

SENTINEL SOCIETY

Telephone 555 or 556

COUPLE EXCHANGE VOWS AT PARSONAGE APRIL 6

At a simple impressive ceremony at the Methodist parsonage Tuesday evening, April 6, Ann Curtis, daughter of Mrs. Frank Graham, became the bride of Dean Summers, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Summers, all of Cottage Grove. The Rev. Frank E. Brown read the single ring ceremony before the attendants and the parents of the bride and groom.

The bride wore a navy blue street dress with white accessories and corsage of cream rosebuds.

Bridesmaid was Joyce Stroup, who wore a grey suit and white accessories and her corsage was gardenias.

Ray Frye was best man.

A reception followed at the home of the groom's parents. A three-tiered decorated wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the bride's table. Serving the forty guests present were Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Summers, Mrs. John Madsen, aunt of the groom, and Helen Blackmore, sister of the groom.

The groom attended the local high school and served one year in the Navy, and the bride attended schools in Texas. They are living on Black Butte route.

Wedgies are a family affair

Air Step

You're never too young or too old for a wedgie! They're fine footing for biking in the park, shopping at the corner store, traipsing to the office. Team up with Air Step's newest wedgie for smart footing this spring.

the shoe with the youthful feel

White, Red and Smoke Elk

GRAHAM and THORP
SHOES

10th street building

Office Supplies — The Sentinel

P. D. G. Garden Club Host To Willamette Dist.

The P. D. G. Garden club members were hosts to the Willamette district of state federation of garden clubs Wednesday, April 7, at the local Baptist church. The meeting opened in the morning with several visiting officers present, who gave reports and spoke.

Mrs. George Saunders, president, district vice president, presided. Mrs. Walter E. Wilhelm of Portland, state president, was introduced and spoke briefly. Mrs. L. W. Franks of Redmond, state vice president; Mrs. C. O. Sloper, independence, vice president of Santiam district; Mrs. C. M. Watson, president of the Eugene Garden club; the president of the Three Rivers Garden club; Mrs. Anderson, member of the Rose society in Eugene, who spoke on roses and Mrs. Adamson, chairman of the herb group, speaking on herbs, were among visiting officers.

The Baptist ladies served a luncheon at noon, which was followed by a short program of musical numbers and readings including a vocal duet by Mrs. Frank White and Mrs. B. P. Bush, accompanied by Mrs. John Reed; piano solos by Margaret and Fred Wulff, who also played a piano duet; reading, Mary Lou Wolfard and two solos by Daniel Anderson.

Mrs. Wilhelm was guest speaker of the afternoon, speaking on "Saving the Myrtle Woods" and "The Blue Star Highway," a national memorial for World War veterans.

The state federation meeting was announced for June to be held at Seaside.

WORLD FRIENDSHIP GROUP APRIL POOL PARTY

A group of the World Friendship Quessy of the Methodist church journeyed to Eugene last Thursday night, April 1, for an April Fool party at the home of Miss Marjorie Cone, a former member. The girls were accompanied by Mrs. Frank Brown, counselor. The hostess served the guests a dessert course, and in keeping with the day, some lovely coconut rolled cotton was served in a candy cup with other candies.

Appropriate games were played with Pat Scott and Mrs. Brown winning prizes. Gifts were presented Pauline Dyksterhuis and Joyce Williams for selling the most names on calendars, and calendars, respectively. The evening was climaxed with an impressive worship service led by Mrs. Brown built around the Twenty-third Psalm, using the American Indian Version, followed by a recording of Bowman's Twenty-third Psalm. Those attending were Pauline and Betty Dyksterhuis, Laura Porter, Donna Guggisberg, Pat Scott, Barbara Grevelle, Carol Neish, Mickey Snapp, Carol Lemmert, Rosemary and Alice Hanks, Joyce Williams, Mrs. Brown and the hostess, Marjorie Cone, and her mother, Mrs. E. E. Cone.

Officers Installed In White Shrine, 3rd

Several officers installed Saturday night at the annual installation service of the Bethlehem White Shrine of Jerusalem held at the Masonic temple in Eugene were Cottage Grove ladies.

Installed as worthy high priestess was Ida L. Hinshaw; watchman of shepherds, Lyman Palmer; noble prophetess, Mata B. Ambler; assistant watchman of shepherds, Lawrence Harrington; worthy scribe, Mildred McCulloch; worthy treasurer, Grace Smith; worthy chaplain, Lucille Lansing; worthy shepherdess, Viola Bentley; worthy guide, Alma Sears; worthy herald, Helen Rude; first wise man, Lynn E. Harris; second wise man, Don Caton; third wise man, Dr. Charles Hunt; king, C. Wesley Hall; queen, Marjorie Hall; first handmaid, Frances Racknor; second handmaid, Ruth Inkster; third handmaid, Ruth Bradford; worthy organist, Jessie Halstead; worthy guardian, Daisy Cochran; worthy guard, Ernest Korn. Among the queen's attendants is Elsa Hickok. Louis J. Caldwell acted as installing officer in the capacity of watchman of shepherds.

During the evening three solos, "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings," "Prayer Perfect," and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by James W. Kays, accompanied by Thaddeus Elvigen.

At the close of the installation service and program the group retired to the banquet hall where ice cream, cake and coffee were served by the committee.

OFFICERS INSTALLED BY NEIGHBORS OF WOODCRAFT

In the absence of the guardian neighbor, Jean Thiel, of the Neighbors of Woodcraft lodge, Helen Smith presided at the regular meeting and installation of officers Tuesday night in the IOOF hall.

The newly elected officers installed to their respective offices were: Helen Smith, guardian neighbor; Julia Bartels, advisor; Pearl Bressler, banker; Mildred Leich, attendant; Adelia Hatch, captain of guards; Nellie Blackmore, musician; Mary Duffy, inner sentinel; Thelma Murrell and Pearl Bressler, managers; Anna Graham, press correspondent; Eleanor Wolfard, senior guardian; Eva Hatch, flag bearer; Horace Hatch, clerk; Fannie Leabo acted as installing officer. Those absent will be installed at the next meeting.

Helen Smith, the newly installed guardian neighbor, was presented with flowers, and Illa Keibelbeck received a past guardian pin, both presentations being made by Adelia Hatch. Helen Smith, Illa Keibelbeck, Adelia Hatch and Fannie Leabo were presented at the campfire and given gifts and roses by Anna Graham and a rose drill was in charge of Eleanor Wolfard. Anna Graham, Fannie Leabo and Helen Smith were also presented with flowers and gifts. Adelia Hatch was introduced as district flowerian neighbor and presented flowers with Julia Bartels making the presentation. Mr. and Mrs. George Keibelbeck were out of town visitors, coming from Grants Pass.

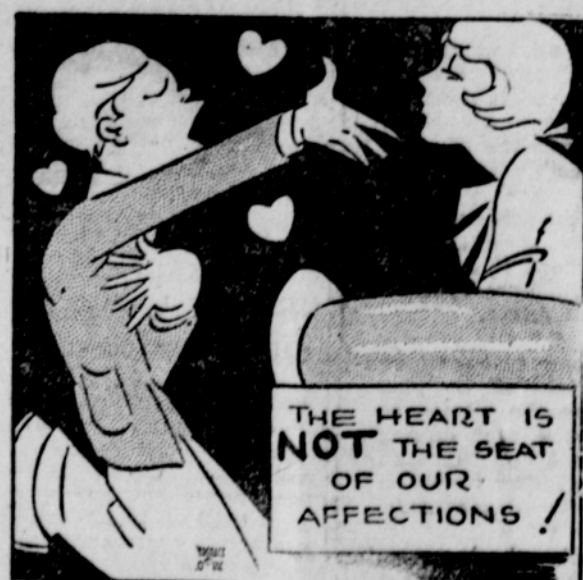

It was announced that the next social meeting will be at the home of Adelia Hatch on April 20. The committee for the next regular meeting, May 4, which will be in observance of Mother's Day, will be Helen Smith and Nellie Blackmore. Mrs. Buckles was introduced as a new member.

Refreshments were served in the dining room by the committee Mearle McKibben and Grace Davis.

WRC TO INITIATE

The Women's Relief Corps will meet Saturday in the IOOF hall at 2:00 o'clock and will hold initiation. All members are urged to be present.

You'd Be Surprised!

But this store IS the seat of quality, value, service and sure satisfaction. May we propose that you stop in at your earliest convenience and demand proof of this statement?

And We Can Prove It.

M & S AUTO SERVICE
We Make Your Car Drive Safe
Free Pick Up & Delivery
Floyd Mead Ralph Schultz
4 Mi. N. of H. 99 Phone 180-J

Adelia Hatch To Head B. & P. W. Club For New Year

Adelia Hatch will head the Business and Professional Women's club as president for the 1948-49 year as the result of the report of the nominating committee submitted to the club Monday night at the regular meeting held in the apartment of Mrs. Hatch. The nominating committee was composed of Eleanor Fleming, Tressa Tullar and Nell Bukowski.

Those serving with Mrs. Hatch will be: Lottie Lee Lamb, first vice president; Edna Piller, second vice; Joan Williams, recording secretary; Lois Mills, corresponding secretary; Pearl Giesler, treasurer.

Edna Burleson, president, was in charge of the business session. At this time it was announced that the southwest district conference will be held at Bend May 2nd, and the Oregon State convention will be in Eugene June 4-6.

The next meeting will be at the home of Ruth Stewart Caldwell, April 19th, and will be a 7:00 o'clock potluck dinner. Each member is to bring a covered dish and table service. The program will be in charge of the news service chair in charge of the news service

State Deputy Makes Official Visit To Hebron Grange

The state deputy, Mrs. Norman, paid her official visit to the Hebron Grange Saturday night. In her talk to the grangers she urged the members to get acquainted with the needs of the community, and commended them on the interest they were taking in the coming school election. The master, Harry Lewis, urged the members to be out on April 6th and vote for bonds for the Latham school.

During the lecturer's hour Rosie Lewis gave a reading, "The Resurrection," and two vocal duets were rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Mads Overgaard; a skit by several children and an egg relay for the children.

At the business meeting Mabel Lalonde and Rosie Lewis were appointed on the relief committee. A note was read from Ben Chilson, who has been ill for some time. Mrs. Lalonde was reported still unable to be out, and it was reported that Elsie White had a bad fall.

The hobby table was laden with dolls and toys, and it was announced that next meeting the display table will be for old music and instruments. The quarterly report was read and voting for state grange officers was held. The committee appointed for the next social meeting, April 17th, which will be a leap year dance, was Mr. and Mrs. Roy Means, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baker and Lorraine Porter, and the serving committee for the next regular meeting, May 1, will be Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murry, Emma Murry and John Lamb.

The Home Ec. chairman announced an all day meeting for Friday, April 10, at the home of Rosie Lewis, the members to bring a covered dish, and are to bring a roll call with a recipe of their favorite dessert, and also asked to bring a sample of the dessert. A report was given on the proceeds made from the box social which amounted to $38.25 and will be used to install yard lights and to put the Grange Monthly in each member's home. Mrs. Lewis announced a bridal shower for Miss Barbara Hayes, bride-elect of Don Ewing, during the afternoon on Friday, at which time all grange ladies are invited.

The evening closed with refreshments served by the committee.

Delegates Elected To Grand Lodge

Friday night at the regular Rebekah meeting delegates were elected to the grand lodge to be held in Eugene, May 18-20. Those elected were Mildred Anderson, Loretta Safley, Hazel Culver and Elsie Currin. Alternates are Rosie Lewis, Alice Conner, Mearle McKibben and Eva Aubrey. Loretta Safley was recommended for district deputy. It was announced that a team from the grand lodge will have the program here April 30. All members are urged to be present.

During the business meeting Emma Erwin and Blanche Denker were reported ill, and a letter of thanks was read from Leita Stewart for cards and calls during her illness. Letters were also read from Grace Zaskam and Effie Boyd.

The next regular meeting was announced for April 16th at which time there will be initiation. The serving committee will be Elizabeth Rohde, Lavina Rearrick, Pearl Roberts, Helen Rude, Edith Sanders, Helen Sherman, Sophia Stilling, Martha Smith, Vina Smith and Henrietta Olson. The staff captain urged all members to be present for the April 16th meeting.

Columnar Pads. — The Sentinel.

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES AID
The Presbyterian Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. Lee Nixon, 1265 East Adams next Wednesday, April 14, for a 1:45 dessert. Assistants and hostesses will be Mrs. C. F. Hoskins, Mr. B. H. Rickard and Mrs. C. I. Rynearson. Mrs. Vinal Randall Sr., will lead the devotions and the program will be in charge of Mrs. R. S. Drenner.

P. D. G. PLANT SALE
The P. D. G. Garden club will hold its spring plant sale Saturday, April 17, at the Mt. States Power office, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. They expect to have many plants of different varieties as they have in the past.

Try a Sentinel Wanted.

Mother's Day Is Coming

The gift that lasts a lifetime

A Portrait of yourself.

Clark's Photo Studio

W. G. (Wally) Robertson
6th Street Bldg. Phone 343-J

Be Certain of Known Quality ...and SAVINGS!

The purchase of brands you Know to be good foods is your greatest assurance of Quality! Purchasing those brands here is your greatest assurance of real savings! Day after day — EVERY DAY — you'll find more and more KNOWN BRANDS... BIGGER and MORE SUBSTANTIAL SAVINGS...by Always Relying on

M & W MARKET

Special! Friday - Saturday

BEANS
LARGE WHITE
5 lbs 69c

Honey, 5 lb. pail 93c
Peas 14c
Oysters 33c
Tuna 39c
Cheese, lb. 59c
Cocoa, 2 lbs. 43c

CATSUP — CHB 14 Oz. Bottle — 19c

GRAPEFRUIT — No. 2 Can — 16c

CHILI BEANS In Chili Gravy No. 1 Tall Can 10c

FRESH ASPARAGUS lb 15c

Preserves Peach and Apricot 1 lb. jar 25c
Pork & Beans Hunt's 2 1/2 can 25c

NUBORA SOAP
Giant Pkg. 67c

M & W MEAT DEPARTMENT

Rolled Veal Roast Boneless Waste Free lb 69c
Sausage Pure Pork In Sanitary Casing lb 69c
Ham Cuts 2 to 3 lb Average For Baking Or Seasoning lb 69c
Halibut Steak — — lb 59c

M and W MARKET
5th Street and Highway • PHONE 177 • Cottage Grove

IT PAYS TO SHOP

AT PENNEY'S WHERE EVERY DAY IS BARGAIN DAY!

Glamour Dresses in COTTONS

Piques... Chambrays
Ginghams... Percales

5.90 and 8.90

Wonderful washable dresses so practical for summer! Peplumed 2-pieces and eye-let trimmed classics! Junior and Misses' sizes.

New Summer Dresses!

PRINTS

10.90 and 12.75

Lovely rose print dresses with brief sleeves and smart double peplums. Perfect for now and all summer! 12-18, and 38-44.

