CURRENT EVENTS PROGRAM BY STUDY CLUB

The program of the Tuesday Evening club held March 9th was on current events with several members taking part. Miss Mariette Hamant reported on "Phillip and His Father-in-law." Mrs. Warren Snapp talked on "World Building Peace and Understanding by a Bridge of Friendship." Mrs. Kenneth Mickey spoke on "Human Growth;" and Mrs. Joe Smith reported on "How the Russians Stole My Government."

PIE SOCIAL MARCH 30

The pie social planned by the Latham school club for March 19 has been postponed to March 30, due to the senior play on the 19th. All committees are asked to act as planned at the last meeting. The proceeds will go to purchase school equipment. All bringing pies are asked to bring silverware. Ice cream and coffee will be available after the pies are sold. There will be a community program and door prizes will be given. The public is invited.

GUEST SPEAKERS TELL OF EUROPEAN CONDITIONS

The Business and Professional Women's club had two guest speakers Monday night at their dinner meeting at the Rainbow cafe, both of whom had made recent trips to Europe, and told of the conditions in those countries. Mrs. W. A. Woodard, who returned from Europe the first of the year, gave a very interesting talk on the countries of England, France and Italy, and their conditions. She was very much impressed with the American cemeteries of both World Wars and how beautifully they are kept.

Also speaking was Mrs. Harry J. Smith of Portland, aunt of Lois Mills. She told the group about the countries of Scotland and Ireland.

Catherine Sederberg was program chairman for International Relations. Also on this committee are: Eleanor Fleming, Ella Beers, and Laura Gentry.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. R. M. Schwanover of Portland, sister of Catherine Sederberg, Donna Lee Hasty, Louise Smith, Ada Carter and Lucy Ranney.

Pearl Gischler was introduced and congratulated on her new book, "Thunder Hill," which is now on sale. A check was received by the club from Mrs. William Petersen of Ashland, as a contribution to the hospital fund. Red Cross material was given to members for solicitations.

Flags of different countries decorated the tables which was in keeping with the international relations program.

The next business meeting will be April 5th at the apartment of Adella Hatch. The next program meeting will be April 19 at the home of Ruth Stewart Caldwell, and will be in charge of the news service committee. This will be a potluck and there will be a guest speaker.

SOCIAL MEETING OF N. OF W.

Mrs. J. P. Graham entertained the Neighbors of Woodcraft socially Tuesday night at her home at a dessert course and bridge.

A called business meeting was held preceding bridge for the purpose of balloting. Three tables of bridge were at play, and Mrs. Buckles was a special guest. Prizes were received by Kay Bartels, Julia Bartels, Nellie Blackmore, Helen Smith and a guest prize was given Mrs. Buckles. Decorations were in keeping with St. Patrick's Day.

P. N. G. CLUB 25TH

The Past Noble Grange club will meet next Thursday, March 25th, at 1:30 in the IOOF hall. The committee in charge will be Lucy Bennett, Anna Beidler, Elsie Currin and Mina Clark.

'Buddy Poppy Girl'

SELECTED by the Veterans of Foreign Wars as the 1948 "Buddy Poppy Girl" lovely screen actress Jeanne Crain (above) represents a civilian army of 100,000 women and girls who will sell the Poppies during the week preceding Memorial Day. All the Poppies are made by disabled veterans who are patients in government hospitals. (International)

HARD TIME BOX SOCIAL

A hard time box social and dance for Saturday night, March 20th, by the Hebron Grange, was planned at the last meeting. This will be at the Grange hall with a good orchestra to provide the music. Men are to wear overalls and ladies print dresses, and boxes are to be wrapped in newspaper. Women coming without boxes will be asked for a donation. The committee to prepare coffee will be Mr. and Mrs. Clare Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller and Joyce Godard. The proceeds will go for hall improvements. Grange members, their families and friends are invited.

At the meeting Rosie Lewis was appointed Grange reporter.

THETA RHO GIRLS PLAN MOTHER-DAUGHTER DINNER

Plans were made for a mother-daughter banquet at the meeting of the Theta Rho Girls Monday night. Plans were also made for a rummage sale to be held in the near future. More girls are urged to be present at the next meeting to help complete these plans. A covered dish dinner will be served at the next meeting, April 5th, at 6:30 o'clock.

TOWNSEND CLUB POTLUCK

A 6:30 potluck supper was announced for the next Townsend club meeting March 22nd. Bring a covered dish and bring with you.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. Benjamin Kuehn and daughter Joan entertained at dinner on St. Patrick's day for Miss Orlena Martin, whose birthday anniversary was also on that day. Guests included besides the guest of honor were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Martin, W. C. Jr., and Albert Martin and Mr. Kuehn. Table decorations were in keeping with St. Patrick's Day, using green and white, with yellow tapers and green shamrocks. The ice cream was centered with a green shamrock, and the birthday cake was also typical of St. Patrick's Day.

FROLIC AT GOLF COURSE

March 10th was the regular meeting date of the ladies golf club and a dozen or more came out to play and enjoy the brisk March sunshine. The course is in fine shape and only a few soggy spots. Greens are smooth and rolling.

The president decided that first prize would be awarded to the lady who came nearest to guessing her score and whirligigs were placed on the course by those who reached their supposed score before No. 9 hole. Some, however, overshot the mark, others undershot.

Miala Kincart drew first prize by finishing on the identical score she had guessed. Lochie Thompson and Belle Burkholder tied with 2 each under their supposed scores and drew straws to decide the tie.

PINK AND BLUE SHOWER

Mrs. Robert Woolcott entertained Thursday evening for Mrs. Alon Williams at a pink and blue shower. An evening of appropriate games at which Mrs. Mark Morgan and her sister, Mrs. Ben Rawlings of Eugene, received honors, and the opening of the many beautiful and dainty gifts by the honored guest was enjoyed, and refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the evening. Guests included: Mrs. Herbert Whitlock, Mrs. Jack Carter, Mrs. Lee Williams, Mrs. Glenn Crabb, Mrs. Ella Beers, Mrs. Jim Boyce, Mrs. J. L. Stokes, Miss Winnie Stokes, Mrs. Gene Durham, the honored guest's mother, Mrs. Mark Morgan, and her sister, Mrs. Ben Rawlings, of Eugene. Those invited, but unable to attend were Miss Blanche Stokes, Mrs. Harold Bauder, Miss Norma Bradley, Miss Uleta Small, Mrs. Howard Jenkins, Mrs. Fred Stroup, Mrs. Bud McCoy, Mrs. Art Carile and Mrs. Webber.

DEPARTMENT PRESIDENT MAKES OFFICIAL VISIT

The Daughters of the Union Veterans met at the home of Mrs. Mamie Gidney and Mrs. Joseph Safley recently. At this time Mrs. Nellie Hiday of Salem, department president, made her official visit. She was accompanied by the department secretary, Mrs. Sarah Cutler, also of Salem.

Mrs. Hiday gave an interesting talk on the activities of the national department and state department of Oregon and the individual camps of Oregon.

Following the meeting an auction sale was held, the proceeds to be applied on their hospital pledge. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Safley and Mrs. Lee Cooley.

STORK SHOWER AND BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. John Snow was honored at a stork shower at the home of her sister, Mrs. Chester Stitt, on Lorne route, where she and her family are living, having just arrived from Indiana. The party was also a birthday surprise for Mrs. Elmer McMaster on her birthday anniversary. Both honored guests received many lovely gifts.

Those present were Mrs. Elmer McMaster and son Lee, Mrs. Al McIntee, Mrs. Bill Stout and daughter Billie Jean, Mrs. Frank Stout, Mrs. Norman Aubrey, Mrs. Raymond Thies and son Darwin, Mrs. John Snow and daughters Connie and Sue, Mrs. Chester Stitt and son David and daughters Edna and Donna, Mrs. Eva Aubrey was unable to attend, but sent gifts.

The afternoon was spent in the opening of the gifts and visiting after which refreshments were served.

DELEGATE ELECTED TO STATE CONVENTION

At the regular meeting of the Degree of Honor held last week Frances Swanson was elected delegate to the state convention to be held at the Multnomah hotel in Portland April 15 and 16. A social time followed the business meeting with Frances Swanson and Mary Plunkett the committee in charge. Mrs. Ethel Lindholm of Portland, state organizer, will make a visit the 25th.

MMES. HOLDERMAN AND VEATCH HOSTESSES

Mrs. Eva Holderman and Mrs. Lila Veatch were hostesses to the members of the Mizpah class of the Presbyterian Sunday school Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Holderman when 14 members were present. The president, Miss Stella Adams, was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Fannie Goude was presented a going away gift from the class. The April meeting will be with Mrs. Connie Grindale.

METHODIST MEN'S POTLUCK AND MEETING

The Methodist Men held their regular monthly potluck supper and business meeting with program Monday night in the church dining room. The devotionals were led by Wayne Monroe and for the program the Rev. Frank Brown showed slides on "Rural Stewardship." It was planned to have a family night dinner at the April meeting.

FRIENDLY CLUB

The Friendly club will meet with Mrs. C. C. Collier at 401 South River Road next Tuesday for a 1:30 dessert.

INDEPENDENT LUMBERMEN OF CALIFORNIA ORGANIZED

Fred Harris, active around Cottage Grove in the fight of the independent lumbermen against timber monopoly, announced this week that a new association of mill men had just been organized in California. The new group, organized at a meeting at Marysville last Friday, has taken the name of Lumbermen's Cooperative Association. It will be affiliated with Western Forest Industries Association, of which Fred Harris is treasurer. There are about 1000 "small" sawmills in California and the new organization will provide a coordinated voice for them in opposing the government's program for forest management cooperative units.
