MOTHERS CLUB DISCUSSES XMAS PLANS

A covered dish luncheon, business meeting and crafts working periods was the order of the day for London 4-H Mothers Club when they met at the clubhouse for their regular meeting on Wednesday. The business meeting was conducted by the vice-president, Mable Barnes. Minutes were read and a financial report given by Lawana Sugg, secretary-treasurer. It was voted to postpone the next regular meeting date to the following Wednesday, which will be Dec. 3rd, so that it will not conflict with Thanksgiving preparations.

A visiting party of Goldie Gunn and Marie Ewing called on Mary's Phillips during the afternoon and presented her with a club gift. It was planned to express the sympathy of club members with a plant to Margaret Ritter on the recent loss of her mother.

Plans were discussed for the annual Christmas party which will be held at the Dec. 17th meeting. A committee with Jeanne Morton, Esther Banton, Marie Ewing and Gladys Kelley, was appointed to clean and decorate the clubhouse for that event. Gifts for the exchange at the Christmas tree are not to exceed one dollar in cost. At this time Pollyanna gifts will also be exchanged and birthday or wedding anniversary Pollyanna gifts for the month of December will be given.

During the afternoon members worked at shell craft and needlework. Housekeepers were Goldie Gunn and Marie Ewing and Mrs. R. W. Beatty was a guest. At the next meeting members will learn to make cuddle dolls and those wishing to work at these are to bring for each doll: a pair of old silk or cotton hose and a piece of print material 6x18 inches, needle and thread. Work will also continue on shell craft. Regular meeting to be Dec. 3rd at the clubhouse.

The honor guest was given a clue, which led her to others hidden about the house, the last one directing her to a pink and white covered table over which hung an open umbrella, also pink and white, under which she found many lovely gifts. A book was given her containing a list of the guests, a copy of the invitation, the games played, and in which the list of gifts were entered as she unwrapped each one.

Distinguished Gray Frock

A flattering fashion.

By VERA WINSTON

THIS DRESS is an excellent choice for the woman of maturity who wishes to suit her years and figure and yet be very smart and definitely a part of the current fashion scene. Dove gray crepe is used skillfully. The slashed neckline ties in a bow at one shoulder. The sleeves are long and slim, and the bodice is simple. The lap-over skirt concentrates its fullness at one side of the slanting hip yoke.
