Rubrum Lilies Setting for Wedding Vows

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hemenway in Delight Valley was the scene for the wedding of Miss Betty Joyce Hathaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hathaway, of Lorane, to Robert Paul Koerner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Frank Koerner of Kansas City, Missouri, Tuesday afternoon, August 26, at 4:00 o'clock. A tall panel of Rubrum lilies and fern with urns of white gladioli on either side furnished the setting for the exchanging of vows as Michael Shelley, minister of the 6th and Gibbs Church of Christ, read the service.

The bride wore a blue wool crepe afternoon dress and her bouquet was of Speciosum Rubrum lilies and Cecil Brunner roses.

Her only attendant was her sister, Dorothy Hathaway, who wore a soft green pin striped silk dress and a corsage of Speciosum album lilies.

Roy Miller, uncle of the groom, acted as best man.

Mrs. Herbert Moon played traditional wedding music as the bride entered the room on the arm of her father.

The reception which held in the living room of Mr. and Mrs. Hemenway, Mrs. William Norris served the beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake after the couple cut the first piece. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. Guy Holliday, Mrs. W. A. Hemenway and Mrs. Read Hemenway.

The bride attended the local high school and the groom graduated from Shawnee Mission high school, Mission, Kansas, and is employed as a guitar salesman.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller, Mr. and Mrs. William Kilguff, Ernest Hathaway, Dorothy, Marion and Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keltzer, Mr. and Mrs. Read Hemenway, Marjorie, Eddie and Donna, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hemenway, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Norris and Paul, Mrs. Guy Holliday and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Finerty.

MR. AND MRS. RALPH BONADURER

The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bonadurer (Adele Bostick) took place Sunday afternoon, August 3, in the First Methodist church with the Rev. Frank Brown officiating.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT FINLAYSON

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Finlayson of San Francisco (Jeanne Yearous Ochs), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Yearous, were married August 6, in the wedding chapel in Las Vegas, Nevada.

LONDON 4-H MOTHERS MEET

London 4-H Mothers club met August 21 for their regular meeting. Mrs. Kenneth Brown, president, has moved to another community and not able to attend regularly, so Alma Guisinger was elected as second vice-president. It was voted to pay Dean Kelley for work done with his tractor in cleaning the clubhouse grounds. Thanks were received from Maryjo Phillips for flowers sent during her recent illness.

Mrs. Nora Small was present and told about her boy's forestry club and it was voted that the club would sponsor the local achievement at their next regular meeting. Forestry club members and their mothers will be guests and there will be a display of the forestry boys the boys have prepared. Jeanne Morton announced that she was working with Kathryn Clark and Wana Fay Sugg, members of her 4-H Club, on a demonstration on table setting. The team will compete in the homemaking demonstrations contest on Home Economics Day in Eugene on Tuesday. The team will also compete in the homemaking judging contest. First placing teams will represent Lane county at the State Fair.

Following the business meeting members worked on shell jewelry, which proved to be a popular craft. A Pollyanna gift was received by Herma Abeene. Guests were Nora Small and Velma Ballard. Housekeepers were Lawana Sugg and Jeanne Morton.

The next meeting of the club will be held on September 3rd.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR YEAR OLD BABY

Mrs. Marvin Addy entertained for her one-year-old baby Russell Lynn Wednesday afternoon of last week, his birthday anniversary. At the close of an afternoon of games the hostess served ice cream, cake and punch to the guests: June and Kay Williams, Mary Linne, Larry and Ann Minkler, Margaret and Berton Land, Marie and Jimmy Satterwyte, Marie and Kathie Yearous, Mary Michael, also the baby's grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Bolton, and his two aunts, Miss Mabel Bolton and Mrs. Richard Laird of Eugene.

WEDDING DINNER AND SHOWER

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jenkins entertained at two functions, a wedding dinner, and in the afternoon at a baby shower. The dinner, including a two-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, was honoring Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cagle (Betty Lou Hood), recent newlyweds. And the pink and blue shower honored Mrs. Rodger Hood of Sutherlin.

Those attending the affairs from Cottage Grove were: Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hood, Mrs. Erwin Hood and daughter Suzanne, and Mr. and Mrs. William L. Gambill.

Garden Scene of Sunday Wedding

A latticed arch entwined with autumn leaves and tall baskets of gladioli and asters on either side decorated the garden of Mrs. Maude Wright Sunday afternoon, August 24, for the wedding of Miss Irene Lee of Cottage Grove, formerly of Eugene, to Eugene Anderson of Blue Mt. Miss Lee is the daughter of Mrs. Nellie Lee of Cottage Grove and Mr. Anderson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson of Blue Mt. Mrs. Alta King performed the ceremony at 4:00 o'clock.

Several bridal selections of recordings were given by Miss Lois Baldwin preceding the ceremony. The bride wore a two-piece afternoon dress of sheer white wool, with small hat and veil. She carried a bouquet of pink and white flowers.

Miss Neta Anderson was her bridesmaid and only attendant. She wore a two-piece dress of pale green wool and hat to match.

Paul Anderson was best man for his brother and ushers were Edward Carpenter and Duane Carpenter.

A reception followed the ceremony in the garden. Mrs. Dale Carpenter cut the wedding cake and was assisted in serving by Mrs. Ben Anderson and Norma and Lois Carpenter. Lenora Johnson and Willa Durlinger, Miss Opal Robinette was in charge of the gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left on a trip to the coast and will visit points in Washington and Canada. For traveling the bride wore a blue wool suit with black accessories. Upon their return they will reside at Albany and Mr. Anderson will attend Oregon State college.

Mrs. Anderson is a graduate of the Oregon School of Education at Monmouth and attended the University of Oregon. The past three years she has taught in the local grade school.

Over fifty relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Knight of Newberg; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anderson, Neta Anderson, Ray Hensstead of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Durlinger and family, Mrs. Effie Robinette and Miss Opal Robinette of Eugene.

SHOWER FOR MRS. DONNAVIN

Mrs. Ernest Donnavin was the inspiration for a pink and blue shower Wednesday afternoon of last week when Mrs. Robert Woolcott entertained a group of friends at her home. The guest of honor received many beautiful gifts, and at the close of the afternoon, the hostess served refreshments of cake and coffee to the guests: Mrs. Charles Akerblade, Mrs. Matt Smith, Mrs. Herbert Whitlock, Mrs. Lou Hartwig, Mrs. Ed Utter, Mrs. V. C. Donnavin of Myrtle Creek, Mrs. Jack Sauer of Eugene, Mrs. Maurice Cochran and daughter Margaret, Mrs. Leo Gallatin and daughters Bonnie, Judy and Ginger, Mrs. Merle Barrow and sons Butch and Keith, guest of honor and daughter Susie.

Howdy Folks: After so long a time, it remained for a Kansas newspaper man to figure out what the flying saucers really were. He says they were nothing more than trial balloons sent up by the British in regard to the second "gift" loan.

After paying for most of the war, Uncle Sam is expected to pay for most of the peace, too.

You might think money grew on trees.

EXPERT GOLFERS TIE AT LOCAL GOLF COURSE

On Tuesday evening, August 26 the usual two-ball foursome was held at the local golf course with the result that Jean Landahl playing with Ralph Peck tied with Vera Ziebeck playing with Geo. Ross with an identical score so both couples were adjudged winners with the lowest scores. To make it more interesting, Barbara Hill and Mark Kincaid tied with Earl Hill and Alma Sears for the runner-up title as these two couples had the same score and next lowest.

Thirty ate a very delicious potluck while the moon rose over the course. The writer's score was not worth mentioning, and she arrived later than usual so played a lone hand up to the last bitter hole while darkness shrouded the course.

Ladies play again on Friday morning. It was decided that the season was too far advanced to invite the Roseburg ladies to be our guests this year. However we hope to resume tournaments next year and surely enjoy visiting Roseburg course where we are always entertained so royally.

GOLDEN WEDS TO CELEBRATE AUGUST 31

Mr. and Mrs. George Layng will hold open house to their many friends on Sunday afternoon, August 31, from 2 to 6 p. m. in observance of their golden wedding anniversary. It will be held at their home on Row River and all friends are invited to attend.
