

CRESWELL

Rev. Frank Gray from Cottage Grove has been taking the place of the Rev. James Moberg at the Presbyterian church during the month of August while Rev. Moberg has been on vacation. One application for membership was presented at the regular meeting of Honor Rebekah lodge Wednesday evening. Mrs. Alvin Jackson resigned as warden and Mrs. Esbon Cartwright was appointed to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Walter Crabb was appointed flag bearer for the remainder of the year and Mrs. Arthur Mogstad was elected secretary to fill an unexpired term. The date for the annual Odd Fellow and Rebekah picnic was changed to Sunday evening August 24 at the home of J. R. Miller. The next meeting will be August 27 and the birthdays of May, June, July and August will be observed. Mrs. C. I. Kent and Mrs. Vern McCluskey will be in charge of refreshments. Mrs. V. W. Johnston took a group of 12 youngsters skating at the Paramount rink in Eugene Friday evening. The occasion was the 12th birthday anniversary of Johnny Johnston.

A number of Creswell Odd Fellows attended the all day meeting of Whimawhala Encampment at Coburg Saturday. The following Creswell men were included in the large number of candidates who received degrees: Edwin Brink, LaVern Good, C. I. Kent, Earl Greenwood, B. W. John, B. Eckols, Harold C. Johnston, and Bert Beaver. V. W. Johnston of Creswell is chief patriarch of the Whimawhala Encampment. Mrs. Maude Norton became a member at the meeting of Camas Swale club Tuesday which met with Mrs. Minnie Henriksen. Mrs. Dorothy Henderson was elected vice-president. Mrs. Nellie Lake, Mrs. R. M. Crawford and Mrs. Henderson will serve at the next meeting.

New by-laws will be drawn up it was decided at the regular meeting of Creswell Volunteer Fire department Tuesday evening. Earl Greenwood became a new member. V. W. Johnston and Lloyd Brown served refreshments following the business meeting. The Willakenzie Grangers were guests of the Creswell Grange on Thursday evening and Mr. and Mrs. Atwood of Willakenzie received the third and fourth degrees. Mrs. Ed Graham was in charge of the degree staff and tableaux. Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Main of the Creswell group became members by reinstatement. Several applications for membership were presented. R. M. Crawford spoke on garden pests and the appropriation for erosion projects. A picnic supper was planned for August 28 at 6:30 p. m. at the V. E. Grousbek home. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Clack, Glen Wicks, Don Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Traxler, Mr. and Mrs. Vern McCluskey, and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Radcliff will be in charge. The Grange will not sponsor a food booth at the county fair as was planned, but will concentrate on local means of raising funds for a heating plant for the hall.
