Boy Scout Troop Enjoys Hike

The weather did not deter the members of Boy Scout troop 18 who planned an overnight hike a week ago. In fact four boys made it a two night affair. The weather really started to act up late Saturday afternoon, but not until four boys passed their tramping and tracking tests which wound a mile or more thru the brush. Did you ever try to pick out a trail, made of sticks and stones marking the trail?

Believe us the boys who passed their tests really deserve much credit. The rain and wind kept the boys pretty close to their cabin, but this gave them a chance to study the scout book. The scoutmaster wishes to extend his thanks to the parents of the scouts for their trust in him. All had a marvelous time, but got a little damp.

Our troop is growing rapidly and we now have 22 boys attending meetings.

Glen Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hunt was chosen by the troop to be senior patrol leader. Bob Mendell, son of Mrs. W. C. Mendell was chosen as the leading patrol leader because of his cooperative attitude and knowledge of scouting.

Does Cottage Grove need any cleaning up? The scouts decided to offer their services for odd jobs and in cleaning up. If you do please contact Lester Sine at Woody's Glass Shop, phone 309R. The scoutmaster and scouts feel that this would be a good way to raise funds for the troop. The scouts are willing to donate half their evenings for the troop fund.

Tuesday, March 2nd, the troop will hold its second tenderfoot investiture service. Patrons and friends of scouting are cordially invited to attend.

MRS. BRICHER HOSTESS

The Elite Bridge club was entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. Joe Bricher at her home on West Main. A dessert course was served preceding an evening of contract. Guests besides the members were Mrs. Norman Richards and Mrs. William Bartels Jr. Honors went to Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Walter Hunter. Mrs. Stewart Carlson will be hostess at the next meeting.
