

CITY BRIEFS

Elliott Voegel returned from a business trip to Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. White and family left yesterday for El Centro, California to make their home after residing here for the past year and a half. Rather we should say they are returning to El Centro after a residence there of some thirty-two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartels, formerly of the Champion mine in the Bohemia district, are domiciled here for the winter and are living in the Northcott housing project. They expect to return to Bohemia when weather permits, where Mr. Bartels will resume work on the Champion mine.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Reeve and son Paul visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim McNeil in Springfield Sunday. The McNeils are former Silk Creek people.

Hugh Nixon, vegetable buyer for Irish & Swartz and H. L. Wolfard attended a produce merchandising school in Portland yesterday, driving up Tuesday night and returning last night.

The Rev. Frank Brown and a group of other ministers are at Manzanita, the guests of Dr. Ray S. Dunn, of Rose City Park church, Portland. They are holding a ministers' retreat from Tuesday until Thursday.

We are told that electric clocks are supposed to operate on a 60 cycle current, but during the electric shortage here they have been operating on a 58 cycle, which makes the clocks slow.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beidler returned home Monday from a five weeks' visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Molino, and family, at San Diego, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reeve left for Gerber, California after spending the past month visiting at the home of their son, Wilbur Reeve, and family in the Silk Creek neighborhood.

Mrs. Edward Eaton of Westfield and Mrs. Maude Claspey of Eugene, cousin of Mrs. LaSells Stewart, were guests at the Stewart home Thursday and Friday of last week.

A representative from the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue will be at the city hall Monday to assist persons in filling out federal income tax returns.

The Rev. and Mrs. Frank Brown and daughters Bobbie and Vicki were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Hanks and family.

Mrs. Leon Morton and Mrs. Vinal Randall Sr. attended a 4-H club leaders' meeting in Eugene last week.

Dr. L. J. Williams, chiroprapist and foot specialist has established offices at the Cottage Grove hotel and is ready to serve the public of this area. He was formerly located in Salem and Eugene, where he practiced for some eight or nine years. See his announcement in this issue for further details.

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Hill, recently from San Diego, California, have purchased the Williams Fuel Yard business from Cliff Williams. The Hills with their two sons and two daughters are living in a trailer house until they can find living quarters.

Here's why you are sure of the Lowest Prices at SAFEWAY

Our idea of the right price on each item we sell is the lowest price in town. Under a long-established pricing policy, our first step is to give Safeway customers the benefit of our efficient way of doing business by pricing everything at the lowest point which will yield a fair profit. But we go beyond this in that we also meet the prices of every competitor, item by item, and day by day.

If you see an item advertised in this town at a price lower than Safeway's, please bring a copy of the ad to our nearest store. We will gladly adjust our price on any item of like grade and quality to meet the competitive price.
