	Del Monte	Once More At This Low Price	Lb.	35c
MAYONNAISE	Genuine Durkee's	Pint	43c
HONEY	Heins'	22 oz. Jar	59c

Facial Tissues	Swipes
3 pkgs..				25c

HI-HO CRACKERS	Lge. Pkg.	25c
----------------	-----------	-----

OLIVES	Ripe Medium Size	No. 1 Can	29c
--------	------------------	-----------	-----

LIVER LOAF	Morrell's Lunch Meat	11 Oz. Can	29c
------------	----------------------	------------	-----

VINEGAR	In Bulk	Bring Container	Gal.	45c
---------	---------	-----------------	------	-----

• Pickling Spices	• Dill
-------------------	--------	--	--	--

OLIVES	Green Spiced	10 Oz. Jar	39c
--------	--------------	------------	-----

Potatoes	U. S. No. 1's
----------	---------------	--	--	--

10 lbs.		49c
---------	--	-----	--	--

100 lbs.		$4.69
----------	--	--------	--	--

Tomatoes	Solid Red Ripe
----------	----------------	--	--	--

Lb.		10c
-----	--	-----	--	--

16 lb. box		$1.09
------------	--	--------	--	--

M & W MEAT DEPT.

VEAL ROAST	Young Milk Fed Veal	Lb.	49c
------------	---------------------	-----	-----

VEAL STEAK	Young Tender	Lb.	55c
------------	--------------	-----	-----

BEEFSTEAK	Boneless And Waste Free	Lb.	79c
-----------	-------------------------	-----	-----

	Top Round - Top Loin - Cube Steaks
--	------------------------------------	--	--

BACON	Eastern Dry Cure	Light Lean Sides	Lb.	72c
-------	------------------	------------------	-----	-----

SLICED BACON	Eastern Dry Cure	Lb.	69c
--------------	------------------	-----	-----

Advertised Prices Friday and aSaturday Only.

The Smart Shop

for

White Uniforms

Lois C. Leonard