LADIES GOLF CLUB COSTUME PARTY HUGE SUCCESS

Despite the cold foggy weather, 14 ladies in various costumes par-took of a delicious luncheon served Wednesday, January 14, at the local golf clubhouse. To mention a few: Miala Kincart as a pirate with a cute mustache; Jean Londahl, as a harem girl; Barbara Hill as a Chinaman with a long queue; Ella Zimmerly, as an old fashioned lady with small spectacles and a reticule; Vera Ziebeck, in a patchwork petticoat and silk shawl; Belle Burkholder in full skiing costume with skis; and Loehie Thompson, a pirate also; Mrs. N. J. Nelson, a cute G.I. Joe. Barbara and Ella tied as having the most authentic costumes, so one of the judges, Alma Sears, tossed a coin to decide the issue and Barbara won the golf ball prize. Betty Rickard was also a judge of the contest and brought a friend, Co-lisa Lomas, a newcomer to whom we extend a hearty welcome. We hope more new ladies come to our next meeting, the second Wednesday in February, which is the 11th. Prizes will also be awarded then. The ladder was started, Jean Jondahl, who had the lowest score received a position on the highest rung of the ladder but can be challenged next time by the lady directly below her and must defend her title or be on the lowest rung but can challenge the lady above her. This offer had the doubtful honor of having the largest score but this calamity was alleviated by a most wonderful putt on No. 5 which no one else equalled. Due to the recent flood the course was quite watery. Loehie's boots came in handy when she had to rescue her ball in No. 2's pond. Alma sported some white boots which unfortunately did not stay their original color long. Cora Peck and George Ross took snapshots of the group after lunch.

DINNER MEETING AT RAINBOW CAFE

The Business and Professional Women's club held a dinner meeting at the Rainbow cafe Monday night which was followed by a short business meeting presided over by the president, Edna Burleson. Mrs. Burleson introduced three guests, Dorothy Watkins, Joan Williams and Helen Zimmerman. Miss Margaret Leum, music chairman, presented a vocal double trio and accompanied them. The group sang a birthday song for Nell Bukowski and Inez Hoyt. Nell Bukowski, health and safety chairman, was in charge of the program and introduced the speaker, Howard G. Smith, senior Lane county sanitarian, who spoke on the three major projects facing Cottage Grove, sewerage disposal, garbage disposal and water system. This was followed by two vocal solos by Roberta Riggs, accompanied by Miss Leum.

The club voted for each member to take gift of clothing or food to the Smart Shop to be sent to the club's Belgian war orphan. It was also voted to leave articles of clothing and food at Mimeo's Tot and Gift Shop to be sent to Dollar, Seeland, to a home where American soldiers went for needed rest, and there it will be given to the needy.

Alice Breedlove, membership chairman, reported and three new members were received into the club, Joan Williams, Ruth McCormick and Vivian Barkemeyer.

Plans were completed for the benefit card party to be given February 2nd in the IOOF hall, at 8:00 o'clock. General chairman for this is Grace Cowan; tickets, Edna Piller; refreshments, Lenora Langston; tallies, Della Gallo; table and arrangements, Nell Bukowski; decorations, Lila Graham; publicity, Lottie Lee Lamb; hostess, Edna Burleson and Adeja Hatch; prizes, Alice Breedlove.

DEEP RICH PLUM shades are mounting on the color card and will really bloom come Spring, which is as it should be! Plum colored taffeta makes this crisp afternoon dress which sports a stand-up collar that cleverly simulates a bolero front. Seams are full at the shoulder tapering and crushed at the elbow. The full skirt is slightly padded at the hips. A narrow sash ties in front.

In the contest for newspapers, awards are made for the best all-around high school paper, for the best paper in a school of fewer than 500, for the best mimeographed paper (weekly or bi-weekly), for the best mimeographed monthly, and for the best school notes published in a local newspaper.

Making Plywood sheets

In making plywood, sheets of veneer only a fraction of an inch thick are peeled from big fir logs. Then, the veneer is glued together in three, five or more plies to make big panels. Plywood is called a wood-and-glass sandwich as it is made of thin sheets of wood bound together with the grain of each running at right angles to the one above and below it.

PREACHER SCIENTIST DEMONSTRATES EFFECT OF ATOM

Dr. Irwin A. Moon of Moody Bible Institute is shown above in a scene from his sound-color film, "God of the Atom," to be presented at 8:00 p.m. Thursday (Jan. 29) at the First Baptist Church.

Dr. Moon is here demonstrating the Barkhausen effect, by which the audience is able to hear the movement of groups of molecules within a magnetized steel bar.

The picture has been produced by Dr. Irwin A. Moon, director of Moody Institute of Science in Los Angeles, and noted originator of "Sermons from Science." In the film, actual shots of the Nagasaki and Bikini explosions are featured, as well as the only full-color moving pictures ever taken of the giant 184-inch cyclotron at the University of California. Since this exclusive sequence was filmed, concrete walls have been built around the cyclotron, and the interior has been rendered dangerously radioactive.
