P. N. G. CLUB JAN. 29

The P. N. G. club will meet next Thursday, January 29, in the IOOF hall. This will be an all day meeting with a covered dish luncheon at noon. Pollyannas for the past year will be revealed and names drawn for 1948. All members are urged to be present as officers will be installed.

SOCIAL MEETING

The Neighbors of Woodcraft social meeting was held Tuesday evening at the home of Pearl Bressler. A dessert course preceded an evening of bridge. Honors went to Nellie Blackmore and Mary Duffy.

GOWDYVILLE CLUB ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Frank McHughill entertained the Gowdyville Social club Wednesday of last week. There were fourteen members present. The afternoon was spent visiting and refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Dunn won the prize from the drawing. The next club meeting will be Jan. 28 with Mrs. Ben Absher.

6:30 POTLUCK PLANNED

A 6:30 potluck supper is planned for next Monday night by the United Spanish War Veterans and Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Lillian Doolittle, on West Main.

District Meeting Honors Grand Lodge Officers

Grand officers of the Masonic lodge were honored here Tuesday evening at a district meeting of district 9 and attended by representatives from eight lodges. Lodges represented were: Cottage Grove No. 51, Eugene No. 11, McKenzie No. 195, Liberty, Springfield No. 171, Creswell No. 112, Junction City 128, Oakridge 105, Thurston-Harrisburg 28. Approximately 250 attended the dinner served by the Constellation club and the meeting.

Grand officers present were: Walter M. Ransom, grand master; Lloyd K. McRae, deputy grand master; Worth Harvey, junior grand warden and Harry D. Proudfoot, grand secretary; and subordinate officers: James S. Whipple, John J. Kennedy and Roland Randall.

The principal speech of the evening was made by M. Ransom, with all visiting officers making short talks. Andrew Brund, retired Cottage Grove merchant was presented with a fifty year pin. Other numbers on the program included a girls' quartet by Misses Elizabeth and Jeanette Workman, Roberta Bagley and Diane Morelock; piano solo, Esther Utter; vocal solo, the Rev. Frank Brown, accompanied by Mrs. Helen Hagen at the piano.

METHODIST MEN PLAN FAMILY NIGHT

The Methodist Men held their monthly potluck supper and meeting Monday night in the dining room of the church. Plans were made to have a family night at the February meeting which will be the 16th, with the families and friends of the church invited. Albert Adkins led the devotional service, and the Rev. Frank Brown gave a report of the National Methodist Youth Fellowship conference held recently in Cleveland, Ohio.

SUNSHINE CLUB

The Sunshine club of the Church of Christ held an all day meeting Tuesday with a covered dish luncheon at noon at the home of Mrs. Jerry Eastham. Eight members were present. All members were urged to attend these meetings as there is work to be done. The next meeting will also be at the home of Mrs. Eastham on February 3rd. Quilting may be done at any time at Mrs. Eastham's home.

MR. AND MRS. KEITH WOOLEY (Margaret Louise Elliott), whose wedding took place at Newport, Rhode Island, in the rectory of St. Joseph's church, November 22nd.

BROWNIE INVESTITURE

A very impressive investiture ceremony for Brownie Troop No. 125 was held at the home of one of their leaders, Mrs. Augusta Beck, last Wednesday afternoon with their mothers as guests. A fairy pool with a mirror forming the water with banks of moss in which were the Brownie pins made an attractive and clever way of presenting the pins. Mrs. Beck presented each of the 16 girls present with her pin, and was assisted by Barbara Smith, Mrs. Ardath Nichols is the other leader.

At the close of the afternoon the girls served their mothers ice cream and cake.

FRIENDLY CLUB DESSERT

Mrs. Charles Akerblade will entertain the Friendly club next Tuesday, January 27, at a 1:30 dessert.

Catholic Daughters Of America Form Organization Here

Thirty two Catholic ladies signed the charter of the Catholic Daughters of America Sunday as a court was organized here, the services beginning with the 10:00 o'clock Mass at the church, with the candidates assisting, and receiving Holy Communion in a body. A member of the group was State Grand Regent, Mrs. Rose Bell, of Stayton, who has had this office for the past five years.

At 1:00 o'clock the group assembled at the Odd Fellows hall for initiation, election of officers and installation service. The Eugene Court was in charge of the initiatory work, which was followed by the election. Officers elected were: grand regent, Catherine Sederger; vice grand regent, Bettie Troxclair; prophetess, Loretta Varley; financial secretary, Lenora Langston; historian, Frances Gill; treasurer, Louise Merrick; monitor, Alice Sizemore; sentinel, Dorothy Boyce; lecturer, Mary Ann Smith; organist, Bernice Aoreson; board of trustees, three years, Julia Bartels and Ruth McDaniel; two years, Lillian Porter and Mary Laird; one year, Marcella Larsen and Marian Edwards. The Eugene Court installed the officers with Mrs. Rose Bell, state grand regent, as installing officer. Talks were given by Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Maude Roque of Salem, state secretary; Miss Ann Ervert of Mt. Angel, state treasurer; and Mrs. E. J. Eberdt of Eugene, district deputy.

A banquet was served to 78 members their husbands and friends, by the Town Talk cafe in the dining room of the Odd Fellows hall. Russell Smith acted as master of ceremonies; grace by Father Louis Schler of Springfield; welcome by Rev. Father Paul Zeller, and greetings by the grand regent elect of the local court; vocal solos by Mrs. Elliott Voegelé, accompanied by Alice Sizemore; piano accordion selections, Miss Louise Walther; address on "Catholic Daughters of America and What It Means to Us," Mrs. Bell; guest speaker of the evening, the Very Rev. Father Francis Leipzig. The speakers' tables were graced with lace tablecloths, bowls of pink and white carnations, blue tapers and statues of the Holy Mother, dedicated to the Holy Family. A combination program and place card in blue and white was at each place.

The first court meeting will be February 7th at 8:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Sederger, 31 So. 12th street, at which time the name will be selected and the official court number will be received.

The annual state conference was announced for April 24 and 25 at Klamath Falls.
