The Rebekah lodge met Friday night in regular session. George Currin and Mrs. Minnie Willis were reported sick. The charter was draped in loving memory of Wm. F. Johnson. Members are asked to bring table service and a basket dinner. Staff practice is to be Friday night, August 22. All new members are invited, and old members urged to attend.

Decorating committee for the tables in the hall will be Blanche Denker, Hildegard Godard, and Gladys Hatch. Refreshment committee, Alta Miller, Helen Chapman, Melvie St. Elmo, Helen Minkler and Helen Sherman.

A written work contest will be held September 5.

Following this week's meeting a patriotic program consisted of an interesting talk by Rev. Peter J. Bakker, veteran of World War II, and a vocal duet by Rev. Frank E. Brown and Jane Harris, who responded with a second number. Accompanist was Mrs. Elaine Crader Land.

SPECIAL GUESTS AT MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Women's Missionary Society of the Free Methodist church was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Verne Belknap. Twenty-two were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowmer, a gospel duo, old friends of Mrs. Belknap for more than 35 years. The Bowmers are heard over the radio and on the Ann Johnson program, "Fellowship Haven", over KWJJ, Portland. Special guests also were Mr. and Mrs. William Waters, of Tacoma, Wash. The Bowmers entertained the society with two vocal numbers, accompanied on specially made instruments made for themselves.

Mrs. Belknap served refreshments accompanied by favors of candy tied to a card which had a verse of scripture on for each to respond with when called upon. The annual election of officers resulted in Mrs. Mary Ross, president; Mrs. Belknap, secretary, recording and corresponding; Rosa Martin, vice-president; a Bernice Overton, treasurer; Mrs. De Haven, Home Missionary secretary; Thelma Wright, stewardship secretary and Mrs. Belcher, junior superintendent.

BARBARA HILL WINNER AT GOLF

The most successful ladies day up to date was held Friday morning, August 15th at the local golf course when about one dozen ladies played the usual nine holes. A ball given by Mrs. George Ross, was won by Barbara Hill, whose score was one less than her guess, with Jean Londahl runner-up having a score two more than she guessed it would be. Vera Ziebeck made a birdie on No. 3, and came out with a score of three less than she had set. Merl King did not play but came out for the luncheon afterwards at the club house. An approach shot contest was held after lunch and Eunice DeLassus won the lady golfer trophy with the closest approach to the pin. This is very good as she is one of our newer players. Kodachrome pictures were taken of the group by Belle Burkholder. Ladies day will continue as long as the weather is favorable.

ANNUAL PICNIC OF FORMER C. G. RESIDENTS

The annual picnic of the Cottage Grove-in-Portland association was held Sunday, August 17, in Peninsula park, the same location at which it has been held since its inception 26 years ago. Former and present residents of Cottage Grove to the number of 75 were present. Coming from Cottage Grove were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McQueen and Mrs. Mallie Miller. Cottage Grove women always have had a reputation for producing culinary dainties that are out of this world. Food tables were overloaded and diners soon were in a like condition. Following dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hull gave vocal numbers and Mrs. Pender of Vancouver, who years ago gave several entertainments at Cottage Grove entertained with several poems and readings of original composition which were loudly acclaimed. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in group reminiscences. New officers: W. F. Hart, president; Elmer Luce, vice president; Mrs. Mae Hart, secretary; Mrs. Elbert Bede, treasurer; Mrs. Hattie Best and Mrs. Elmer Frans, prize committee. Mr. and Mrs. Hart were present at the organization of the association and have missed only one meeting. Mrs. Best is the only person who has attended every meeting. Mrs. Hart was first president and Mrs. Best was first secretary.

EUGENE HEARING SOCIETY PICNIC AUG. 13TH

Mrs. Frank Chapman and Belle Burkholder motored to Eugene Wednesday August 13th to attend a picnic of the Eugene Hearing Society held out near the Oregon State Game Farm on the C. N. Jensen ranch. This is a picturesque place with a log barn and smoke house all that is left of the original housing on the place. It is situated in a grove of huge old firs. The house is modern. On the way out to the Jensen ranch Miss Burkholder stopped at the Eugene Country Club and ran across Sid Milligan and Frank Riggs, who were former Cottage Grove residents, and who were playing golf out there. The course was in good shape but not any better than our local course here, which is in perfect condition at present. Glennie Frost who is a member of the society also attended the picnic at the ranch.

BALES-DOOLITTLE REUNION

The annual reunion of the Bales and Doolittle families will be held at the U. S. Bales home in Dorena on Sunday, September 21. This will be a basket dinner for descendants of these families.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE, GOING AWAY PARTY

Miss Beverly Moore and Mrs. Margaret Herschcoe were hostesses last Friday evening at the Stokes home for Mr. and Mrs. Endri Tonoli (Gerry Johns) who were married July 31. Guests included school mates and intimate friends of the couple and they were showered with many lovely gifts. Floral decorations added to the pleasure of the guests, the refreshment table being centered with gladioli. After the shower a going-away party was enjoyed by all, the honoree being Miss LaVaughn Stokes who left Saturday on a trip to Texas with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Stokes. Accordion music was played by Neita Tonoli and the young people completed the evening with informal dancing. A souvenir handkerchief, presented to Miss Stokes was autographed by all the guests.

Mostly Static

By "Shorty" Smith

Howdy Folks; Judging from the breezes from Washington, everything is going higher except talk. That is still cheap.

Congressional committees are finding that feminine models come high, too. At least when they are paid guests to notables.

Once there were things that people couldn't talk about. Now, they can't talk about anything else.

Perhaps the reason talk is cheap is because the supply exceeds the demand.

Of course the man who hired a lawyer didn't think talk was cheap.

On the other hand, there's a lot of difference between free speech and cheap talk.

There's never any difference in our lighting fixtures. Always the same even quality. Try it.
