Senior Speakers Choose Topic

"The History and Future of Cottage Grove" is the topic chosen by the senior speakers for their discussion commencement night, May 28. Doreen Lyon, Roberta Bagley, Bill Petrie, and Dave Garman were chosen as speakers by the senior advisors recently.

This year's speakers have had various experience in speaking and school activities. Doreen Lyon has been a yell leader for two years at Cottage Grove and is a member of the Honor Society.

Roberta Bagley is not only local Girls League president but holds the same office for the Lane County organization. She is a member of the Honor Society and has been song leader for two years.

Bill Petrie had the male lead in the junior play last year and takes the part of Mr. Maxwell in the senior play.

Dave Garman has been active in public speaking and has the part of Mr. Moore in the senior play.

Fred M. Bozell Dies at Astoria

Fred M. Bozell, 57, former resident and brother of C. A. Bozell died in an Astoria hospital Saturday night following an extended illness. Mr. Bozell was known to many here and resided here for three or four months. He served as superintendent of the Northcutt Lumber Co., when Mr. Northcutt took over operations here some two or two and a half years ago.

Funeral services were held at Astoria yesterday afternoon and burial was made at Vancouver, Washington.

SAGINAW

Mrs. Helen Williams entertained the Friendly Neighbors club at her home Thursday afternoon. Ten members were present. In the contest given Mrs. Marie Bash won first prize and Mrs. Minnie Keene second. The next club meeting will be April 1st at the Williams home with Mrs. Velma Zumwalt entertaining. This will be a "dress up" party.

The upper grade pupils have organized a new club which has been named Confusion Club and is for the benefit of the betterment of the school. Mrs. Noreen Sells is their leader and they meet on Tuesdays at the school house.

Mrs. Emily Robinson, teacher of the four lower grades has been very ill the past week and her husband has been teaching school in her place.

Mrs. Nellie McKinney passed away recently at her home in Arroyo Grande, Calif. She was Lowell Benston's grandmother and made her home here and in Cottage Grove years ago. "Grammy" as she was called by many, would have been 90 years old in July.

Clarence Brown underwent an operation for a ruptured appendix at a Eugene hospital last week. He is reported as getting along satisfactorily.

Guests Sunday at the Lowell Benston home were Mrs. Benston's aunt, Mrs. Anna Sparks and daughter Betty, and Dale Fuller, all of Salem, and Pete Hayes of Cottage Grove.

Slim Bennett left for Colorado last week and will return for his family as soon as he locates a place to live.

The school board members of this district held a meeting at the county school superintendent's office in Eugene Thursday morning.

A birthday party was given for Jimmy Williams at his home Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Laird and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Benston were guests Saturday evening at the R. P. Bash home for a waffle feed.

Jim Abbott is here from California for awhile looking after his place and getting ready for spring plowing.

reminded of a state law granting them fishing licenses for a cost of only 50 cents, the Oregon Department of Veterans' Affairs has announced.

Application is made to the Oregon State Game Commission, 1634 S. W. Alder, Portland, and should be accompanied with a statement from the Veterans Administration as to the percentage of the veteran's disability. Application blanks may be obtained at any county court house.
