CRESWELL

Creswell FL club met Tuesday evening with Mrs. L. A. Whitney and planned a benefit card and bingo party to be held at the Odd Fellows hall on Saturday evening September 6. The next meeting will be September 16 at the home of Mrs. Loren Westrope.

Robert Easterling was elected to membership at the regular meeting of Gilroy Lodge IOOF Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served by J. R. Miller and Norman Skaggs. The committee for the next meeting will be C. C. Holleman and Vern McClusky.

New VFW Building Planned

The VFW met Monday evening with a good attendance. Extensive plans were made for the new building planned by the group and Herbert Turpin has donated the necessary logs for the construction. The building will be 50 by 100 with concrete floor and will serve as a meeting place and club room for the local post and various recreational activities. Ten rifles were received to be used in ritualistic work in connection with funeral and memorial services. Incorporation papers for the local post have been completed and have been forwarded to the national and state commanders for final approval.

Mrs. R. M. Carpenter and daughter, Nancy, motored to Manzanita Wednesday to spend the remainder of the week with relatives. Mr. Carpenter went over Saturday. Billy Carpenter, who has been spending the summer at Manzanita will return with his parents.

Robert Campbell and son Jack of Nice, Calif., are visiting at the Richard Campbell home. They are interested in locating here.

Mrs. Robert Welding and baby of Seattle are visiting with Mrs. Welding parents, Mr. and Mrs. Finin Powell Sr., and with Mrs. Antonette Welding.

Several streets about town as well as some of the roads leading into town have been considerably improved by the county road crew this week.

The annual ice cream social of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid was held Friday evening at the Civic club house instead of at the church grounds as planned because of the cold weather and rain. A good crowd turned out and almost thirty dollars was added to the treasury.

Mmes. Ray Vincent, Ralph Rogers and Charles Wetzel were hostesses to the Home Economics club Tuesday afternoon at the Grange hall. Work was done on articles for the fall bazaar and the bazaar committee was authorized to purchase more materials for the sale. It was decided not to hold the usual summer picnic meeting of the Grange and the birthdays will be observed at the regular meeting on August 28. Mrs. Ed Graham presented a program of guessing contests with prizes.

A group of about 30 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs enjoyed their annual picnic at the J. R. Miller home Sunday evening. Music and visiting were enjoyed after the supper served in the back yard.

A merchants chicken dinner was served in connection with the regular meeting of the WSCS of the Methodist church Wednesday, and a good amount was added to the treasury. At the business meeting which followed the group voted to give $75 toward the building of the new furnace and class rooms and also to make improvements at the parsonage. A district meeting of the group to be held September 9 and 10 at Grants Pass was announced. Mrs. Sylvia Adams presented the lesson and Mrs. H. A. Howe was in charge of the devotions.

Extensive changes and improvements have been made in the high school building during the summer. The study hall has been rearranged to accommodate more students, seven new typewriters and desks have been added to the commerce room, the stage in the gymnasium will be converted into a class room by placing in it folding type tables and chairs, all of the floors in the building have been refinished and the gym roof will get a new coating of battleship roofing. John Napper of the Camas Swale district will be the new custodian, taking the place of A. E. Tennis who has resigned because of ill health.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Taylor and sons motored to Silver Lake Friday to spend the week-end with Mrs. Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gillenwater. Mrs. E. E. Dersham and Mrs. Basil Smith were in charge of the Taylor Grocery store during their absence.

Mrs. LeRoy Bowers and Mrs. Wayne Bowers were honored guests at a joint pink and blue shower held at the service room of the Christian church Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Minnie Henriksen and Mrs. Lloyd Wheeler were the hostesses. Mrs. Jennie Leach of Culver, Ore. was an out of town guest present.

Greens Hardware and Supply store is receiving a new coat of paint on the front woodwork.

Week-end guests at the O. M. Hunter home were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Likens of Portland. Mrs. Likens and Mrs. Hunter are sisters.

L. H. Nickel, the new owner of the Creswell New and Used Furniture store, is making considerable improvements in the building. A new screen porch is being added on the front and the living quarters are being modernized.

Mrs. Forrest Klingensmith has been quite ill at her home but is improving now.

Judy Skaggs spent several days last week with her cousin, Gary Schmitt, at Cottage Grove.

A group of mothers from the Creswell Grade School Mothers club canned pears at Cox's Cannery in Eugene Monday. Anyone in Walker or Creswell district who has pears to donate or who can help with the canning should notify Mrs. V. W. Johnston.

A recent wedding of much interest to Creswell friends is that of Miss Marion Janet Olson, twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Olson, and Stanley Phillip Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall, of Battle Creek, Iowa. The ceremony was performed Saturday evening, August 16 at the First Congregational church in Eugene. The pastor, Dr. Wesley Goodson Nicholson, read the double ring service. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white frosted taffeta with a full train and fingertip veil falling from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried white carnations and stephanotis with a center of purple orchid tied with a satin ribbon. Miss Muriel Jean Olson, twin sister of the bride was maid of honor and wore a gown of aqua frosted taffeta and carried a nosegay of roses, stephanotis and pompon asters. The bridesmaids wore Miss Betty Perry and Miss Bette Hinds, both sorority sisters of the bride. Mrs. Robert Baily and Miss Constance Fullner, also sorority sisters were the candle lighters. Gordon Marshall, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Gordon Reeves and Melvin Bandle. A reception was held following the services at Alpha Omicron Pi sorority house. The couple left on a trip to Victoria. The bride wore a grey suit with white accessories and the orchid from her bouquet for going away. The couple will live at 659 East Broadway, Eugene when they return. The bride is a graduate of the Creswell Union High school with the class of 1940 and of the University of Oregon in 1944 and is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority and Beta Gamma Sigma and Phi Chi Theta business honoraries. The groom attended Morningside University in Iowa and is now completing his last year at the University of Oregon for certified public accountant work. He is a member of the Seaboard and Blade, military honorary and served with the air corps, meteorology and radar. A number of friends from Creswell attended the ceremony and reception.
